PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL Memory Selection: "I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase." —(1 Corinthians 3:6-7) Lesson Text: Acts 18:18-28 This Lesson deals with a very significant period in Paul's missionary activities... namely, the establishments of two churches in important cities... that of Corinth and Ephesus. It also points out a very pertinent fact — that it does not take one of any particular training or education to do the Lord's work... and do it well. For it was during Paul's travels that he met with Priscilla and Aquila, who were humble and relatively unlettered tent makers (Paul's own original calling). Nevertheless, this woman and this man were to play an important part (in their humble way) in furthering the Gospel of Jesus Christ. For they were firm believers, and they practiced the doctrine of Christianity on every occasion that presented itself to them. Thus the hospitable offer of shelter to Paul and his companion during their sojourn in Ephesus. Their house was, indeed, a "church" — as so many homes were in those days. The contribution they made to the doctrine of Christianity may, in no uncertain way, be measured by the fact that Paul invited Priscilla and Aquila to be his companions in his field of service to the Lord. Thus it is amply demonstrated, once again, that God gives to all people certain skills... certain values in His cause. It is how those skills and those values are employed that makes the difference. The value of a person, in His eyes, lies in the service which is to be performed. Every Christian should be acutely aware of his own significance in the purposes of God — and he should be acutely aware of the significance of other persons, for there is potential worth in every human being, and Christian service involves many people. Among them must be an interaction and an independence in order to get the job at hand completed effectively.

Of this interdependence, the one upon the other, Paul was acutely aware. True, he stood head and shoulders above the crowd, but, just as the farmer plants his crops, he is dependent upon Mother Nature to nurture them to fruition, so was Paul dependent upon others in the furtherance of the Gospel. The work performed by the Priscillas and the Aquilas was essential to the reality of his mission. And he never failed to acknowledge this fact, or the courage that was often exhibited in the performance of Christian duties. Such courage was exhibited when Priscilla and Aquila, hearing Apollos make his presentation of the Gospel to the people of Ephesus — in a scholarly manner — nevertheless, feeling he did not see the whole truth in relation to the Christian gospel, went to Apollos and instructed him — people of humble calling though they were, and he a man of letters! It could have been taken as an affront; instead, the results confirmed the value of teamwork! All of us should never lose sight of the fact that we are partners in the spreading of the Gospel; each of us need to contribute our skills — even if they number only ONE! Some other among us may have ONE skill... and that skill, combined with ours, may be forged into a formidable weapon in Christ's cause! Yes, indeed, there is a mighty lesson of comfort and encouragement to be drawn by each one of us from today's scriptures!

In Memoriam From A Loved One In Heaven DORA A. GENTRY Passed Away February 12, 1967 "I would not have you grieve for me today Nor weep beside my vacant chair, Could you but know my daily portion here You would not, could not, wish me there." "I know now why he said, "Ear hath not head." I have no words, no alphabet. Or even if I had I dare not tell Because you could not bear it yet." "So, only this — I am the same, though changed, Like Him! A joy more rich and strong Than I had dreamed that any heart could hold, And all my life is one glad song." "Sometimes when you are talking to our Lord He turns and speaks to me, Dear Heart, In that rare moment you and I are just The distance of a word apart." "And so my loved ones do not grieve for me Around the family board today; Instead, rejoice, for we are in Him, And so I am not far away." Sadly Missed By: John Gentry, husband; Sons, Daughters, Grandchildren, Great-grandchildren and Friends
