Hendricks Jones

One of the most beautiful weddings in the history of Marshall took place last Thursday evening June 21st at the home of Judge and Mrs. John A. Hendricks on the hill above town, when their daughter, Letitia, was married to Mr. Leonidas Merritt Jones of Raleigh. The ceremony was read in the living room of the home which was beautifully decorated. Under an arch of pink roses the bride and groom plighted their vows. The house was decorated in smilax and pink and white roses. The hall and dining room with rhododendron and pink and white roses with smilax. The groom was accompanied by his brother, Mr. Hunter H. Jones of Graham, who acted as best man. The brides little sister, Virginia Hendricks accompanied her as Maid of honor. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. E. Finley, of Marshall. Judge Hendricks gave away the bride, the full Episcopal service being used. The party entered to the Wedding March, played by the brides sister, Mrs. Joseph House, who during the ceremony rendered the Evening Star from Tannhauser whose low strains added charm to the whole event. The brides wedding gown was of imported, Pastel Satin ornamented with pearls as was also the brides veil. The bridal bouquet was Lillies of the Valley with rosebuds. The grooms present was a platinum pin with diamonds. The going away gown was a three suit of dark blue tricotine with green hat and shoes.

After the ceremony the guests retired to the porch where punch was served by Miss Sarah Finley and light refreshments passed. Then the guests entered the dining room where the brides cake beautifully iced with Lillies of the Valley was cut.

The newly married couple took the night train with objective of New York by rail and return to Norfolk by boat, and then to Raleigh where they will make their future home. They will be at home after the 15th of July. The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Jones of Durham, parents of the groom, Miss Louise Jones, Sister of the groom, Mr. Hunter H. The World's Greatest Tragedy AND THE LAST GREAT BATTLE Baptist Church Sunday Night

Our program this Sunday will be a full and complete one in every respect. If you don't believe it come and see. We have sent for three reels of moving pictures that every man and woman, boy and girl, should make it a point to see if at all possible for them to do so.

They make up the last tragic scenes in the life of our Lord Jesus Christ. In them we see HIM on trial before Pilate, the Roman Governor. We see HIM denied by Peter insulted by the mob, crowned with thorns, etc. We see HIM led to Calvary's Mountain and crucified. We also see HIM buried in the tomb, and then, last, but not least, we see HIM Rising Triumphantly from the dead. Altogether this scenic production makes a most solemn and impressive picture—one that is awe-inspiring and thrilling to the last degree—most realistic indeed.

"THE LAST GREAT BATTLE," will be the subject of our Gospel Message. The morning hour will be devoted to a study of the "SPIRIT" OF 1776, to our mind a most timely and appropriate theme, in view of the fact that the GLORIOUS FOURTH comes next week. All real patriots—those who, in the true sense of the word, love and cherish their country's welfare, are most cordially invited indeed. It goes without saying that we will do our level best to make it worth while to all who attend.

I have often wondered why it is that people will pay good money for amusement that will only satisfy the basement of their brains—inspire the DEVIL in them, etc. In the writer the DEVIL will oftentimes show up without any coaxing at all. That is one thing I don't have to pay for—that is, in dollars and cents—"NUF SED" Am grateful for my friends. Appreciate them to the full. In a sense, am also grateful for my enemies. Appreciate them also. As a matter of fact, I would a whole lot rather have the enmity of some folks than their friendship.—"NUF SED AGAIN"

Good Luck and God Bless and Keep You All. So Long until Sunday. Hope to see you then.

CORDIALLY,
 EVAN RIDGE EVANS.

THE MATRIMANIAC Featuring Douglas Fairbanks Moving Pictures

Will be given at the Chapel in Walnut on Friday Night of this week. A Travelogue made up of two reels, will also be given. It will be of the State of Florida, and will include a trip to Lake Okechobee—to the Seminole Indians at home—the Everglades and the lively interest of an Alligator farm. The travelogue ends with the attractions of Palm Beach in January, giving one the feeling that he is a real tourist.

The Matrimaniac is a real comedy of seven five hundred foot reels, and will give you some real, honest to goodness laughter. Altogether it will be a great program. The Chapel—Walnut—Friday night of this week.

A Few Fillers

When a bird is killed, bugs rejoice.

Summer heat has the same effect on fertile eggs as the hen or incubator. The fertile germ will quickly make a blood ring which spoils the eggs for market or food.

Don't forget that your copy of extension circular 137 telling how to dust cotton for control of the boll weevil is waiting for you to write to the Editor, Extension Service, Raleigh and ask for it.

In the absence of skim milk or buttermilk, either fish meal or tankage is as necessary to the growth of the pig as nitrogen is to corn or cotton, says W. W. Shay, swine extension worker.

Permanent pastures need to be clipped to induce new growth and to prevent weeds from maturing seed, say extension workers of the State College.
