

LOCAL & SOCIAL

PERSONAL and OTHERWISE
Dial 3261

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shelton and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brooks, of Norfolk, Va., visited Mrs. Brooks' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Roberts, over the week-end. They also attended the decoration and Freeman reunion at Freeman Gap Church Sunday.

Mrs. Eva Sams returned Friday from Middletown, Va., where she spent several days visiting her son, Lynn.

J. Clayton Wallin of Richmond, Va., is spending this week in Marshall with his wife, who has been attending summer school at Western Carolina College and their daughter; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wallin; and his wife's mother, Mrs. Eva Sams.

Mrs. Willie Rummion of Greenville, S. C., is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Nora Ramsey and Mrs. Minnie McLean, of Marshall.

Bobby Caldwell has returned to the home of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Coleman C. Caldwell, after a tour of duty with the U. S. Army in Korea. He was a visitor in Atlanta, Ga., last Friday.

Fowler Wallin and his mother, Mrs. Mamie Wallin, of Marshall; Mrs. Wallin's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Linville, of Brevard; and her sister, Miss Laura Roberts, of Washington, D. C., have returned from a trip to Port Arthur, Ontario, Canada, where they visited Mrs. Wallin's sister, Mrs. J. C. Dickson. They also visited the Great Lakes and points of interest in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chandler and two of their children, Hollis and Mollie Beth, of Port Huron, Mich., are spending this week in Walnut with Mr. Chandler's mother, Mrs. J. C. Chandler; and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, and two children, and in Marshall with Mrs. Chandler's father, Claude M. Sawyer; and her brother, Claude W. Sawyer. They are also visiting other relatives in Walnut, Marshall, Mars Hill and Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ponder of Raleigh spent the week-end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Ponder and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Baker and children, Lynne and Jimmy, returned Sunday from Windy Hill Beach, S. C., where they spent a week.

HARD CHARACTER
A solid business man isn't necessarily a hard character.

REPETITION
Study the history of the past, and you'll have a good idea of what to expect in the future.

Raymond Ledford In Ecorse, Michigan

Mr. Raymond Ledford, of Marshall, has accepted a position with the Great Lakes Steel Mill in Ecorse, Michigan.

His wife, June, and sons are currently in Marshall but plan to join Mr. Ledford soon.

Visit In County

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bryan and daughter, Bonita, of Houston, Texas, have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Polk Bryan, of Marshall Rt. 1, after an extended tour of points east and the New York World's Fair where their son, Bill, is a member of the staff at the Kodak Pavilion.

Mr. Bryan is assistant technical manager at Shell Oil Company's Houston refinery, and son, Bill, is employed by Tennessee Eastman at Kingsport.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rice, of Greensboro, are the proud owners of a baby girl, Terrie Lynn, born August 17, 1965, in Greensboro.

To Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Riley Clark, Marshall Rt. 2, a son, Aug. 18, in St. Joseph's Hospital.

With The Sick

Clyde H. McClure of Walnut is a patient in Aston Park Hospital where he underwent surgery Tuesday morning.

Mrs. P. V. Henderson returned to her home in Walnut Monday from Aston Park Hospital where she had been a patient for several days.

Ron Sprinkle of Marshall is a patient in Memorial Mission Hospital where he underwent surgery Monday.

Diane Wallin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clayton Wallin of Richmond, Va., returned from St. Joseph's Hospital Tuesday where she underwent an emergency appendectomy last week. Diane has been spending several weeks here while her mother was attending summer school at Western Carolina College.

LONESOME ROAD
The man who insists on having his own way must travel alone.

YOUR COMPETITOR
Don't underrate your competitor—nor overrate your skill.

HEARD AND SEEN

By "POP"

