TODAY'S MEDITATION

Read Psalm 8; Acts 16:25-34 At midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God; and the prisoners heard them (Acts 16:25).

A gentleman visiting a hospital for lepers praised the nurse who was accompanying him for her humanitarian sentiments in resigning herself to care for the patients there. "I don't know how far my sentiments go," she replied. "I can assure you that before I knew Christ, my humanitarian sentiments could not have kept me here a week. It is the love of Christ which constrains me. He found me and made of me what I am today. I could not do anything else after I realized how much He loved me."

Paul and Silas in prison, with their feet in chains, sang hymns of praise to God at midnight; and God blessed them and those with them.
In the work we do, are we expressing our gratitude to the Lord for His marvelous saving grace?

Prayer: Blessed Lord, we praise Thee for the immense joy we feel when our lives are touched by sweet communion with Thee. We give Thee our thanks, because through Thy mercy we are saved from evil and constrained to do good. In Thy name. Amen.
Thought for the day: Who am I that God should have remembrance of me?
