The Worlds Best Known

and Largest Selling

OVERSTOCKED

To Reduce my Stock to the shoes.

proper size, I will for a short time, offer my entire stock of these

Pair

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Happenings In and Near Marshall

Miss Jessie Sams of Flag Pond, unlucky thirteen. Tenn., spent the week-end with her brother, Dr. W. A. Sams, and family. King Of The Cowboys in a real revolution. Swords, guns, gags, gig-gles with Ken out-witting, out-riding and out-doing them all Princess route to Baltimore, Md., where Wes- half the day, as we went to press.

ley is to be employed. Miss Jessie Kelly spent last weekend at her home.

Mr. M. H. Ball, of Marshall, R. F. D. No. 2, was in Marshall Monday. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sams, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Metcalf, Miss Sallie Hunter, and Miss Edna Sams, Messrs. Homer Sams, Chapel Walfin, Joe Sams, also Rev. Mr. Locke of Mt. Holly, N. C., went to Hot Springs Wednesday. As funny as it is fast! And you know how fast a Ken Maynard picture is!—Princess Friday and Saturday.

Miss Ada Walker of Henderson-villt was the guest of Miss Frances Crafton this past week-end.

Mrs. C. R. Cohn of Asheville came Wednesday and is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B.

Mr. and Mrs. John McElroy have moved temporarily into Judge McEl-riy's home on the street with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stuart. Miss Beatrice McDaniel is at home again after an operation in Asheville for adenoids and tonsils.

Monday and Tuesday (Silver nites). of Mrs. W. H. Morrow. Mr. E. R. Tweed underwent a slight facial operation Tuesday at a hospital in Asheville and is about his business

Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Teague came Friday of last week and are stopping temporarily at the French Broad hotel. Rev. Mr. Teague assumed his duties Sunday as pastor of the Marshall Baptist church. He is also filling out the school term begun by his predecessor, Rev. H. L. Smith, on Little Pine. Mrs. Teague left Tuesday to visit her parents in Tennessee and to make preparations for housekeeping at the parsonage. Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Smith and H. L., Jr., left Thursday for Clinton, Tenn., their new field. Before leaving they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. N. White and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mc-

Rev. S. C. Weatherly, of Swanna-noa, filled his appointments in Mar-shall Sunday, preaching at both ser-

Quite a number of Marshall peo-ple went to Knoxville last Saturday to witness the Tenn.-Vandy football game. Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Mils Clemmie Casey, Mr. Guy V. Roberts, Mr. J. Coleman Ramsey, Mr. Jack J. Ramsey, Dr. W. A. Sams, Dr. J. H. Hutchins, and others.

Make your plans to see Clara Bow and Buddy Rogers in "Wings" at the Princess Thursday nad Friday, Nov. 28 and 29. 14 reels of real entertain-

Mr. Walter Russell, assistant superintendent of the A. & P. stores of Asheville, was in Marshall Friday morning to see his brother, Mr. W. J. Russell. Mr. Walter has recently been transferred from Greensboro to

When You Need "First Aids" In A Hurry-Call The MARSHALL PHARMACY The Renall Store

Emergencies a r i s e. Somebody hurt or suddenly taken ill. Doctor orders certain "First Aids." The phone will bring them. Just ring-

No. 6

We maintain an up-to-theminute stock of Pure Drugs and Sickroom Needs. Prescriptions accurately filled. Prompt delivery assured!

On Tuesday, November 19, 1929, Asheville. These fine boys are mem-Mr. Edgar Ernest Ramsey, better bers of a family of thirteen children known as "Dube", celebrated his twenty-first birthday.

Miss Joseph Saws of Flor Park

SNOWING IN MARSHALL

As we go to press today, Friday, we are having the first snow of the Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Penland and son, Westhan a little snow flurry. It was ley, spent Monday night with relasions snowing when we first saw the light tives in Marshall. They were en of day Friday and continued at least

SPRINKLE-RICE

Friends of the contracting parties have received the following announcement:

Mrs. J. M. Ramsey announces the marriage of her daughter Edna Rice

Mr. Fred A. Sprinkle on Thursday, August the twentysecond

Nineteen hundred twenty-nine Marshall, North Carolina

RECEPTION FOR REV. AND MRS. H. L. SMITH

Before leaving Marshall for their new home in Clinton, Tenn., many courtesies were shown Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and H. L., Jr.

