

A list of teachers and principals for the Madison County Schools for the next school term was announced this week by Robert L. Edwards, Superintendent. The following schools are included in the list: Walnut, Spring Creek, Hot Springs, Laurel, Ebbs Chapel, North Carolina governship, is a Beech Glen, Mars Hill and Mars bit more confident this time. Hill Colored School (Anderson).

The principal and teachers for nounced at a later date, Mr. Ed- K. Moore. wards stated.

> Walnut ELEMENTARY

Auburn Wyatt, Principal; Lucile and state legislative races, and Burnette, Gene U. Cantrell, Queen congressional candidates in nine of F. Bullman, Ora M. Fox, Jeanette the 11 districts, he said Monday. S. Tweed, Tressalee Ramsey, Helen The Sanford attorney will launch Adams, Zora Huffman, Jennie L. his campaign against Moore after Chandler, Grace S. Dockery, Naomi the National GOP Convention G. Tweed, Ruth Guthrie. which runs through next week in North Carolina's 26 delegates.

21 MARRIAGES

ley's seventh bride. This made 21

TWO MEN SHOT

ENTER HOME

ATTEMPTING TO

Mrs. George Lamb Injures

Intruders At Home On

Route 3

ting and entering and attem mult. Shariff Pander mid.

Spring Creek School: Fred Anderson, High Principal; Jewell J. Church, Martha Flemming, Garland Woody, Barbara Ervin.

Elementary: Howard Trimble, campaign issue, Margaret I. Reeves, Ruby R. Price, Jeanette C. Meadows, Viola A. Fowler, Donna L. Moore, Emma is the law," Osteen.

Hot Springs I Jerry T. McFall, Chi an, Jimmy E. Lewis, Hester ms, James D. Ricker. sentary: Mamie E. Rice, Hattie L. Henderson, Dorothy R. Chandler, Lois C. Moore, Billie J. Redmon, Harriette P. Runnion,

Esther C. Brooks, Vera B. Sumerel, Alma P. Fowler. Laurel

TO CAMPAIGN AVAILABLE SUN. AT HEALTH DEPT AGAINST MOORE

Oral Polio Vaccine will be given Republican Robert L. Gavin, making his second bid for the at the Madison County Health Department - Sunday, July 12 - > until 4:00 p. m. The second dose will be given at

OFF AND ON AGAIN

after being granted a divorce from July 1 and returned to Marshall each other, a band arranger and Monday, Ponder said. explained their first marriage was bond on charges of arson after his yille, Monday, July 13, at 1:30

Gov. Terry Sanford, does not want clean slate. They were married Mrs. Roberts is now recuperatthe Civil Rights Law to become a two years before in Las Vegas.

Testimony Of Middle Fork Heard; Hearings Continue

The State Board of Election resumed its on the spot investigation here Wednesday morning into charges of irregularities in the May 30th Primary, which primar-Expert Expected Here This ily involves the race between Zeno Ponder and Clyde M. Norton for the Democratic nomines for state senate in the 34th district.

William A. Joslin, chairman of the State Board, opened the hear-Scientific analysis of ballots cast ings by reading a court order, signed Monday by Superior Court mary in Madison County has turn. Judge W. K. McLean, of Asheville, which forbids the State Board ed up additional evidence of fraud from making any changes in the in the state Senate race between McDowell County businessman official count of ballots within the next ten days. Chairman Joslin Clyde M. Norton and Madison said that the board would abide by the order.

The restraining order remains Using special photographic methin effect until July 18 when Superods, the State Bureau of Investifor Court Judge J. Frank Huskins gation has found numerous hallots will hold a hearing in Burnsville that appear to have been marked at 9:30 a. m. to decide whether the restraining order should be made The tell-tale sign is a faint inpermanent.

> If Huskins upholds McLean's order, the state board then would be powerless to throw out any ballots from boxes where fraud was beleived to have occurred.

> Most of Wednesday's session mvolved the Middle Fork precinct (Township 4, Ward 2). Most of the evidence presented Wednesday revealed the question of swearing in of election officials, ballot other activities at the Middle Fork precinct voting place-the Beech Glen School.

the hearings by the State Board Testimony from seven witnesof Elections into voting charges ses showed that there were more in Madison County in the May 30 ballots counted in the precinct Primary and testimony involving than there were voters going into Township 5-California Creek the polling room.