It is impossible to fully describe our trip to New York and the World's Fair — plus our visits to other points of interest — also our visit with relatives — but to sum it all up, Bill and I had a wonderful time — saw a lot, naturally, and waited until we were sore all over — we left Thursday afternoon, August 12 and went via Statesville, Hickory, Winston-Salem, Roanoke, into Virginia via South Boston and kept on to Richmond, Fredericksburg, Alexandria and into Washington — made several visits there including the grave of John F. Kennedy — from Washington we proceeded to Baltimore, Wilmington, Trenton, Philadelphia, Newark into New York by the Holland Tunnel — stayed the first night (Saturday) at the exclusive Americana Hotel but found a more reasonable hotel the next day — Hotel Albany — it was a fine hotel located between Broadway and Fifth Avenue near Rockefeller Center — we walked all over that part of Manhattan Saturday night and attended morning worship services at the "Little Church Around the Corner" Sunday morning where we heard Dr. Norman Vincent Peale — enjoyed his sermon on "Enthusiasm" — just wish I could practice what he preached — we went out to the Fair Sunday p. m., and stayed until we gave out about 10 o'clock — as we started toward the subway en route back to the hotel, Shea Stadium was packed full of teenagers who were enjoying the Beatles — 55,000 attended the concert — incidentally, the Beatles "took" New York — girls by the thousands followed their footsteps everywhere — it took from 50-100 policemen to keep them out of reaching distance — even while they were taping a TV show at CBS, hundreds of girls were restrained by policemen — and at Warwick Hotel where they were quartered, girls actually stood all night long waiting to get a glimpse of their idols when they left the hotel the next morning — according to NY newspapers, the Beatles had to be carried in an armored car to the helicopter field in order to get them to Shea Stadium safely — believe you me, although we don't "dig" the Beatles we did enjoy watching the teen-age excitement and hysteria — other highlights of the NY stay included the UN Building and all the usual NY attractions such as Wall Street, Riverside Baptist Church, Grant's Tomb, Radio City Music Hall, the Rockettes, Empire State Building, etc. — we were also fortunate to secure tickets to the Rogers and Hammerstein musical, "Carousel" at Lincoln Center's State Theater Wednesday afternoon — and from there we went to Yankee Stadium where the Angels defeated the Yanks, 7-3 — saw Dean Chance best Whitey Ford — it was "Bill's" first time seeing a major league game — and she enjoyed it — or, at least, pretended to enjoy it — after a wonderful stay in NY we left last Thursday a. m., and decided to come back south a new way — after visiting the Liberty Bell and other points of interest in Philadelphia, we headed for Baltimore and from there we went to Annapolis and visited the Naval Academy — crossed the Chesapeake Bay and continued on US 50 to Cambridge, Md. — it was there we "decided" to spend the night when the generator, regulator and wires caught on fire and we were "grounded" for half a day Friday — we felt lucky, however, that the car didn't catch fire on the highway — it at least waited until we were at a filling station to "blow up" — after getting it repaired to the tune of nearly $50 we continued on to Salisbury, Md. and finally crossed the Chesapeake Bay over the wonderful and picturesque 11.5-mile bridge and tunnel — gosh, that's a REAL bridge — believe me — we spent Friday night with relatives in Norfolk and then Saturday visited many relatives in Gates County as well as in Suffolk and Boykins, Va. — when we passed through Roanoke Rapids, N. C., where I used to work as a Lino operator, we visited many of the old favorite spots and enjoyed it thoroughly — from there we hit our last leg home, arriving

JUST A WOMAN'S OBSERVATIONS

By DOROTHY B. SHUPE

As I sit here this last Tuesday night before going back to school, I can't believe that summer is over for me. It has been a sad summer, but also pleasant in many ways. We took a few days off and went to the beach, and then up to see my in-laws in Virginia. The rest of the time, it seems to me, has been running Charlotte here and there — and cooking beans, taters and corn bread!

We couldn't afford to go to the World's Fair, as some editors and their spouses did, but that just saved us from sore red necks like they got — looking at all the tall buildings! Heard Bill thought she wasn't going to get to New York — Pop couldn't find his way out of Washington, D. C.

I did enjoy my day with J. C. Wallin getting information about Head Start. The kiddies were just wonderful and the teachers did such a grand job with them. I'd better mention the nides or Willa Ann will be after me — they were fine, too. Saw R. G. Franklin while at Laurel where he was visiting his mother. He's still down Kings Mountain way and enjoying his work there as principal.

Somehow, I didn't get around to spring cleaning — don't guess those curtains with the butterflies with holes in their wings could have taken it again so soon, anyway. Oh, I did find out what I used to do before my daughter was born! I ran around and visited friends! While she was away two different times at camp, I just caught up a lot of visiting that I used to do long ago.

Understand Principal Whitt is moving his family here in the fall. I imagine Mrs. Whitt will get to see a little more of him down here. Most people do not appreciate the life a school principal leads — he must be at every activity, be it PTA, Booster's Club, civic programs, all athletic events, or whatever — I know he enjoys people and going to events but I'd say that an occasional evening at home would be a delight, also. In your community, do you appreciate what your principal does for the school?

Saw Ruby Worley in Walnut the other afternoon and she tells me she is now a teacher in Ohio. She graduated from the University of Cincinnati and has been teaching there for 6 years. She was so nice and pleasant, I'll bet she's an excellent teacher. We reminisced about the year I taught phys. ed. for her high school class while I was teaching the 6th grade here — oh, too many years ago to tell the date!

Observed — Glad to see Grandpa Corbett out again after his operation, according to the WMMH boys, if he doesn't soon get back to work, they are going to sell his cars at low, low prices — Have you seen Dean Riggsby's name in the paper for his car racing contests? I asked Aileen how badly it scared her, and she said it didn't! — Whee, if old Shupe got in a racer, I'd probably faint dead away! — (I almost do when he drives me any place, anyhow) — Met Eldridge Leake's bride the other afternoon out at Ann's — she's a very nice person and he's a lucky boy — and she's a lucky girl — Congratulations to all these people getting degrees — Bill Brigman getting his Master's — my old friend Rosa Lee Franklin getting her B.S. — Betty McDevitt getting her E.N. — Gee, I must get to bed — School tomorrow!

