GOOD MUSIC MAKES HAPPY HOMES

Did you ever stop to consider that music is an indispensable part of your ever day life? Hardly a day passes but that you hear some kind of music. Perhaps it is the deep peal of a bell in a distant spire, perhaps the warbling of a bird in a nearby tree, perhaps the wispy strains of a violin, or the croon of a lullaby, perhaps the music of a piano, perhaps the hum of a bee, perhaps someone goes by whistling or playing the harmonica.

No matter where you live or where you are, hardly a day goes by without music of some kind. Music is an essential part of our lives—just as much as a reading, exercising, studying, or working.

And what a difference music makes in home life! Homes where music is absent seem vacant and cheerless—as if something is missing. In homes where there is music, you will find happy children, good-natured, contented parents, an atmosphere of hominess and comfort.

Tobacco Flues Judgement
To the farmers of Madison and the adjoining counties. Call on Pete Haynie who will be prepared after July the first to supply you with tobacco flues, at a much reduced rate to what you have previously been paying. I would advise that people enter their orders early that there may be no disappointments. Bring along your old flues and have them repaired, which will save you quite a little money.
