Tomato Marketing During Past Season Is Explained

Details Are Cited; Many Obstacles Faced Growers

By HARRY SILVER Farm Agent

Tomatoes and tomato marketing from Madison County has drawn more interest in 1964 than for many years...

Production of tomatoes for juice, canned tomatoes, catsup, and other processed uses is a specialty and is very competitive.

Table with 2 columns: MATO PACKING CO. (Net) and OTHER MARKET (Net). Rows include Combination, Large and Extra Large, Medium, Ripes, No. 8's.

This loss to the farmer was the result of an obvious bad marketing situation.

Lions Ready For Saturday Opener

Mars Hill Junior Girl Scouts Met Last Wednesday

The Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 68 met Sept. 10 at the Mars Hill Methodist Church.

The Troop consists of 5 Patrols of 6 girls in each Patrol. This Troop, sponsored by The Methodist Student Fellowship, invites all girls, grades 4, 5, 6, to participate in an informal educational program designed to help girls become resourceful individuals, growing up to be successful homemakers and citizens.

'We are very pleased to welcome into our Troop, 7 former Brownies, now Junior Scouts: Lisa Huff, Jean Wood, Joan Wood, Janet Robinson, Debrah Brackens, Marilyn Edmonds, Vicki Wheeler and Mary Chay; also 2 new Scouts, Kathy Marshbanks and Kathy Dixon,' Mrs. Glen Phillips stated.

By advertising a product, a manufacturer sells more and by selling more he can cut unit cost in production, thereby making the product cost less.

County Girl Scouts Plan Camping Trip

Something exciting and also something new for many Girl Scouts of this county is scheduled for Sept. 25-26.

An overnight Troop Camp-out for Junior and Cadette Girl Scouts at the established camp at Brevard.

Girl Scouts in Mars Hill, Marshall and Walnut will be busy the next two weeks planning this camping trip.

At camp the girls work together in planning and sharing campcraft skills, music, games, hiking, conservation, campfires and cooking. Badge work may also be accomplished.

These Scouts will be accompanied by Girl Scout Leaders and Senior Scouts.

Advertising is the sparkplug of our economy. It helps make mass distribution possible; that in turn calls for mass production. Mass production and mass distribution give most of us jobs and generate the prosperity upon which all of us depend.

Play Catawba At Salisbury; Tommy Nix, End

The Mars Hill College Lions open their 1964 football season Saturday night, Sept. 19 at Salisbury against the Catawba Indians. It will be the first meeting of the two schools. Catawba has long been a member of the Carolinas Conference, and Mars Hill is just moving into the senior college ranks after many years as a topflight junior college competitor.

The Indians, coached by Harvey Stratton, suffered a 25-0 shutout at the hands of East Carolina in their opener Saturday night. The Lions, coached by Don Henderson and assistant Ron Bromley, have only been practicing two weeks but appear in good shape.

Both power and speed have been evidenced in practice sessions at (Continued To Last Page)

Spruce Pine Downs Marshall, 33-7; Mars Hill Scores 47-7 Win Over Crossnore

Wildcats Continue As Very Powerful; Remain Undeclared

The Mars Hill Wildcats ran roughshod over a smaller Crossnore eleven at Crossnore Friday night, 47-7, in an Appalachian Conference contest.

The Mars Hill aggregation unveiled a pair of touchdown twins in halfbacks Tolley who scored 3 times and Castelleo who scored four TDs for the Wildcats.

The opening period saw Tolley sweep his left end for a 26-yard score and then pass to Hunter for the extra point. Castelleo soon followed with a five-yarder and added his own extra point with a plunge over tackle.

End Jack Ollis scored Crossnore's only touchdown on a 30-yard run with Joe Ollis adding the point after.

In the second period Castelleo scored from two and five yards out with Hunter running the (Continued To Last Page)

3rd Quarter Fumbles Prove Very Costly Last Friday

The score was 33-7 in favor of Harris High over the Marshall Tornadoes last Friday night. Not only was the score lopsided but the visitors had the statistics. A person who did not see the game would think it was a pitiful slaughter but this was not the case.

Although defeated, local fans saw a team for which they can be proud. They saw a team play a larger, more experienced aggregation (56 boys in uniform) to a standstill in the first half. The visitors scored in the initial quarter but could not convert and the first period ended 6-0. In the second quarter, however, the Tornadoes, behind the excellent signal calling of Jim Sprinkle, and the fine running of Messer, Ercil and Fisher, drove down the (Continued To Last Page)

Accident Occurs On NC 208; Estimated $14,000 Loss

At least 15 head of prime cattle were killed and an undetermined number ejected into the mountain country near Hot Springs Wednesday morning when a livestock trailer overturned on N.C. 208.

State Trooper A. L. Feldman reported a scene of helpless confusion as truck drivers tried to round up their scattered cargo. The mishap occurred about 3 a. m., 14 miles north of Marshall on the road to Greenville, Tenn. Feldman said his estimate of 15 dead animals included those suffocated in the wreck, those hit by approaching trucks during the night as they wandered along the highway, and some injured as they had to be shot.

There were 60 head aboard the double-deck trailer, Feldman said. The truck was part of a convoy of five headed north with cattle purchased at the first 100 head sale at Asheville Tuesday. The driver, Robert A. Stewart of Asheville, Ind., was not hurt.

Stewart said he was on the road to Asheville at 12:30 a. m. when he saw the lights of a truck in front of him. He tried to pass but could not. He saw the truck roll over and saw the cattle scattered about. (Continued To Last Page)