A cup towel shower was given for Mrs. Smith at the home of Mrs. L. Don't miss "The First Kiss"—A H. Giezentanner, and a miscellaneous Paramount picture at the Princess shower for her was given at the home

> On last Thursday evening a re-ception was given for them by members of the Baptist church at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Whitehurst. After an informal hour a few tributes were given by Mr. G. Roberts, Mr. C. B. Mashburn, Mr. J. J. Bailey of Asheville, and Mr. H. L. Story. Each attested the high esteem, respect, and love that the retiring pastor and his family hold in Marshall. A salad course was serve! Interspersing the speeches, a chorus of young girls of the church sang several appropriate selections. There were two piano solos rendered-one by Miss Lillian Whitehurst and one by Miss Elizabeth Plemmons; and a piano duet by Mrs. W. H. Morrow and Mrs. Annie May White. Games were played at this reception, and there was a "Yo-Yo" contest given by the men present, Mr. Claude Saw> yer being winner of this contest.

>
> The W. M. S. met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. A. Sams. After the regular program a gift was presented to Mrs. H. L. Smith with heartfelt remarks by the president, > Mrs. Cora R. Allison. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and H. L., Jr., were entertained at dinner before their departure at the home of Mrs. W. H. Morrow, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Story, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Giezentanner, and others.

> Mr. and Mrs. J. N. White entertained Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and H. L., Jr., at a supper last Tuesday

SPRINKLE-RAMSEY

Mr. Wiley Sprinkle and Miss Nelle Ramsey, both of Marshall, were mar-ried Wednesday evening about eight o'clock at the home of Mr. J. H. Sprinkle. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Smith. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Caney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Sprinkle of Marshall. Instead of being married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise on their friends by married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise on their friends by married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise on their friends by married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise on their friends by married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise on their friends by married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise on their friends by married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise on their friends by married at the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or their friends by the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or their friends by the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or their friends by the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or their friends by the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or their friends by the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or their friends by the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they pulled a surprise or the bride's home, as originally planned, they provide the bride's home, as originally planned, they provide the bride's home prise on their friends by running over during the week of November 25th.

In this latest Fox production, a rapidto the home of a cousin of the groom fire, laugh-provoking, peace-time search and as soon as the ceremony was quel to "What Price Glory?" McLagpronounced left for parts unknown len and Lowe again create the well They are expected back in Marshall! Quirt, the Hard-boiled Marines. As body can be easily imagined, these roles

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY, NOV. 24, 1929 11:00 A. M .- The Signs of Times-Matt. 16:3. 7:00 P. M.—Five Grains of Corn-2 Sam. 24:24.

services now begin at 7:00 P. M.
Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Baptist church Thursday, the 28th, at 10:30 A. M. Rev. Mr. Teague, new pastor of the Baptist church, will preach. All the choirs are requested to unite for the

J. T. M. KNOX, Pastor.

HILL E. KING LAID TO REST IN PENDER COUNTY

Funeral rites for Hill E. King, 82year-old veteran of the War Between the States, and a well-known figure in Erwin, El Brendel, Jot Brown, Jeanthe political life of the State years ago, who died Monday afternoon at his home on Lassiter Mill Road, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Mitchell Funeral responsible for "What Price Glory?".

tor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Interment was made Wednesday afternoon at the old home place near Edgecombe in Pender county.

Mr. King served during the last 18 months of the War Between the States as a member of the Third North Carolina Regiment. In 1885 and 1887 Mr. King represented Onslow county in the State Legislature. Ile served as doorkeeper in the House of Representatives for the State in 889. He was principal clark in the State Senate in 1895 and again in 897, and served as clerk or the Coard of Agriculture from 1897 to

Mr. King was born in Onslow cour. ty in 1847. He married Miss Sue Redd, also of that county, in 1867.
To them were born nine children, all of whom survive, in addition to Mrs. King. The children are: Mrs. Z. R. Thompson, of Sloop Point; C. Hill, T. Lafayette and Overman King, and Mrs. Henry J. Perry, all of Raleigh; Mrs. G. W. Corbett, of Hot Springs; Mrs. W. M. Glisson, of Spencer; Mrs. Francis Ferber, of St. Albans, N. Y., and Rev. Grover King, of Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. King is also survived by 33 grandchildren ond 13 grea-tgrandchildren.—The Raleigh Times. Mrs. W. M. Glisson, of Spencer; Mrs. children .- The Raleigh Times.

