

BIRTHDAY FUN

We requested a young business man of Marshall to register his family in our Birthday Club, and he did this without hesitation.

After our friend had given us the desired information he inquired to know what it is all about.

We are deeply sorry we can not complete this little story. Our typewriter ribbon has broken for the third time today!

We have a most welcome letter from members of Ashe County Teacher Training Dept., located at Grassy Creek, N. C.

These student teachers of Ashe County seem to appreciate the News-Record as a bright and original small town weekly.

We will not be able to open our Birthday Club to all of the teachers and student teachers in the entire state, much as we would like to have every one of them.

WALNUT HIGH SCHOOL

The Walnut school has just bought uniforms for both the girls' and boys' teams.

We are planning to begin our schedule of basketball this week with a game with Hot Springs.

We hope that our inter-scholastic relations this year will be satisfactory and beneficial to all concerned.

The school is now conducting a sale for subscriptions to the "Southern Ruralist." The school keeps fifty per cent of the amount collected.

We are now planning and preparing our Thanksgiving program. This program will be given at three o'clock on Wednesday before Thanksgiving Day.

The program is as follows: Song—Song of Harvest Recitation—Gratitude Story—The Turkey Drive Song—Thanksgiving Pageant—Thanksgiving

SEVENTH GRADE CIVICS I A GOOD POLITICIAN By CURTIS WORLEY, 8th Grade

A good politician should be one that is trustworthy, loyal to the party who elected him, but not loyal enough to be dishonest.

SIGNIFICANCE OF A "SPECIAL DAY"

IT is indeed a beneficent influence that for a season, however brief, deflects or withdraws the mind from the mad rush of commerce and industry and directs it into the ways of pleasantness and peace.

Our calendar year is marked by days, weeks and months. We live not by months or weeks, but by days. It is therefore important that we take account of the contribution each day makes to our lives.

THANKSGIVING is one of the "special days" which, during recent years, comes to North Carolinians freighted with the spirit of goodwill of cheerfulness, of happy greetings fragrant with friendship, that means service that service may be real.

EVERYBODY, old and young, rich and poor, learned and illiterate, are asked to join in this holy movement and thus "visit the fatherless in their affliction."

At Thanksgiving time, the appeal of the North Carolina Orphan Association which is, once again, asking every citizen of the "Good Old North State" to contribute the income of one day out of 365 to the orphanage.

world, becomes the very symbol of defenseless affliction; and as such, it should receive the protection of every man's arm and the affection of every woman's heart.

To the North Carolina Orphan Association, it is the solemn consideration that God Himself has made especial promises of protection to the orphan, friends who will "stick closer than a brother."

Those capable of estimating the value of the life of a child bereft of the blessings and comforts of a home, should realize what it means to enlist in the movement to swell the treasuries of the orphan homes in the State at Thanksgiving, remembering that the Master Himself gave expression to the inspirational pronouncement, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The need for liberal Thanksgiving offerings has not been so apparent in a long time as it is this year. Let us rise to the dignity and demand of the hour by each doing his level best to bless the State and lift it to a higher plane of beneficence and good will.

Thanksgiving season is a most appropriate period during which our people may show their appreciation of the splendid service the orphan homes are rendering in the care, protection, training and education of orphaned children who might otherwise become a menace to the State and a care upon the public.

at Thanksgiving this year and realize the full delights of service by making glad the lives of hundreds of bright boys and girls, bereft of parents, who are now under the fostering care of the fine orphan homes located in various sections of this splendid old Commonwealth.

Very respectfully, M. L. SHIPMAN, Chairman. REV. A. S. BARNES, CAPT. SPRAGUE SILVER, W. A. GRAHAM, MISS FANNIE H. YOUNG, MRS. KATE BURR JOHNSON, MRS. JOSEPHUS DANIELS, Publicity Committee.

SPRING CREEK SCHOOL NEWS

Superintendent Blankenship was in the school last week. He met with the teachers and was checking over standard requirements.

Splendid opening exercises were given last week. Miss Neona Ramsey had Wednesday with upper grades in the high school and presented a very entertaining burlesque.

Prizes will be awarded each night in the following groups: best fiddler, best banjo selection, and best band aggregation.

DO YOU KNOW 'IM? The foreman of a certain print shop in a town about the size of Marshall knows much more about the Back End of the Shop than of Editorial and Literary subjects.

DEATH OF AMANDA GUTHRIE Amanda Guthrie, age 77, of Marshall, Route 3, died Nov. 13, 1929, at 9:30 A. M., cancer being the cause of death.

The deceased is survived by her sister, Mrs. Mattie Holcombe, of Arkansas; and seven children, three boys, as follows: W. Arthur Guthrie, Columbia, S. C.; T. Kelle Guthrie, Sylva, N. C.; and Kline Guthrie of Marshall, Route 3; and four girls: Mrs. Ossie Hunter, Marshall, Route 3; Mrs. Elsie Fisher, Marshall, Route 3; Mrs. Maggie Hunter, Alexander, N. C.; and Mrs. M. A. Ingle, West Asheville, N. C.

The deceased reared an orphan girl. Professed faith in Christ in early womanhood. Joined Jupiter Methodist Protestant church. Was loyal to her church and God until the end came. She was a loyal and devoted mother and wife, a good neighbor, and a friend, indeed.

She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. K. Hunter, of Marshall, Route 3.

The Artists Know and Wonder

In a quarter of a century of mixing with music-hall people, I have secretly ever heard one word said in favor of performing animals by the artists—that is, the people who have to work with them, who know the trainers, and who understand the conditions.

Whenever there is a performing animal turn on a bill the other artists invariably talk about it with disgust in their dressing-rooms. When there is a lion or tiger in a cage they live in horror lest it escapes. If there is a performing dog, or there are performing cats, they wonder what cruelty goes on when they are not there.
