Madison County Schools To Open Next Thursday Morning

Details of 1950 Conservation Reserve

Details of the 1950 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank have been announced and plans made for opening the program Tuesday. Plans have been discussed with state officials in Atlanta and Agriculture Conservation Reserve Commission officials in Madison.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early in the year, and the Ogle county 4-H Club and the Craven County Unit have been named as official cooperators in the project.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and will continue to operate until the end of the fiscal year, July 1, 1951. The program will be conducted in cooperation with the conservation department of the state university.

MADISON MAN, 96 YEARS OLD, DIES IN FALL

Mildred Brown, 96 years old, passed away at her home in Madison, near the Rockside Shopping Center. She was a member of the Madison United Methodist Church.

BOWDEN CONFESSES KILLING BRADBURN; BONES ARE FOUND

BOWDEN, 37, a resident of Madison County, confessed to the murder of Bradburn, 23, on the night of June 15. The bodies of the two men were found on the morning of June 16 near a abandoned car in the woods.

Details of 1950 Conservation Reserve

Details of the 1950 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank have been announced and plans made for opening the program Tuesday. Plans have been discussed with state officials in Atlanta and Agriculture Conservation Reserve Commission officials in Madison.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and the Ogle county 4-H Club and the Craven County Unit have been named as official cooperators in the project.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and will continue to operate until the end of the fiscal year, July 1, 1951. The program will be conducted in cooperation with the conservation department of the state university.

MADISON MAN, 96 YEARS OLD, DIES IN FALL

Mildred Brown, 96 years old, passed away at her home in Madison, near the Rockside Shopping Center. She was a member of the Madison United Methodist Church.

BOWDEN CONFESSES KILLING BRADBURN; BONES ARE FOUND

BOWDEN, 37, a resident of Madison County, confessed to the murder of Bradburn, 23, on the night of June 15. The bodies of the two men were found on the morning of June 16 near a abandoned car in the woods.

Details of 1950 Conservation Reserve

Details of the 1950 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank have been announced and plans made for opening the program Tuesday. Plans have been discussed with state officials in Atlanta and Agriculture Conservation Reserve Commission officials in Madison.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and the Ogle county 4-H Club and the Craven County Unit have been named as official cooperators in the project.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and will continue to operate until the end of the fiscal year, July 1, 1951. The program will be conducted in cooperation with the conservation department of the state university.

MADISON MAN, 96 YEARS OLD, DIES IN FALL

Mildred Brown, 96 years old, passed away at her home in Madison, near the Rockside Shopping Center. She was a member of the Madison United Methodist Church.

BOWDEN CONFESSES KILLING BRADBURN; BONES ARE FOUND

BOWDEN, 37, a resident of Madison County, confessed to the murder of Bradburn, 23, on the night of June 15. The bodies of the two men were found on the morning of June 16 near a abandoned car in the woods.

Details of 1950 Conservation Reserve

Details of the 1950 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank have been announced and plans made for opening the program Tuesday. Plans have been discussed with state officials in Atlanta and Agriculture Conservation Reserve Commission officials in Madison.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and the Ogle county 4-H Club and the Craven County Unit have been named as official cooperators in the project.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and will continue to operate until the end of the fiscal year, July 1, 1951. The program will be conducted in cooperation with the conservation department of the state university.

MADISON MAN, 96 YEARS OLD, DIES IN FALL

Mildred Brown, 96 years old, passed away at her home in Madison, near the Rockside Shopping Center. She was a member of the Madison United Methodist Church.

BOWDEN CONFESSES KILLING BRADBURN; BONES ARE FOUND

BOWDEN, 37, a resident of Madison County, confessed to the murder of Bradburn, 23, on the night of June 15. The bodies of the two men were found on the morning of June 16 near a abandoned car in the woods.

Details of 1950 Conservation Reserve

Details of the 1950 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank have been announced and plans made for opening the program Tuesday. Plans have been discussed with state officials in Atlanta and Agriculture Conservation Reserve Commission officials in Madison.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and the Ogle county 4-H Club and the Craven County Unit have been named as official cooperators in the project.

The Conservation Reserve Commission will be opened early this year, and will continue to operate until the end of the fiscal year, July 1, 1951. The program will be conducted in cooperation with the conservation department of the state university.

MADISON MAN, 96 YEARS OLD, DIES IN FALL

Mildred Brown, 96 years old, passed away at her home in Madison, near the Rockside Shopping Center. She was a member of the Madison United Methodist Church.