Attorneys for Ponder scoffed at The principal witness this mornthe validity of such informal and ing was James Ramsey, a poll obunofficial headcounts.

server during the day on May 30. Kelley Ledford, registar of the Attorney Joseph Huff asked Middle 12:00 noon until 5:00 p. m. This Gavin is "eager" to launch his vaccine will also be available at neighbors, who rushed to stop the fulltime campaign against Demo- the Health Department every day attack on Mrs. Roberts' front the Marshall School will be an- cratic gubernatorial nominee Dan of the week of July 12th - Mon- porch. day through Friday - 9:00 a. m. "We're in better position this year because of better organization, better candidates in county later date which will be announced well in advance.

Mrs. Roberts' daughter, Shirley, Los Angeles - Thirty minutes was released from the hospital San Francisco. Gavin is one of his wife were married again. They Gavin, who polled 40 per cent of thing of a jinx and they wanted home was damaged by fire last a. m.

the vote in his 1960 race against to start all over again with a January, ing at her home here.

a Veterans Administration hosner. pital in Salisbury only a week ago A mandamus filed with the is in Madison County jail charged clerk of Madison Superior Court, with a knife attack on his motherasks the State Board of Elections in-law at her home on Main street to show cause on July 18, before here about 6:45 p. m. Monday.

The sheriff said when he arrived, Mrs. Roberts was bleeding from wounds on the leg, hand,

Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville and released.

Mrs. Roberts was treated at chest and ear.

the resident judge, why it should not perform its duty and certify Ponder said he was called to the Ponder the winner. nome of Mrs. Edith Goforth Rob-Ponder said Thursday night erts, Thomas' mother-in-law, by that the board has received the in the May 30 Democratic prireports of all four county election boards involved - Madison, Mitchell, Yancey, and McDowell which show that he has a 400-vote margin over Clyde Norton of Old Fort.

County political kingpin Zeno "I just want them to perform Ponder. their duty," Ponder said.

Thomas, estranged husband of Pastors To Meet In Waynesville while lying in a stack. The W.N.C. Baptist Pastor's Conference wil convene in the dentation on the ballots, possibly He was already under $1,500 First Baptist Church of Waynesship 4, Ward 2, was completed quickly at the morning session of

was started

(Continued To Last Page)

Afternoon For

Report

By DWAYNE WALLS

Observer Staff Writer

High School: Owen Fish, Principal; Louie A. Zimmerman, Pauline Zimmerman, Troy S. Harrison, Helen Shelton, Rena Shelton, Blackwell L. Lunsford.

(Continued to Last Page)

Elementary: Glennis W. Ray. Edith Shelton, Ruth Landers, Nell going in circles - he must progress toward some given point.

4th Of July Is Attended By Big Throng On Island

Ball Games, Fireworks And Dances Feature Day's Activities

Again, the 4th of July was suc cessful in Marshall as thousands of persons enjoyed the day's activities here.

In the morning baseball game, the Walnut-Hot Springs Little Leaguers defeated the Mars Hill-Ebbs Chapel team, 10-9 but it took an extra inning to turn the trick.

Two brothers picked out the The Walnut-H. S. team got off wrong house to break in to early to a good start in the first inning Monday morning and wound up inby scoring twice but M. H. - E. C. jured by gun shots fired by a Maditeam bounced back with 5 runs in the second. This seemed to irk According to Sher a second. This seemed to ITA b Lower End team and in the bot-m of the second, they scored 7 t runs. The Upper End team and to be denied, however, and a widow who lives between Belva and Greeneville, Tenn. Jahn Stills, of Cleveland, Ohio, t and State Strength in North Carolina could start alipping after the frist ballot because only two of the state's delegates are of-ficially instructed to vote for him. But aside from this, a number of delegates—probably two-thirds According to Sheriff E. Y. Ponto knot the score at 9-9. In d the tie-breaking run to win;

the dinner break, the II All-Stars and the Pine III of Greeneville, Tenn., is in the Memorial Mission Hospital suffer-ing from a shot wound in the left ark squared off in posed to be a baseball

Pine Creek, 29-5 in s

with a mixture of nostalgia and marriages for these two people apprehension, meet to pick the -probably a record. men they want for President and Vice-President, PROGRESS WITH INTENT

No man can gain success by

The convention is in the Cow Palace, in San Francisco, Calif., which accounts for the nostalgia.

Monday, July 13.

According to one expert, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater can expect to get all 26 N. C. national convention votes on the first ballot, but if he doesn't win the nomination on the first ballot, his Memorial Auditorium apparently solid support may start to dwindle.

