LET'S PROMOTE SCOUTING

MRS. A. M. McELYEA

Executive Director, Pisgah Girl Scout Council

Throughout the United States there are over 700,000 men and women who believe with Girl Scouting's founder, Juliette Gordon Low: "Youth is the time of the possible, the time when the mind is open and simple . . . It is for us the leaders to develop girls' courage, protect their confidence, and train their hands and their hearts to serve eagerly and purposefully their homes and their nation."

At the present time there are three active troops in Marshall and Walnut. Mrs. Clyde Roberts is Neighborhood Chairman and welcomes any requests to give assistance in forming new troops. Community groups in Spring Creek, Hot Springs, Mars Hill, Bull Creek and White Rock are urged to get in touch with Mrs. Roberts or Mrs. O. A. Gregory for information concerning the possibility of having Girl Scouting in those communities. Efforts will be made in the coming weeks to acquaint the parents of Madison County with the opportunities for Scouting for their girls.

A special Brunswick Stew-dinner, to be served at the annual REA meeting in Marshall, will launch the annual fund raising campaign of the Pisgah Girl Scout Council on Saturday, April 21. This event will precede a door-to-door campaign on April 24. $33,996.00 is the amount which the Council needs in order to finance its day-to-day operation and to meet its new needs during this year. Madison County is one of the 13 counties of the Pisgah Council area and is asked to contribute through its citizenry a share of the budget. $682.00 is the amount considered to be the fair share according to population, girls served, and capacity to give of the communities affected.

Mr. Ray Frisby and Mrs. Liston Ramsey of Marshall are serving as co-chairmen of this effort to meet the communities' responsibility in this matter. Mrs. O. A. Gregory, Mr. Leonard Baker, and Mr. Jim Story are assisting the committees in its endeavor.

Operating funds provided in the Council's budget are used to provide professional help in training leaders, and organizing troops; provide day camping each year in Marshall; make it possible for girls to attend an Established Camp in Brevard at a moderate fee; and provide guidance and help to the community for the Girl Scout movement.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

Dear Mr. Story:

We would like to call to the attention of your readers the fact that from now through May 15 we in Madison County will try through personal solicitation and one fund-raising event to raise $682.00, which is our county's share of the operating budget of Pisgah Girl Scout Council in the current year. We have had no special drive for funds in four years, except for the capital funds drive last year for camp development. The county United Fund effort did not provide the funds needed in either of these four years, and this failure caused considerable stress with the council finance group who was responsible for making the necessary adjustments. Solicitors will be calling on as many persons as possible, and with the shortage of volunteer help, the cooperation of all our citizens will be necessary. Letters are being written to many organized groups in the county, and the committee hopes that other fund-raising events will not be necessary. The Madison County portion is only 2% of the thirteen-county total.

We hope that during the month we will be given opportunities to tell of the services of Pisgah Council and to inform communities of the Girl Scout program. Madison County has a girl population of 1,311 girls, white and non-white, between the ages of seven and seventeen, though we have fewer than 100 girls in the program at present. Volunteer adult leadership is necessary, and this requirement is also the inevitable restriction. If our county had no girls in Scouting at this time, we would most certainly want to support Pisgah Council for the contribution it is making toward helping girls of Western North Carolina become happy and resourceful citizens. We know that in this matter ours will not be a delinquent county.

Thank you for your invaluable support.

Sincerely,

MRS. O. A. GREGORY
