"Doc" Cook Again Gets in Limelight

Dr. Cook flatly denies every charge of whatever character ever brought against him. He still vehemently asserts he reached the North Pole. In fact he has spoken to several audiences about his famous "dash"; he insists that he provided well for his wife and daughter; that he never practiced fraud in the oil game; that he really did climb to the top of Mt. McKinley—that the whole world, in fact, is in league against him.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook and more than twenty of his associates are on trial in the Federal court at Fort Worth, Tex., charged with misuse of the mails. Cook and his co-defendants are among 100 charged with fraudulently promoting stock sales, as a result of which, according to the Attorney General's department, a "sucker list" which extended from the Atlantic to the Pacific, was swindled out of $200,000,000.

Cook, who won world-wide fame in 1908 when he declared he discovered the North Pole but failed to submit proofs, went to Texas five years ago seeking peace and wealth.

His domestic troubles have been in Fort Worth courts for two years. What oil he discovered was insufficient to smooth his marital troubles, and only a few months ago his wife was given a divorce decree, Cook falling to appear.

Haller, Polish Hero, Gets Warm Welcome

America has had the pleasure of entertaining many distinguished war leaders, including the French generals Joffre, Foch and Gouraud, but none of its visitors from abroad has come nearer the rating of a national hero than Gen. Joseph Haller, the idol of Poland, who came here to attend the American Legion convention in San Francisco.

The general is not only a hero in his native land, but also in the United States. Many of our citizens of Polish extraction fought under his banner and thousands of Poles not naturalized at the time returned to Europe to assist in winning freedom for their country.

Those Americans called themselves "Haller's Own," because they fought under his immediate command, and his division, as it was termed, approached the size of an army as recruits flocked to his headquarters. Many of the soldiers who enlisted in his army have since returned to the United States and become repatriated. His record in the war and the unique position he occupies in Polish political circles have made him a man to be reckoned with in European affairs.

Mary Garden to Be Married—Perhaps

Mary Garden, who is her own press agent, will be married in 1924—perhaps. She says so herself. "For twelve years newspaper men have been asking me when I'm going to be married," said Mary. "Next year is the thirteenth, my lucky number, astrologists, fortune tellers, palm readers, all tell me that I am to be married in 1924. So you see something ought to happen. I never miss an opportunity to consult fortune tellers and palm readers. I love to hear them, though I always go away and say I don't believe a word they say. "Anyway, the fortune tellers all agree in saying that I am to be married next year, so now every man I meet I look him over and wonder if perhaps he is not the man. However, I haven't seen him yet. "The only thing I dislike about getting married," continued the singer, "is that I shall have to walk down the aisle of the church. I hate walking. I hate it so much that I shall probably be married sitting in an automobile. I love dancing, but that is as far removed from walking as it is from swimming. "I hate golf primarily because it is another form of walking. It also is a form of approaching senile debility and paralysis of the emotions. You show me a woman who goes in for golf and I'll show you that she is getting so she wheezes when she dances or lops over the top of her evening gown and thinks a long stroll over the grass will put her in shape again."

Ladd's Billion-Dollar Government Bank

A billion-dollar government bank for lending money to American farmers at 4 per cent interest! Although it would revolutionize the American financial system, this in effect is the proposal advocated by Senator Edwin F. Ladd, Republican, of North Dakota for stabilizing agriculture. Ladd's plan is based on the government issuing millions of dollars in new United States treasury certificates—guaranteed by the gold and silver bullion in its vaults—and lending the new paper money to farmers through postal saving banks at 4 per cent interest. The new greenbacks, Ladd declared, would give the farmer cheaper credit, easily accessible cash and end a "money famine" now existing in the West. To prevent inflation, his plan would place a limit of $5,500,000,000 on all paper money to be circulated in the United States, which ultimately would force the retirement of all other paper money in favor of federal greenbacks. The North Dakota senator has announced he would introduce a bill in the next congress to put his plan in operation. It is certain to meet vigorous opposition from financial institutions and perhaps from treasury officials. A new "money fight" similar to the famous Bryan "16 to 1" controversy may be projected.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 18

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST A MISSIONARY

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 9:35-38; Luke 8:1-3; John 2:14-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—"God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 2:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Preaching in City and Country.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus a Missionary.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Missionary Activity of Jesus.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christ's Missionary Zeal.

I. The Missionary Motive (Matt. 9:35-38).

As Jesus saw the multitude His compassion was aroused. Their pitiful condition moved Him to take steps to provide missionaries. The result of this was the sending forth of the Twelve. Jesus saw the multitude as:

1. Shepherdless Sheep (v. 36). The people were in need of a protector, provider and guide, just as sheep are of a shepherd. They were faint and scattered—distressed, cast down and hopeless. What a picture of the needy world today! The world is hungry but knows not how to have this hunger satisfied. They know not which way to turn in their confusion and perplexity. They are in need of that which alone the Good Shepherd can supply.