A revolt in the N. C. delegation to be presented also. -if one comes-will be led by delegates Marcus Hickman and James |Harrington from the 8th Congressional district.

Twenty-four of the 26 are already in the Goldwater camp. Neither Hickman nor Harringotherwise to Goldwater, but both 20 years. may feel obligated to vote for Goldwater on the first ballot. Hickman personally is friendly toward Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton, and Harrington is considered either a Scranton or Richard Nixon fan. Their personal preferences will probably be put aside on the first ballot.

A National wheat allotiment of 4914 million acres for the 196 Carolina could start alipping after crop has been proclaimed by Agri culture Secretary Orville L. Fre man, according to A. P. Hassel Jr., Executive Director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Con-servation State Committee. It is the same as the 1964 allotment.

fifth and two in the t the score at 9-9. In ning, the Lower End a-breaking run to win, while his companion, Joe Stills, At several district conventions

At several district conver delegates were chosen only after ey had stated their preference In addition addition, the four at-large as feel bound by an en-ent of Goldwater's candite con

g the date Our citizens swallow a lot o d To Lant P

SHD SERVICE Republicans

> At S&W; Wise Is In Raleigh President

Marvin W. McClure, of Walnut, Members of the Marshall Lions is in Raleigh where he was Club and their wives will observe recognized this morning (Thurs- installation services and Ladies' day) for 40 years of service with Night next Monday at the S&W the State Highway Department. Cafeteria in Asheville at 7:30 o'-Ceremonies were held in the clock. Howard Barnwell, former Marshall Lion, who now resides in ed the award with other awards Asheville, will serve as installing officer.

Governor Terry Sanford present-

McClure, the only one to be An informal program of music honored from the 13th Division, has been planned with solos by started working with county road Mrs. Howard Barnwell and John supervision when only 14 years of Corbett scheduled. Mrs. Corbett

NAT'L ACREAGE

ALLOTMENT

The USDA simultaneou states. All except Hawaii are li ed as commercial wheat st

The 1965 wheat allotment for d the allocation of the age. When the state took over will accompany them on the piano. the roads, Mr. McClure continued Officers to be installed are: his work as field mechanic, a President, Earle Wise; 1st vice ton are committed formally or position he has held for the past president, Page Brigman; 2nd vice president, Don West; 3rd vice president, Kelley Davis; secretary, O. A. Gregory; tail twister, '65 WHEAT CROP Robert "Bob" Davis; Lion Tamer, Ralph McCormick.

New directors to be installed are E. C. Teague and Harry Silver. All members and wives are asked to be at the S&W promptly at 7:80 o'clock.

Ramsey said he stayed at the polling place practically all the the others by himself after the time and stated "that it would have polls opened on the morning of been impossible for 35 people to May 30, Kelley Ledford said. This vote while I was away". He further action, he said, went unnoticed by explained that he was gone for a poll watchers because "they were total of only 31 minutes.

Attorney Cocke attempted to noise they couldn't hear." have testimony presented involving Kelley Ledford said on crossa difficulty between Ramsey and examination that no Bibles were (Continued To Last Page)

ROY LOVIN DIES

OF INJURIES

IN WRECK SAT.

the elecetion. The oath was administered to over in the corner making so much

(Continued To Last Page)

Explains Missing Registration Book

Since there seems to have been some misunderstanding concerning the missing Registration Book on Spring Creek, the facts are as follows. The Registration Book For 8 Ward 1 (Upper Spring Creek) has not been missing at any time. The missing Book is Services for Roy McKinley Lothe Registration Book for 8 Ward vin, 31, of Rt. 2, Mars Hill, who 2 (Lower Spring Creek), which at wreck Saturday were held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at Middle Fork Baptist Church.

MADISON COUNTY BOARD OF ELECTION By: Ted R. Russell, Chairm

$25,000.00 JOKE

Los Angoles - When Mr COLUMN T

C. will be 241,808 compared to 244,-847 acres for 1964. The National allotment has be apportioned among the States ed To Last Page)

John Denton, expert electrical spineer, has accepted a position ith the French Broad Electric ip Corporation the not ration and plan

unte of Chr 15 8 20

eretta, and a son, Don Lo th of Newport News, Va.; sther, Mrs. Mrs. Corn Ray L loge of Memphi

12.1

DENTON ACCEPTS The Rev. Joe Medford and the

the Hicks Corps

Mr. Lovin was on e

He is survived by a d