Father (sternly)-What were you and that sheik doing on the front! porch last night?

Flappy Flo-Oh, dad, don't bother me about such petty things.

The Pathfinder.

MARSHALL MAN IS ASSIGNED TO NAVY RECRUITING FORCE

With the arrival here of Loy P. Roberts, gunner's mate first class, as an additional recruiting officer at the Asheville station of the United States Navy, the station expects to have its local quota of recruits materially increased, James E. Webb, chief signalman, in charge of the office, said

Mr. Roberts is a native of Marshall, N. C., and has served practically continuously in the navy since his first enlistment, June 3, 1913, at Knoxville, Tenn. The personnel of the local station was enlarged to care for additional applications. Webb heretofore conducted the office without assistance.

The local navy station is located on $5 the third floor of the postoffice building, and applications are now being accepted for men who are interested in enlisting now so that they may finish the eight weeks recruit training prior to the winter manoeuvers of the U. S. fleet scheduled for early spring .- The Asheville Times.

To Preach Thanksgiving In Marshall

Rev. E. Y. Elkins, pastor of the Free Will Baptist church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon next Thurs-Rev. H. L. and Mrs. Smith and H. day at the Baptist church in Marshall. L., Jr., spent last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lee McDaniel. service on this occasion, and this time it falls to the lot of the Free Will Baptist pastor to deliver the sermon. And the service will be held at the Missionary Baptist church.

"THE COCK EYED WORLD"

Victor McLaglen and Edmund pronounced left for parts unknown len and Lowe again create the well She was a good neighbor and before their friends knew about it.' remembered characters of Flagg and friend, and was well liked by everyare made to order for McLaglen and Lowe, who give splendid performer, near Beech, N. C., on November ances from the opening scene to the the 12th, at 11 o'clock A. M. by the

The leading feminine role is portrayed by the beautiful French actress, Lily Damita, last seen with Ronald Colman in "The Rescue". As the alluring Mariana, over whom the alluring Mariana, over whom Flagg and Quirt clash, Miss Damita is a bewitching explanation of why the two buddles scrap with each oth-er. Not only does Miss Damita give an effective and colorful performance Prayer meeting and all evening song of the picture "Elenita".

The Thanksgiving services will "Elenita," a charming ballad that song of the picture "Elenita". Also her mother, Mrs. Mary Davis of Beech, N. C.; four sisters, Miss Nora Davis and Mrs. Ella McKinney of Beech, N. C. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Anumber of the season.

A number of other songs are fea-tured and include "So Dear To Me" sung by Bobby Burns, one of the Marines, and "So Long", rhythmic, swinging, marching song, rendered by a large Marine chorus. The music and lyrics were composed by the noted song writers. Con Congred Sidnoted song writers, Con Conrad, Sid-ney Mitchell and Archie Gottler, who composed the tuneful music for "Fox Movietone Follies".

SAVE FROM $5.00 TO $15.00 on each Ladies' Coat you buy, by coming to me. I bought my

short time

Lemon

Cleansing Cream

MARSHALL PHARMACY

Marshall, N. C.

It's A Fact

We have yet to see a pedestrian who didn't look run down.

MRS. SUE WHITTEMORE

dear wife, Mrs. Sue Whittemore. She was in the "French Broad Hospital" when Jesus called her home to Heaven, at two o'clock in the morn-

The funeral was conducted at the

There were many friends and rela-

The deceased is survived by her husband, Mr. Lee Whittemore; three children, Wilma, age 9 years, Mary, six years, Betty Lou, three years old.

ley, also of Beech, Mrs. Dina Evans of Weaverville, N. C.; two brothers, Mr. Harda and Mr. Pearson Davis of

The pall bearers were: Taft Evans, Bill Billings, Charlie Carver, John Hall, Ken Whittemore, and Hick Banks.

The honorary pallbearers were: J. P. Evans, Wesley Justice, Nick Anders, Rouf Bradley, John Evans and Gibe Hodge.

Mrs. Whittemore shall be missed by all those who knew her, but we know we shall meet her when we cross death's sea. We shall not see her in pain and sorrow, but in joy and gladness with Jesus.