2. Grain Ready for Harvest (v. 37). He told the disciples that the grain was ripe, ready for the harvest, and that unless laborers were secured the harvest would be lost. This is still a picture of the world. The laborers are still few. It is the Lord's harvest that is ready to be gathered. No wonder He was moved with compassion! Those who have eyes to see and hearts to feel are still moved with compassion as they see the world ready to be gathered into Christ's fold but no one to perform the labor. The means for securing laborers for the harvest is prayer. He urged the disciples to pray that the Lord would send forth laborers.

II. Classes of Missionaries (Luke 8:1-3).

Three classes are here enumerated: 1. Jesus Himself (v. 1). He is the grand and supreme missionary. All receive their example and power from Him. He left all and gave all in this great enterprise.

2. The Twelve (v. 1). Christ called them and sent them forth. They were His representatives and were clothed with His power. Missionaries should be chosen and commissioned by the Lord Himself. In the evangelization of the world there will always be need of the group of men and women devoted exclusively to that work.

3. Certain Women (vv. 2, 3). Christian women can most effectively do their part in preaching the gospel by ministering to the workers. All who have experienced the saving grace of God desire to have a part in sending the gospel to others that they too might be saved. The church is greatly indebted to the work of consecrated women.

III. The Missionary Message (John 3:16, 17).

The salvation which is offered to the lost world was accomplished through the sacrificial death of Christ. Out of a heart of love God gave His own son to die. The figure portraying the method of the Cross and salvation is that of the brazen serpent. The outstanding teaching as suggested by Dr. Charles R. Erdman is as follows:

"1. That men are, like the Israelites of old, serpent-bitten; but the deadly poison is the sting of sin.

"2. God has provided a remedy in the person of His Son; in His crucifixion we see sin vanquished, as the uplifted serpent pictured the death of the destroyer; yet as the uplifted serpent was not real but one of brass, so Christ was not really a partaker of sin but only made in the likeness of sinful flesh.

"3. As it was necessary for the dying Israelites to accept God's provision, and with submission and faith to look upon the brazen serpent, so it is necessary for us to look in repentance and faith to the crucified Savior and to commit ourselves to God as He is graciously revealed in Jesus Christ. If we refuse to accept Christ we perish, but faith results in eternal life.

"4. This provision is made by the love of God and is freely offered to everyone who believes. For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

His Presence.
When we have broken our God of tradition, and ceased from our God of rhetoric, then may God feel the heart with His presence.—Emerson.

God's Way.
God's way of forgiving is thorough and hearty—both to forgive and to forget; and if thine be not so, thou hast no portion of His.—Leighton.

Heart and Home.
Without hearts there is no home.—Agass.

For Economical Transportation
CHEVROLET
Every Farm Needs Two

EVERY farm needs two automobiles, one of which should be a closed model Chevrolet.

The open touring car is best for general farm use, carrying passengers or perhaps miscellaneous bulky produce or merchandise, but for cold or rainy weather, and for church or social use the family needs a closed car, either a 2-passenger Utility Coupé as illustrated, or the 5-passenger Sedan. The extra large rear compartment is a feature of the Coupé.

These closed cars are very finely made, furnished, upholstered and trimmed. The windows are of plate glass and can be lowered, providing as much air as an open car, yet affording full protection against wind, rain, snow or cold when raised.

With a second car on a farm, one is always available for those at home when the other car is out.

The low prices of Chevrolet make the ownership of two cars feasible for most farm families.

FIRST U. S. MILITARY MEDAL WIDENS MARKET FOR MEAT

Government Gave Gen. George Washington Decoration to Commemorate Evacuation of Boston.

The first military medal ever bestowed by the American government was one in gold to Gen. George Washington, to commemorate the evacuation of Boston by the British in 1776. Capt. Paul Jones was similarly rewarded after his famous fight with the "Serapis" in 1779, and the three men Paulding, Williams and Van Wart, who captured Maj. John Andre in 1780, were given special medals by congress.

The first decoration, and so far as Col. Robert E. Wylie of the general staff of the U. S. A., and author of a work on military and civil orders, decorations and insignia, has been able to discover, which had a general application to enlisted men, was the result of an order issued in 1782 by General Washington. A soldier cited for the decoration was permitted to wear on his facings, over his left breast, the figure of a heart in purple cloth or silk, edged with narrow lace or binding.—Detroit News.
