A "MUST VOTE" NOVEMBER 2

The big main highways are vital, but the back country roads and town streets are important, too.

This fact needs to be kept front and center in urging all-out support, as this newspaper does, for the $300 million state bond issue for roads to be voted on November 2.

Making the rural roads safer for school buses, to cite only one factor, is a critical necessity. One trip on most of our secondary roads will more than convince the most skeptical to vote for the bond issue.

Bear in mind if the road bond issue passes, Madison County will be allocated $998,700 (practically a million) for rural secondary roads.

Our three towns — Marshall, Mars Hill and Hot Springs — will also be allocated a total of $126,400 for the urban system of state highways. This should improve travel quite a bit within our three towns.

And all these allotments, including $10,161,200 will be allocated the 13th District (includes Madison) for the rural primary system in the District — WITHOUT RAISING YOUR TAXES ONE PENNY.

It seems rather foolish and unnecessary to have to write such editorials PLEADING for our citizens to vote for better roads. Yet, there are perhaps many who will be content to sit at home on November 2 and neglect the opportunity to get better roads.

We are convinced, however, that our citizens will grasp this opportunity to show the rest of North Carolina — the governor and the state highway commission — that we are vitally interested in our welfare as well as the rest of the state.

We must "VOTE HEAVY" so that our commissioner, J. G. Stikeleather, Jr., will know that we are solidly behind him in his efforts to bring better roads to Madison County.

IF YOU want better roads, vote for them. It's just that simple.

THE COURT ISSUE

As to the intermediate court issue which you will also vote on November 2, there is little opposition to this movement to give the legislature the "green light" to set up courts between the superior court and the supreme court.

Ask any lawyer about this and they will, we believe, urge you to vote FOR the court issue.

At present the supreme court of North Carolina is overburdened with too many cases. The proposed intermediate court will greatly relieve this high tribunal and offer appellate results in our state.

WE URGE YOU TO VOTE FOR BOTH ISSUES ON NOVEMBER.

VALUABLE CITIZEN PASSES

A person doesn't live in a small town for 32 years without the citizens knowing quite a bit about him. He is either rejected by civic and social clubs or he is accepted by the clubs. He is either an asset to the community or a liability. He is either active in religious affairs or he isn't. He is accepted or he is ignored.

In the case of Francis Holland, who suddenly passed last Thursday, a victim of a massive heart attack, he was one of the most faithful and loyal members of the clubs to which he belonged. His record of service in the Marshall Baptist Church attested to his Christian attitudes. Whenever he was called on to solicit funds, prizes, or to do any type of work in any promotion, he was willing and ready to assist.

His devotion to Belk-Broome store here is another example of his character and dependability. Yes, Marshall has lost a valuable citizen. The type of citizen which there are entirely too few.

RED CROSS VITAL

The 1966 Membership Drive for the American Red Cross in Madison County will continue through the month of October.

This means that workers throughout the county have only slightly more than one week to complete their contacts and prepare reports. Reports are beginning to arrive in the office of Mrs. Ethel Sprinkle, Red Cross Treasurer for Madison County, and the few which have been submitted are very encouraging. One community residential worker reported seven memberships and $44.00. Mills Manufacturing Co., in Marshall, reports that at least 85% of their employees are securing membership in this year's drive. Area and community workers are urged to concentrate their efforts toward completion of the drive by October 31 so that final reports can be made early in the first week of November.

We must meet our goal to assure the continuance of Red Cross services so vital to so many. When you are asked to contribute, please do so cheerfully and generously. The Red Cross is always standing by for emergencies and their regular services are worth the more than they're asking. Let's support our Red Cross.

Letters To Editor

Endorses Issue

Mr. James I. Story, Editor
THE NEWS-RECORD
Marshall, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Story:
I have been pleased to see in your paper that so many people and organizations have endorsed and are supporting the Road Bond Proposition. In my opinion, it would be foolish for the citizens of this county to fail to support the passage of this proposition.

I urge every voter to go to the polls on Tuesday, November 2, 1966, and vote for the Issuance of the Road Bonds.

Very truly yours,
A. E. LEAKE

Presbyterian Society

Met With Marshall

Presbyterian Church

District Number II of Holston Presbyterian Society held its Fall meeting in the Marshall Presbyterian Church on October 12.

Mrs. Robert Kribbis of Erwin, Tenn., Presbyterian president, welcomed the group and presented Mrs. Henry Jablonski of Washington College Academy, Salem, Tenn., who gave the opening worship based on the theme of the meeting, Called to Be Free and Obedient, using the Good Neighbor as an illustration.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. William Kaylor of Greenville, Tenn., gave the Mission Yearbook of Prayer.

Our Thanksgiving offering for 1966 was discussed by Mrs. S. A. Hawkins of Erwin, Tenn., and National Missions in Holston by Mr. Robert Ely of Johnson City, Tennessee.

Mrs. Hugh Simon of Greenville, Tenn., gave Missions: Our Christian Calling, which she illustrated with a film strip.

The group then went to the different workshops for the officer training period.

Lunch was served in the Fellowship Hall by the Women's Association with the Rev. Daniel L. Force, pastor of the Marshall Presbyterian Church, returning thanks.

"Martin Luther"

Film At Baptist

Church Sunday

The religious classic "Martin Luther" will be shown at the Marshall Baptist Church on Sunday evening, October 31. This controversial film presents the story of the spiritual pilgrimage of one of the most impressive figures of the 16th century — a man who sought to effect slight reforms in his own church, but whose efforts resulted in one of the greatest upheavals in Christian History.

The showing begins at 7:00 p. m., and concludes at approximately 8:30. The public is cordially invited. There is no charge.

Marshall Book

Club Meets

Mrs. Clyde Roberts was hostess to the Marshall Book Club Monday evening at her home on Roberts Hill Road. The president, Mrs. Huey, presided and during the business session current officers were unanimously re-elected for another term. These officers are: Mrs. Wade Huey, president; Mrs. John Corbett, vice president; Mrs. J. B. Tweed, secretary-treasurer.

After the business was concluded, Mrs. Corbett presented a program for the evening a most interesting and timely review of "The Sophisticated Investor" by Burton Crane. The book deals with the history and background of the stock market as it exists today. Procedures of buying and selling and the explanation of terms used as bull, bear, short, under the counter, broker, agent and others were most interesting.

Mrs. Corbett was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Hood who has recently been studying the subject in a college economics course.

A dessert course was served by the hostess to Mrs. Huey, Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Wilcox Roberts, Mrs. R. R. Ramsey, Mrs. W. P. Ramsey, Mrs. McElroy, Mrs. Tweed, and two guests, Mrs. McConnell of Miami and Mrs. Margaret Hood of Marshall.

TRUE
A teacher gave her class this problem:

"If there are seven flies on your desk and you kill one, how many will remain?"
"One," answered the most down-earth pupil, "the dead one."
