A FULL LIST OF FOODS

Ask for the canned foods you like at your favorite chain or grocery store. If it hasn't them the first time, ask again, and it will soon stock the foods that are in demand. In order to facilitate your doing this we are appending hereto a full list of the principal foods that come in cans. Those put up in the sanitary enamel lined cans which have become so popular with the housewife are marked with an E. There are a few other canned foods specialties produced in small amounts, in addition to those listed below, but this list illustrates the amazing variety of pure, safe foods now available in cans.

FROM PAINT ROCK

Misses Lucille Ramsey and Robbie Thornburgh motored to Greenville, Tenn., on Saturday, Nov. 16, with a party of friends to attend the foot- ball game at Tusculum College, be- tween Tusculum and Guilford Col- lege. They reported a delightful trip.

Miss Dorothy Ramsey, who is a student at Tusculum College, accom- panied her friends home and spent the week-end here with her parents.

Rev. V. Smith of Knoxville, Tenn., has been in Paint Rock since Thurs- day and has delivered some splendid sermons here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Myers had as their guest on Tuesday night of last week, Mr. W. S. Murphy of Morris- town.

Misses Louise Williams and Julia Wilson spent the week end with their friends in Greenville, Tenn.

Mrs. Hall and daughter, Miss Oddie Hall, of Wolf Creek, were guests of Mrs. J. D. Spratt for lunch Sunday.

Mr. M. L. Thornburg went to Knox- ville on Monday of last week. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Miss Robbie Thornburgh, who has been attending Knoxville Business College.

Mr. E. N. Myers visited his son, Mr. G. C. Myers and his daughter, Mrs. Ralph Cooper last week end.

Mrs. J. D. Spratt and small sons, Edd and Jack, visited Misses Pauline and Evelyn Spratt, who are students at Dorland-Bell, on Saturday.

Master Orville Myers, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Myers, who broke his leg some time ago, has practically recovered. His recovery has been quite rapid and satisfactory due greatly to the efficient and untiring efforts of Dr. Kimberly of Hot Springs, who did the work of setting his leg and attending him both at the hospital and at home.

THE TWO TEMPLES

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought with care and skill,
Pillars and groins and arches
Were fashioned to meet his will.
And men said when they saw its beauty,

"It shall never know decay;
Great is thy skill, O builder,
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple,
She wrought with skill and care,
Forming each pillar with patience,
Laying each stone with care.
None saw the unceasing effort;

None knew of the marvelous plan;
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust,
Pillars and groins and arches
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the teacher builded
Shall endure while the ages roll;

For that beautiful unseen temple
That the world has never known.