Zinks Move

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zink and family moved last week to the house on Redmon Road belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sawyer.

here Sunday night just as the firemen had put out the fire at Ponder's Auto Supply — I hope this hasn't been too boring but just thought I'd describe a little of our trip — please excuse me this time but it isn't often we have such a long and successful venture — will try to hit some more subjects in next week's column — incidentally, it's nice to get away from the usual grind but it is still nice to get back to the mountains and our friends.

Mrs. Hinkle

MRS. HINKLE, 94, DIES TUESDAY; RITES TODAY

Beloved Marshall Lady Was Oldest Member Of Baptist Church

Mrs. Nannie Kate West Hinkle, 94, died in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Walter N. Lance, of Elizabethton, Tenn., Tuesday morning, August 24, following a long illness. She was born in the Walnut Creek section of Madison County, a daughter of the late George Washington and Julia Ramsey West.

She was educated in the old Asheville Female College and taught school in Madison County before her marriage in 1895 to Charles M. Hinkle. She moved with her husband to Elizabethton, Tenn., where he served as sheriff of Carter County and was a dry goods merchant.

They moved to Asheville in 1902 and three years later to Marshall where they operated the French Broad Hotel for 29 years. At her death she was the oldest member of the Marshall Baptist Church and was a member of the Eastern Star.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Lance, Mrs. Paul H. Dinwiddie of Marshall, and Mrs. Arthur J. Hemphill of Black Mountain; a son, Charles R. Hinkle, Jr., of Asheville; seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Services were held at the Marshall Baptist Church today (Thursday) at 2:30 p. m.

The Rev. Horace L. Smith and the Rev. Jack L. Thomas officiated. Burial was in the Pritchard Cemetery.

Pallbearers were James M. Bailey, Ernest C. Teague, Joseph Eads, Ralph Ramsey, Clyde M. Roberts and William J. Russell. Flower girls were ladies of the church.

Bowman Funeral Home was in charge.

Miss Jayne Wright Is Bride Of Clyde Benjamin Roberts

Miss Jayne Wright and Clyde Benjamin Roberts were married Friday, August 20, 1965 in Weaver-ville Baptist Church by the Rev. David B. Roberts, father of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fred Wright. She is a graduate of North Buncombe High School and has been employed by Hammarlund Manufacturing Co., for three years. The bridegroom's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. David B. Roberts, live in Mars Hill. He is a graduate of Mars Hill College.

Mrs. Milton Landon was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Tommy Culbertson, Miss Sharon Culbertson and Miss Wanda Fisher. Larry Landon and Lynn Landon were child attendants.

The bride wore a gown of satin and lace with pearls and a veil attached to a pearl tiara. Her attendants wore pastel peach de suite dresses with matching headbands and carried bouquets.

Jerry Green was best man and ushers were Fred Crowson Jr., of Charlotte, Gary Alexander of Stoney Point, Mr. Landon and Mr. Culbertson.

The wedding cake was cut at an informal reception following the rehearsal Thursday night.

The couple will live in Leaksville, where the bridegroom will be a physical education teacher

Married Friday

Mrs. Benny Roberts

... The Former Miss Jane Wright

in Leaksville-Spray Junior High School.

Jeter Baldwin Named Gypsum Sales Engineer

Jeter M. Baldwin, of Upper Arlington, Ohio, has been named Ohio and Eastern Kentucky sales engineer for United Gypsum Company's THERMALUX electric heating system.

THERMALUX is a revolutionary new ceiling heating system that was introduced in December, 1964. Installed as simply as gypsum drywall, THERMALUX provides uniform heat distribution and eliminates moving parts and furnaces.

A native of Asheville, Baldwin served in the Navy during World War II. He joined United States Gypsum in 1948.

Baldwin is married to the former Gerry A. Meadows of Marshall. They have two children, Gerry Delane, 15, and Debra Lee, 8.

MISS CARTER, RAY VOWS EXCHANGED

Miss Charlene Carter and Thomas Allen Ray were united in marriage August 17, 1965, at Calvary Baptist Parsonage at Mars Hill. The double ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. W. G. Russell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen R. Carter of Mars Hill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dolly Ray of Weaver-ville.

The bride was attired in a white street length dress with matching accessories. She is a student at Mars Hill College.

The bridegroom is a graduate of North Carolina State University at Raleigh and is employed by the American Enka Corporation. The couple will live in Weaver-ville.

Building Material

Galvanized 5-V ROOFING

7 - 8 & 12 ft. SHEET ROCK

2" & 3" Fiberglass INSULATION

ROLL ROOFING

15 & 30 lb. Felt

PLYWOOD

Meyers WATER SYSTEMS

STAG PAINTS

Living Room Suites — Bedroom Suites

Sealy Mattresses

Bowman Hdwe. Co.

DIAL 649-2341

MARSHALL — — — N. CAROLINA

Save money now during our Carolina Hotline Sale!

Biggest savings event of the year!

'65 Ford Galaxie 500 2-Door Hardtop

Big selection of cars and trucks! Come see your
CAROLINA FORD DEALER
SERVICE MOTOR SALES, INC.

MARSHALL, N. C.

Dealer Franchise No. 0000