

Paint Fork Items

At this writing many farmers have there corn land practically ready to plant, many acres will be planted this week. As we have learned to plant early to make firm heavy corn.

Nelson Anderson has broke the record selling corn so far in this section. A number of bushel at $1.25 per bushel.

Mr. John James and wife have gone to West Asheville to reside.

Mr. Kenneth Anderson has arrived from the eastern part of N. C. to take a course in House Keeping with his wife.

Rev. L. C. Roberts filled his monthly appointment on the third Saturday and Sunday of this month, at Paint Fork. On Sunday we had several folks out to hear Bro. Roberts preach a very entertaining sermon using as his theme, The Importance of selecting Consecrated Christian and Teachers in all Sunday Schools and Christian work.

We have had what some folks call an entertaining visitor in our section, is best known as the Banjo and dance. Seems to have a drawing inclination to several people.

Consequently would just say and ask that we ever keep in mind this one fact that there isn't any true devoted christian having the cause of Jesus Christ properly at heart, that will seldom be found attending the places of dance.

With best wishes,
