From BULL CREEK

Saturday and Sunday were our regular meeting days and Rev. Perry Sprinkle preached wonderful sermons and the Sunday morning services were postponed until 2:30 on account of funeral services for Miss Theoria Roberts at Laurel Branch. A large crowd was in attendance.

We were sorry to hear of the untimely death of Miss Theoria Roberts and feel deep sympathy for the bereaved ones.

Visitors from Asheville and West Asheville at Bull Creek Sunday afternoon were Mr. Claxton and his brother, Rev. Herbert Cohn and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Reagan Long and friend Mr. Joe Sprinkle, the son of our pastor and two boy friends, Mr. Willard Coffee and others.

Miss Laura Silver and Miss Sophia Buckner have returned to Galloway to take up college work. They will be much missed by all.

We are sorry to say that Mr. John Silver of Petersburg and Mr. Kenneth Edwards of Bull Creek plan to leave for California this week. We are sorry to see them leave and wish them all good luck.

There will be prayer meeting Friday or Saturday night. Our pastor will be here from West Asheville and said he would ring the church bell either Friday or Saturday evening.

LOWER BIG PINE SCHOOL

The school at this place has been progressing nicely during the past two months. The children are taking great interest in their work while everyone seems to be taking great pride in his school this year.

From Lower Big Pine

Messrs. Coleman Gregory and Ernest Worley were out motoring Sunday afternoon. They went to Hot Springs, Brush Creek. This part of Madison County neither one had ever seen before.

While at Hot Springs they visited the Warm Springs. Each of them drank some of the water.

Mrs. Bonnie Willis and son, Mr. Clarence, and Miss Annie May Worley visited Mrs. Ralph Caldwell Sunday afternoon. We hope they enjoyed themselves.

Miss Minnie Reese visited her father Monday night, who is very ill. We hope he soon will be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith and children spent the week-end with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Worley.

Mr. Edward Randall spent the week-end with Mr. Tony and Albert Randall.

Miss Belva Worley spent Tuesday night with Miss Virginia Randall.

Mr. Edward Randall and Herman Payne were out motoring Tuesday evening.

We all congratulate Mr. Buquo for his compliments. We are hoping that the next time he visits us that a bridge will span the creek to our school ground.

From Banjo Branch

We are all glad to say the Globblin Association of Banjo Branch is improving.

Mr. Herman Rector of Watersville spent the week-end with home folks.

Those visiting Miss Frances Rector Monday night were Miss Kathleen Allen, Miss Gracie Dover, Mr. Wiley Allen, Clint Dover, also Mr. Archie Rice. All reported a nice time.

Little Robbie Plemmons of Brush Creek spent last Thursday night with her cousin, Little Edna and Stroba Rector.

Mr. Herman Rector was visiting Miss Robbie Tipton Sunday night.

Mr. Robbie Norton was helping Mr. Will Surcy cut tobacco Monday.

Mr. Harley Rector and A. C. Rector were visiting Mr. Commodora Davis Sunday.

Mr. A. C. Rector, Floyd Rector and Cleophas Rector went fox hunting Monday night, and reported a wonderful race.

Mr. Wade Rector has been seriously ill for the past week.

Mr. Rassic Treadway was visiting Mr. Clint Dover Sunday.

Come on, Old Dry Branch, with the news. We are always glad to hear from you.

A Two-Dollar Dinner for Six

Between the feasts of Thanksgiving and Christmas the careful housewife works in a few frugal meals. Here's a substantial and tasty dinner which will fully satisfy six people at a cost of only two dollars:

- Mock Turtle Soup
Spaghetti with Cheese and Tomato Sauce
Stringless Beans
Bread and Butter
Asparagus Salad
Peach Halves with Cream
Demi-tasse

ONE merit of this meal is its saving of labor. All three of the hot dishes need only be heated and served. As to prices, two cans of mock turtle soup cost 14 cents each, and you can buy three cans of spaghetti with cheese and tomato sauce for a quarter. A can of stringless beans costs 29 cents, a loaf of bread 10 cents and the necessary butter 10 cents. Asparagus for the salad costs 19 cents a
