FROM GRAPE VINE

There was a large crowd present for Sunday School Sunday. After Sunday School, Mrs. Maxie Morgan assisted by Miss Zula Wilde, passed out more than a hundred packs of candy to some of the smaller boys who passed them on to the congregation. The candy was furnished by Mrs. Ogle at Weaverville. We sure are grateful to Mrs. Ogle and in behalf of the school I THANK YOU, MRS. OGLE.

Mr. Robert Sams of Asheville was the guest of Mr. A. H. Sams for dinner Sunday. We were glad to have him with us in Sunday School and he also made a short talk on the lesson.

Mr. H. B. Brown and daughters, Minnie Bell and Robbie Lee, of Bull Creek, were the guests of his broth-

SHAKIN' SAM SEZ.

Oh, man, how tough I do feel. Don't know what's wrong wid me 'less it's de spring fever. But I ain't really a tough guy, in de gen'al sense ob de word. Naw, suh—'cause a feller come up t' me jes' de other day, an' sez to me, he sez: "Sam, you ain't tough; what you need is a shave". Well, I guess he's right. I ain't never claimed t' be no tough guy, but when it comes t' a tight pinch, I kin git purty handy wid de razer, I reckon

Dat wuz a pretty good play at de school house las' Friday night, wuzn't it? I don't know whether I made a hit wid Cleopatra er not, but I do know dat she wuz one good-lookin' black gal.

SSS

Hit makes me a little bit envious t' see some o' dese guys goin' fishin' now, knowin' dat I can't very well git off t' go myself. I don't know whether dey's catchin' any fish er not, but anyhow, I'd like t' git out an' try my luck some.

SSS

Whut wuz it dat de Trus' writer done sed 'bout me las' week? Oh, yeh, she sed she wanted t' see a better photograph o' me—sed dat de one now looks pitifully crippled. She's right, all right. I don't only look crippled—I am crippled. But maybe I'll recover some time.
