Mars Hill News

MRS. J. W. HUFF, Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Huff attended the Honor Day celebration at the U. of Ga., Athens, on Wednesday of last week. They had received an invitation to attend because their son, John, a senior at the university, had attained the honor rating.

Mrs. Clota Lippard, who had visited her son and family in Philadelphia and with them attended the World's Fair in New York, and her sister, Mrs. Dorcas Terrell, who had visited her daughter and family in Louisburg, West Va., for the past few weeks, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Griffin, who moved a few weeks ago from Columbia, S. C., to Macon, Ga., came up for a week-end visit to his sister, Mrs. Mary Lee Rice and sons and Mrs. Griffin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeter Johnson. Mrs. Hinton, of Zebulon, was the week-end guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lamberson.

Miss Grace Ledford, a student at WCC, Cullowhee, who is spending a few days this week with a group at the beach, will be home for a week-end visit before returning to summer school.

Mrs. Doug Harris and daughter, Gloria, of Castlewood, Va., visited Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Harris last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Buckner, who have been spending a few weeks here with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wells, are returning this week to their home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Paulson, who were enroute from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to Cedar Lake at Crown Point, Ind., where they spend the summer, spent last week-end here with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Morgan. Other visitors coming in Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Lee McDaris, of Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Fisher, of Weaverville; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Peoples, of Winston-Salem.

A large number of visitors are expected here this week-end for the college commencement program, Friday through Sunday.

Lane West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cline West, graduated cum laude at WCC, Cullowhee, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. West and their daughter-in-law along with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of Asheville, attended the graduation exercises. Lane attained the Alpha Honor Roll at the college last quarter. He and his wife live in Asheville and he is an Enka employee.

Appreciation

Mr. Joe Morgan, Mars Hill High School librarian, wishes to acknowledge with thanks, recent contributions of magazines, periodicals and books from the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. Adam Dycus, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCurry, Miss Glenna Jean Murray, Mrs. Roy Wall, Prof. C. Julian Douglas, of the Fairleigh Dickinson University, New York City, and the Summer Foundation, St. Louis, Mo.

World War I Vets To Meet Friday In Greensboro

Greensboro — The largest State Convention ever held by the Veterans of World War I, will get underway in Greensboro on Friday, May 28 and run through Sunday, May 30, according to an announcement just made by Raymond J. Jeffreys, of Raleigh, the Past State Commander and manager of the convention.

The convention headquarters will be at the O. Henry Hotel, but the facilities of the King Cotton Hotel had to be added in order to handle the more than a thousand delegates and visitors expected.

North Carolina is known throughout the nation as the only state that treats its delegates to a really big celebration with free entertainment, free refreshments at the Friday night reception, a free banquet on Saturday night, and no registration fees. All of this is made possible by the enthusiastic co-operation of the local Barracks throughout the state, the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants Association and the local merchants.

Congressman Horace R. Kornegay will be the principal speaker at the banquet on Saturday night. Three Past National Commanders will also be on the program — Emanuel Levy of Ft. Wayne, Indiana; Louis Brake of Mount Vernon, Illinois and John Bashara of Norfolk, Va. John E. Erickson, the National Legislative Director from Washington, will speak on the Legislative Program. A special treat, will be the presence of the only remaining active original founder of the Veterans of World War I, Inc., V. John Harris of Orlando, Fla. Among the other many honor guests will be Martin and Anne Iverson, Past National officers from Washington; Col. J. D. DeRamus, manager of the V.A. Regional Office in Winston-Salem; and the "top brass" from all of the other veterans organizations.

A Memorial Service will be conducted on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Hugh E. Cherry, State Chaplain, to honor North Carolina's deceased World War I veterans who were among the 180,000 who have passed away throughout the country this past year.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual hemorrhoids (external) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem." This patent is a new healing substance (Hic-Spray)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under Preparation 206. At all drug stores.

4-H CAMP WEEK SET FOR COUNTY

Four-H club members in Madison County will attend Camp Schaub near Waynesville during the week of July 12-17.

Boys and girls belonging to a community 4-H club had an opportunity to see slides on the camp during the month of April.

There are many former 4-H members living in communities where clubs have not been organized. Any boy or girl in these communities who has been a 4-H member or would like to join a community club when organized may attend 4-H camp this summer. If you would like to attend, please contact the County Agent's office in the courthouse and your name will be added to the list of those to receive further information on the camp. Mail your letter of request to attend camp to Earle Wise or Barbara Rhodes, Marshall. We need your name, father's name and address by June 1 if you plan to attend.
