W. W. BUEY, Correspondent

A number of friends and relatives of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Morgan gathered at their home East on morning to celebrate Mrs. Morgan's birthday. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Rice, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe T. Morgan, Johnson City, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee McDuffie, Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Morgan Jr., Winston-Salem; Mrs. Fred Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jarvis, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerold C. Fisher, Weaverville; Mr. Rostas Metcalf, Mr. Bobby Blackwell, Miss Bobby Jean Peek, Mr. S. C. Buckner, and Mr. Joe Morgan of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edwards have returned from Florida where they had spent the past several weeks.

And Mrs. O. E. Sams has returned after spending the winter in Chicago and California.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilson and family of Winston-Salem visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Tilson here last week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tilson and family, of Lenoir, were here the previous week-end.

Mrs. Lela Sams is still recuperating at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Winecoff at Horse Sho.

Mrs. Harvey Lance returned Sunday from Hendersonville after being a patient in the Mountain Home Sanatorium for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brittain and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards here Easter week-end.

Correction to the item in last week's news: It was Doug Robinson, Jr., who was here Easter week-end, not Mrs., as appeared in our column. However, that reminds us of the saying: "Coming event cast their shadows before them," since we've heard rumors of a June wedding for Doug, Jr.

GOD DEMANDS OBEDIENCE

Memory Selection: "Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice." —(1 Samuel 15:22)

Lesson Text: 1 Samuel 13-15

In our study for today we see Israel's first king (Saul) taking the first step towards his downfall. From Saul's disobedience to the Lord's commands, and his subsequent punishment, Christians can learn how highly God holds obedience as a Christian virtue.

The Philistines were gathering their numbers to engage in battle with the Israelites. The people of Israel were sorely afraid, and went into hiding. Saul, commanded to wait for seven days for the coming of Samuel, saw his people scattering, and, at the end of the seventh day, when Samuel did not arrive in Gilgath, panicked and commanded burnt offerings to be made.

This was contrary to God's will, and Samuel, who arrived in Gilgath after the sacrifices had been made, lost no time in chiding Saul for his foolish disobedience, and foretold his downfall as punishment for his impatience.

Throughout the Bible it will be observed that God tested his people. Job was tested, sorely, and, although at times he was the victim of terrible despair, still his faith and his patience met the testing admirably. It would therefore seem that, in Samuel's delay, Saul's patience and faith and obedience were being put to the test. Should the command of 'God be disregarded? Was this to be a time of action, rather than a time of waiting? Had God turned his back on his people? Saul, in panic, decided this was a time for propitiation, and ordered burnt of-

USS Midway (CVA-41) (PHT-NC) — Airman Jefferson W. Flynn, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Flynn of Rt. 1, Marshall, is participating in air strike operations against communist Viet Cong and North Vietnamese military targets while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Midway, operating in the South China Sea off the coast of Viet Nam with the U. S. Seventh Fleet.

Approximately 3,700 officers and men are aboard the 62,000-ton carrier, including six squadrons and two detachments flying more than 70 bombers, fighters, reconnaissance and airborne early warning aircraft.

How many of us, today, can be likened to Saul? Faced with circumstances that try us beyond our understanding, feeling, indeed, that God is testing us beyond human endurance — we sometimes rebel . . . consciously or unconsciously . . . we rashly take matters into our own hands, losing sight of the counseling contained in our Christian faith — and we thereby alienate ourselves from God.

While we must acknowledge that impatience is a human failing, we must keep foremost in our minds that time is never lost if it is spent on waiting on God. His promises are never broken, and he never places on our shoulders a heavier burden than we can bear. Those were two facts Saul lost sight of — to his subsequent discomfiture.

Saul made a second mistake in God's eyes when he ordered the sacrifices to be brought. Seeing his followers scatter, and being aware of the importance placed upon religious rituals in those days, and somewhat conscious of them himself, he was swayed by his inclinations, even though it was in direct contrast to God's will.

Here, again, how many of us are like Saul? We, too, have a tendency to substitute ceremony and religious ritual for true worship and strict obedience to God's will. The mere act of attending church and giving formal worship is futile unless we are in tune with the Lord. Obedience and humility are essential in our approach if we are to be acceptable in the eyes of God.

To be wiser than Saul, we must think deeply on these things, and then follow the dictates of our souls.

Mother's Day Has Gone International

CARE is asking Americans to honor their mothers by sending a food package to a less fortunate mother in any one of 34 countries abroad.

This unique Mother's Day program got under way April 22 as part of CARE's global assault on hunger, it was announced by Bee H. Brown, Southeastern Regional Director of the private relief agency.

Contributions sent to CARE, 312 Forsyth Building, Atlanta, Georgia, 30303, in an American mother's name will help feed a hungry mother and her under-nourished children overseas. Every $1 contribution provides her with an average 27-pound food package. The contributor is asked to include his mother's name with the donation.

Girls Beware Of Too Tight "Panty Girdle Syndrome"

A slender, 20-year-old secretary suffered for two years from edema (swelling due to excess fluid) of her legs and ankles. The condition would disappear during her summer vacation which she spent in active play at the beach. It would not be present when she awoke in the morning, but would become progressively worse as the day wore on.

These were the symptoms and facts she presented to Drs. Charles A. Ribando and Anthony F. Formato of St. Vincent's Hospital, New York City. A complete physical exam showed only that the patient was in excellent health—except for the edema.

Then the doctors found a clue. They noticed a circular indentation of the skin on both upper thighs. The cause of the indentation? The legs of the patient's panty girdle were so tight they acted like a tourniquet, constricting the flow of blood and causing swelling. When the young woman discontinued wearing the girdle, the edema disappeared entirely.

After establishing the same cause of swelling in another patient, the physicians named the condition the "panty girdle syndrome." They noted that the panty girdle had an effect similar to the leg iron worn by prisoners of long ago, and the circular garter worn during the Gay Nineties!

1,874,027 PEOPLE DID NOT DIE

Fifteen years ago, before the wonder drugs were discovered death claimed 10.8 out of every 1,000 people in the U. S. But today, the death rate is down to 9.2 per 1,000 people — the lowest in history. This means that 1,874,027 people DID NOT DIE in the past 15 years — thanks to the antibiotics, the hormones, and the other miracle prescriptions which are now available. That's why we say:
