YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

At this time when Madison County has a new Jury Commission and a new list of jurors in the box, we would urge that every person called for jury service make whatever sacrifice that is necessary so that he or she may serve.

It will be noted in the list of jurors drawn for next week's term that 30 women have been drawn whereas 26 men's names were drawn. With the addition of wives' names being added to the newly constructed jury box women will be more apt to be drawn from now on.

The point is, however, that if and when your name is drawn for jury duty it is your responsibility to serve if at all possible. As was said many years ago by Thomas Paine, "Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must, like men, undergo the fatigues supporting it." It has also been said, that for the forces of evil to triumph, it is only necessary that good men do nothing.

It is sometimes most inconvenient to serve on a jury. It often works hardships and actually costs more to serve, in dollars and cents, than a juror receives. But, if we are to maintain fairness in courts with justice assured, the heavy responsibility of serving as a juror rests with you.

We would hope that every citizen and, particularly, every person called for jury service would study carefully the following admonition:

A Juror's Creed

- My forefathers wrested from tyrants my right to serve as a juror.
- Under our law no one's life, liberty, or property can be taken without due process of law.
- Trial by jury is our basic right. All who seek their day in court have a right to a fair hearing. They will get it from me.
- I will not ask to be excused from jury service except in an emergency.
- On my oath I will well and truly try each case before me, and a true verdict render under the law given me by the judge and the evidence at the trial without fear, favor, or hope of reward.
- I will listen closely, with open mind to all of the testimony, instructions, and arguments. I will not make up my mind until all the facts are before me and the judge has instructed me on the law.
- I will search for the truth regardless of the wealth or poverty, friendship or enmity, of any party or witness.
- To someone my decision may mean the difference between life and death, freedom or imprisonment, poverty or wealth.
- Justice, once but a dream is a reality when I, as juror, do my full duty. No act of mine shall bring shame to our system of liberty under law.

LET'S ACT QUICKLY ON AMBULANCES

Announcement by 12 Buncombe, Haywood and Madison county funeral homes that they will abandon ambulance service June 30 poses a real problem for municipal and county governments in the area.

Nobody can expect a business firm to continue indefinitely to lose substantial sums of money in a public service, and a spokesman for the 12 funeral homes says they want $100,000 into the red during the past year.

Somehow, from somewhere, a quick answer has to be found to this problem. With the constant flood of highway wrecks and the need for quick service to critically-ill people, this area has to have an efficient ambulance service.

A study should be made at once to set forth the finances involved. It may be found necessary to put ambulance service on a public basis. Or, possibly, it may be best to work out some sort of subsidy either with the present funeral homes or with a central but privately-owned firm.

In some larger cities, ambulances are operated by the hospitals. Such a move should be contemplated here only if it can be assured that any deficit incurred in the service is not passed on to the paying hospital patients, who already carry an unfair share of losses from the hospitalization of welfare patients and other medical indigents.

The present critical need is for immediate study and prompt action. The funeral homes are justified in withdrawing from a heavily losing public service, but public officials have a plain duty to act quickly. There must be no period of inactivity in ambulance operations.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

May 17, 1965

News-Record
Marshall, N. C.
Dear Editor Story:

The Hot Springs Lions Club wishes to thank you and your staff for the excellent coverage of the dedications for the new Post Office and Rocky Bluff Recreation Area.

As sponsor of both ceremonies, the Lions Club is proud of the cooperation and support of all involved. The only mar during the entire week-end came from our OWN elected County officials. We feel it should be brought to your attention that the Madison County Commissioners were not present at either dedication.

We feel this is a direct affront to our Club, the U. S. Post Office and Forest Service, as well as Congressman Taylor. Their absence was noted by the general public as well as other guests. It was, also, noted that ALL of the Haywood County Commissioners were present at the Rocky Bluff dedication.

These two events are once in a life-time happenings. Let's hope the apathy, expressed by the current Commissioners, will not carry over into all phases of our County's activities.

Again many thanks for your interest and news coverage.

FOR GIRLS

March 9, 1965

Mr. Editor
The News-Record
Marshall, N. C.

Dear Mr. Editor:

For the girls who have tried office jobs, school, nursing, or are just out looking for a job, a great future awaits you. If you have the qualifications to be an Eastern Air Line Flight Attendant, enjoy meeting and helping people — I suggest that you apply with Eastern for a job with good pay and many wonderful advantages and opportunities that most of you wouldn't ordinarily have.

After successfully completing your interview, you'll be flown to Miami Springs Villas to begin your five week training. Eastern pays your room, board, classroom materials, plus $7.00 a week while you are in training.

For those of you who have never been away from home—you need not worry, for on your first day at the school, you'll be introduced to your "Big Sister," who will be of great help to you.

You'll learn many new and interesting things every day of your training. But most of all—you'll learn the full responsibilities of being a good flight attendant. And it is a responsible career which will help you develop certain traits and skills that will be useful to you throughout your entire life.

Are you interested? Apply now! Write to:

Miami Employment Office
Eastern Airlines, P.O. Box 787
Miami International Airport
Miami, Florida 33148.

Mr. Editor: The above information has been written to you with the hopes that you will publish it in The News-Record to let the girls in your surrounding area, especially Hot Springs, where I am known as "Sissy Evans," know that they, too, can have the very same opportunity that I have had.

Thank you!
Very truly Yours,
MARY ELLEN EVANS

Presbyterian Women Met Thursday In Fellowship Hall

The Women's Association of the Marshall Presbyterian Church met Thursday afternoon in the Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. A. M. Ramsey, president, opened with I Corinthians 12:1-3, and "Christ, the Head," from the prayer calendar, followed by prayer.

Mrs. W. C. Kector gave an interesting discussion on the Bible Study Course, "Live As Free Men" from Galatians, closing with the poems, "The Word of God" and "Faith."

Following the reading of the minutes, the offering and offertory prayer, Mrs. A. M. Ramsey gave the Yearbook of Prayer.

During the business meeting, the group decided to participate in the Church World Service drive for good used clothing for refugees and disaster victims throughout the world. Mrs. R. B. Chandler and Mrs. J. J. Ramsey having already been designated to head the drive.

Miss Gayle Isensee gave a short sketch of the book "Room for One More," dealing with homeless and problem children, by Anna Perrot Rose.

She then gave a most interesting account of her work in Montanari Clinical School in Hialeah, Fla., during the past winter. The school, a private one, emphasizes "Learning Through Therapeutic Interaction."

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Gayle Isensee.

NEW EYES FOR THE NEEDY

The Ladies' Bible Class of Marshall Presbyterian Church is sponsoring a drive for discarded eyeglasses. Don't throw away — or hoard — those old eyeglasses, that piece of dented silver, the old cuff links or earrings.

Discarded eyeglasses, even sun glasses, in either metal or plastic frames, as well as old watches, jewelry and silver can purchase better vision for the needy at home and abroad.

These will be given to the welfare agencies and Missions on a world wide scale.

Boxes for these donations are placed in the Bank of French Broad, Citizens Bank, National 5c & 10c Store, Moore's Pharmacy and Roberts Pharmacy to receive any of the articles you may wish to pass to help the needy.
