Z. G. Sprinkle returned some days ago from a trip to Virginia bringing back a pair of the finest horses that the state could produce.

Messrs Zeb F. Curtis and Ed Swain, attorneys of Asheville, were here Wednesday appearing in a civil action pending in the Recorder's Court.

After February 1, 1914, Guy V. Roberts, Attorney at Law, will have his law offices up stairs in the Shelton Building opposite Court House.

Mrs. Minerva Freeman of Trust, died last Monday Jan. 26, Mrs. Freeman 86, years of age at her death, she was buried at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery on the 27.

The only criminal case tried in the Recorder's Court Wednesday was the case of State vs Bob Holland for retailing. Defendant found guilty and sentenced for a term of one year. Appeal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. White announce the engagement of their daughter, Effie, to Mr. Claude Sawyer of this place. The wedding will take place February, the twenty second at the home of the bride.

Mr. D. G. Wright, formerly of this county but recently of West Asheville, is here at the bed side of his son who has been quite sick for the past week. While here Mr. Wright called on The News-Record and added his name to our list of readers.

On last Tuesday Mr. Elmer Smith and Miss Vista Hawkins, of Leicester journeyed to Marshall secured the necessary papers and started out in search of a minister, they finally succeeded. Rev. Mr. Hornbuckle was found and they were married at the Wholesale House about ten o'clock a. m., and went their way rejoicing. The News-Record wishes for them many years of happiness.

The News-Record regrets to note the death of Mrs. George Runion of Walnut Creek and that of Mrs. Tilmont Silver of Halewood. Each of them passed away on last Monday night and each of them had attained a ripe old age. Our sympathy goes out to the bereft families and relatives.

Prof. William Worley, one of our leading public school teachers has accepted a position down in Carteret County and left last Saturday to begin his work there as principal of one of the public schools of that county. We feel sure that he will make good there, as he has done here and our best wishes go with him in his new work.

Items From Trust

Editor News-Record.—It has been some time since I have seen any news from Trust.

We are having some rainy weather in this section.

Rev. T. J. Graham filled his regular appointment at Lusk Chapple church on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. S. C. Hipps, made a flying trip to Cresmont, N. C., last week.

Mr. Lawrence Askew who has been working at Chattanooga, Tenn., is at home now.

Mrs. J. G. Gardner has been very sick for a few days but is improving some.

Mrs. Hattie Price will leave Tuesday for Burnesville, N. C., to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Riddle.

Mr. Erastus Plemmons has entered school at Spring Creek High School.

The Drs. on Spring Creek are very busy now as there is a lot of sickness here.

Rev. R. H. Hipps, Dr. Woody, J. H. Price and Jasper Ebbs went to Marshall Monday on business.

If this escapes the waste basket I will come again. Success to the Editor.

For a more particular description of which said three tracts reference is hereby made to the report of Jasper Ebbs, surveyor, who was appointed by the Clerk of the Superior Court of the said County of Madison on the 21st day of November, 1913, to make survey of said lands and premises, which said report, survey and plats are now on file in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of the said County of Madison.

Terms of sale, one third cash at time of sale, and balance in two equal deferred payments of one and two years, secured by deed of trust on said lands, with interest from date of sale; also with privilege to purchaser or purchasers of paying cash, at the time of sale, in full of bids.

This January 5th, 1914.

C. C. REDMON, Commissioner.

Mr. T. M. Hurt and family have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. B. McDevitt this week. Mr. Hurt has been in the cotton mill business in the west for some years and is returning to his old home at Charlotte, N. C. North Carolina welcomes back to her borders all who have sought other states and desire to come back.

A little boy was sent to weed the garden. He soon returned. "Father," he said, "I can't pull those weeds; the whole earth is hitched to the other end of them." There are people who offer "excuses" for not using the bank account method of conserving their income, the "excuse" being about as sound as that offered by this particular little boy. Every earner of money should have a bank account—its regular and systematic use will prove a material factor working for his success. Come in and let us tell you about Our Plan,
