

Mrs. Alice English Brown Of Mars Hill Passes Sunday

Services Held Monday For Prominent Mars Hill Citizen

Mrs. Alice English Brown, 88, of Mars Hill died at 3 a. m., Sunday, February 23, 1964, in an Asheville nursing home following an extended illness.

A lifelong resident of Madison County, she was the widow of Joseph S. Brown and a daughter of the late John A. and Lavinia Ponder English.

Mrs. Brown was a well known resident of the Paint Gap community where she had taught Sunday School for 60 years.

Surviving are two sons, J. Clyde Brown of Mars Hill and Dr. Kermit E. Brown of Asheville; three grandsons, Kermit E. Brown Jr., of New York City, Joseph S. Brown of Mars Hill and Jerry Y. Brown of Chapel Hill; a grand daughter, Miss Sandra E. Brown of Richmond, Va.; a great-grandson, Joseph Brown Jr., of Mars Hill; a sister, Mrs. Ethel English Moyers of Mars Hill; and two brothers, L. B. and Ed English of Mars Hill.

Services were held at 2 p. m., Monday in Paint Gap Baptist Church. The Rev. Lloyd Ponder, pastor, Dr. Hoyt Blackwell, president of Mars Hill College, and the Rev. A. Allen Gardner Jr., officiated.

Active pallbearers were Wesley Robinson, Leland Robinson, Floyd Holcombe, Kenneth Gardner, Waylon Metcalf, Blake Ray, Dan Hensley and Wayne Jarvis.

Flowerbearers were members of Mrs. Brown's Sunday School Class at the church.

Holcombe Funeral Home was in charge.

Sleepy Valley 4-H Club Has Fine Program

The Sleepy Valley 4-H Club met Tuesday, February 11. Interesting alides and talks about Burlington Industries were presented by Nell Ross, plant manager, and Harry Upchurch, office and personnel manager.

Officers for the 1964 term were elected as follows: Jimmy Parks, president; Tommy Barnett, vice president; Sandra Lovin, secretary and treasurer; Jerry Foster, reporter, and Steve Wood, song leader. Leaders are Mr. and Mrs. Carter Parks and Mrs. Manley Holt.

The club wishes to thank Mr. Ross and Mr. Upchurch for presenting the program on how cloth is made from the raw stock to the finished product.

WELL, WELL . . .

Dallas, Tex. Two friends, R. L. Parks and F. B. Beckworth, both of Dallas, spent a whole day on a deer hunt but didn't see a deer. On the way home, however, along a lonely stretch of road, a buck leaped a fence beside the road and ran into the side of a car. The collision killed the buck. A game warden gave the hunter permission to keep the deer, which dressed out at 172 pounds.

ture purchases cooperatively each year. They are yearling ewes which could be bred to lamb next spring. The price for these ewes will be somewhere between $22.00 and $25.00 per head, delivered to a central point in Western North Carolina. If you are interested in purchasing some of these ewes, contact the Farm Agent's office before the 15th of March.

Little Pine 4-H Club Met February 18; Mrs. Ball, Hostess

Little Pine Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, Feb. 18 at 1:30 p. m. Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Jack Ball. She was assisted by her daughter, Miss Joyce Ball, and Mrs. Howard Payne.

The main business brought before the club was the coming drive to stamp out Polio in the county. The club is taking as its responsibility personally contacting the residents in the community. The different members volunteered their time in taking various sections to contact before the first day of immunization (March 8). They are: Mrs. Lib Roberts, Roberts Branch Rd.; Mrs. Hattie McElroy, 1st half Redmon Rd.; Mrs. Harold Worley, remainder Redmon Rd., to Paw Paw Rd.; Mrs. Howard Payne, Paw Paw Rd.; Mrs. Eunice Ball, Caney Fork; Mrs. Pat Roberts, Sweetwater; others in general were taking Bear Creek and Upper Little Pine.

As another civic project they voted to contribute as a club to the February Heart Fund Drive.

The regular monthly program was conducted by Home Ec. Agent, Mrs. Ethel Wallin. It revolved around the idea of using your food money so as to get the most food value from it as well as economical buys.

The meeting for March will be held in the home of Mrs. Howard Payne at 1:30 on Tuesday, March 17. All ladies interested in visiting the meeting or joining the club are urged to attend.

DOUBLE-TROUBLE

Reno, Nev. — Two traffic officers gave Wilburn Howard a ticket for driving his pickup truck too fast. Five minutes later, the same pair of officers handed a ticket to Howard's wife, who was driving the family car too fast in the same 25-mile-an-hour zone.

Woodson Ray Has Automatic Silage Feeding System

Woodson Ray of the Gabriel's Creek community has constructed an automatic silage feeding system which he says save about 1/4 of the labor of feeding his beef cattle and about 1/4 of the time. He made the system out of lumber, which he cut off his place, and second hand motors and conveyor chains, which he picked up from junk yards. He figures he has a little over $200 in his automatic feeding system, and figures that with a little prior planning he could have done it for less. This is an overhead system where the silage is carried along through a wooden tube by the chain and he regulates where the silage falls by opening and closing trap doors in the tube.

Mr. Ray says that the more cattle you feed with one of these automatic feeding systems, the more economical it is.

'64 Corvair Monza by Chevrolet

It's got a frisky new engine

(that puts superior traction under you)

Some cars do best on the highway. Others seem tailor-made for city driving. Then there's Corvair—that gets along just great most anywhere. Swishing along a highway. Scurrying around in traffic. Or wading through a soggy trail.

Take highway driving. Corvair's got a bigger new engine with horsepower up nearly 19% in the standard version. But in case figures don't impress you, just wait until you head a Corvair for some far-away places. You'll get the message.

Take city driving. Corvair's trim size, light steering (because the engine weight's in the rear) and flat cornering make anything from rush-hour driving to parking a cinch.

Take back-road driving. The weight of Corvair's engine bearing down on the rear wheels gives them remarkable gripping power on most any surface, whether it's loose, solid, dry, wet—or even snow covered.

Something else you can take note of, too: There's no radiator to overheat or run dry. No hoses to check or replace. No need for antifreeze. The engine's air cooled.

Beginning to sound like a car you can really warm up to? Then there's only one thing left to take: a ride in one at your Chevrolet dealer's.