MRS. THELMA BILLINGS.

tives present.

home of Mrs. Mary Davis, her moth-

-The Pathfinder.

The man or boy WHO CARES will take advantage of this most unusual opportunity to acquire

Coats and Dresses at 50 cents on the dollar. I am selling them the same way: G. L. McKinney, Marshall, N. C.

a REAL HIGH-GRADE shoe at a saving of $2.50 to $4.50. There is positively no other place in the U. S. where you can buy these shoes at this price. 200 PAIRS to select from-Blacks, Browns, Tans, Oxfords or high Shoes. All new styles and stock. REMEMBER this price only for a very

BEN FRISBY A

FADING BEAUTY Mr. Ben Frisby, from Marshall, N. Don't you be afraid of advancing age. For nature endowed each baby with a delicate, velvety skin. Properly cared for, its freshness remains long mentary School auditorium on last terly astounding. Friday evening and astounded those who were fortunate enough to witafter hairs are white.

Soap and water will not do, for the secret of permanent beauty lies in ness the wonderful entertainment. Although there was a very small attendance owing to several other occurrences on the same evening such as an athletic game, an oyster supwitnessed in our community.

The magician explained in a most voices. good sportsmanship manner that regardless of such a small representawhole and complete program as orig- inal and was by far the best of its inally planned on the programs.

of illusion and a thousand and one visit Waynesville again and at an

say that no ordinary magician could surpass Mr. Frisby because he is REAL MAGICIAN thorough master of the profession. He kept his audience in an uproar of laughter and some of his magical C., appeared in the Waynesville Ele-trickery was most amusing if not ut-

Perhaps his act with a dummy ventriloquial doll entertained the children much more than the more astounding magic-for about twenty minutes he entertained as a ventriloquist. This is one of the hardest of all illusions and there can be very per and several parties. These things little doubt that he has become akept many parents and older chil- bout as perfect as any human could dren from attending one of the most who, while smoking a cigar, maneuvinteresting and superb entertain- ering, the dummy doll's jaw, head, ments that has probably ever been and limbs, etc., at the same time kept up a conversation in two distinct kind ever seen before.

Without trying to explain his feats It is hoped that Mr. Frisby will slight-of-hand tricks, it is enough to early date .- Waynesville Mountaineer

FAMOUS MEDICINE WINS PUBLIC APPROVAL HERE

Scientists Declare Irogen Prescription Greatest Discovery of Modern Times-Builds Rich, Red Blood and Solid Fleat-Thousands Praise Its Remarkable Powers.

Interest continues at high pitch in this community over the coming of IROGEN, the prescription of a famous New York hospital physician, recently introduced with tremendous success in this state.

Although newly i troduced here, It is pointed out by scientists that Although newly i troduced here, IROGIN has been thoroughly tried and tested in vest numbers of cases and thousands of users in unsolicited letters have testified to its remarkable power in building solid flesh, increasing vitality and overcoming general physical weaknesses.

After suffering 10 years with stomach disorders, poor appetite, loss of weight, burning and swell-guided by the product of the stomach disorders, poor appetite, stomach disorders, poor appetite, guided by any discourance, no time to take chances, but if the nerves and muscles are not as strong as they should be, if one feels weak, languaged to the product of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the body.

They advise the public not to take chances, but if the nerves and muscles are not as strong as they should be, if one feels weak, languaged the public not appear to the production of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human body draws its nour-ishment and, therefore, its strength, from the blood, so that one's blood is the unfailing barometer of the human nesses.

After suffering 10 years with stomach disorders, poor appetite, loss of weight, burning and swelling in the stomach, D. M. Mooney, of 1414 N. Church St., Salisbury, N. C., declared, after taking one bottle of IROGEN that he felt 100 per cent better. "I have been relieved of indigestion, have gained 3 pounds, and recommend it to anyone. It is a marvelous medicine," which letter is typical of thousands bein; received from people in aid walks of life who have tried this famous prescription.

It is claimed that IROGEN supplies essential elements for the recluding blood with the strengthening ele-ment found in IROGEN. If this is ment found in IROGEN. If this is done, they declare the nerves will gradually become steady and the physical strength and power of audurance and the natural flesh will return, until one looks and feels physically fit.

IROGEN may be obtained in either liquid or concentrated tab of form at leading druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere, including

MARSHALL PHARMACY MARSHALL, N. C.