HEARD AND SEEN By "POP"

For ten years while I was fire chief here I attended the annual Firemen's Conventions all over the state and I can look back on some of the experiences I've had with great pleasure — several years ago when I gave up the duties as chief I quit going to the conventions — you would think I'd seen enough fire-fighting equipment to last a lifetime but not true — I still get a thrill out of seeing new apparatus — like Monday when I was in Asheville with Frank Davis we both got a kick out of seeing the new pumps and ladder trucks — the convention was held in Asheville this week — congratulations to Jack C. Cole on being elected president of the North Carolina Vo-Ag. Association — Jack's won many honors, as have his students, but I believe this is the highest honor yet — it's back-to-school on Friday — and for "real" on Monday — it will be an exciting experience for those beginning but for some reason, boys, especially, hate to see "school start up again" — but with the starting of school soon comes football — and that's real good, isn't it? — especially if YOUR team wins — the new hardtop in front of Plemmons Restaurant is great — lessens dust and makes it better to drive right up to the front door — wish they'd hurry and get the BRIDGES between Marshall and Mars Hill completed — it's terrible to have to go all the way by Fisher's Lane — that road is as dangerous as an atomic bomb — some people prefer to drive up Ivy via Flat Creek and then into Mars Hill — quite a long trip in order to go only 12 miles — but that's what one must do in order to eventually get wider and safer bridges — Bill and I thoroughly enjoyed having the Harrell Woods up home for dinner last Sunday — Harrell is a wonderful person I already knew but after being around Betty for a while, she, too, is wonderful — I love to hear her play the piano — their three sons, Harrell, Mark and Steve, are fine boys and we hope they'll come back again soon — it's certainly getting that Fall feeling these mornings — but by afternoon it's back to hot summer — but then at night, it's cool and comfortable — the longer I live in the mountains the more I love them — several nights lately I've sat in my front yard in a reclining lawn chair and watched nighttime arrive and the mountainous horizon disappear and a starry sky and beautiful moon come into focus — sometimes it's just great to sit alone and meditate and enjoy the beauties of nature and for a few minutes forget the daily turmoils and rush — just heard that the Mars Hill-Marshall road is open — at least temporarily — Johnny Fisher, star MHS athlete, is playing great ball in the Senior Babe Ruth Tourney at McCormick Field — saw the game Wednesday night and Johnny looked great — his right hand was numbed by a foul tip in the first inning but it didn't affect his playing — he drove in the first South Buncombe run with a towering sacrifice fly to left field — he singled over the first basemen's outstretched arms, and flied out — his catching has been tops and he's thrown out several would-be base stealers — he's a fine boy, a good student, and one of the best all-round athletes in MHS history — I think the recent Florida trip did Dot Shupe a lot of good — she came in the office the other day and didn't gripe about a thing — in fact, she acted almost human — and that's the very end.

Well, I weeded my flower bed and now I have ten or twelve flowers in each of my three beds. Guess I'll have to take back my invitation for you to come by for a bouquet, you'd better just come by with your glasses so that you can see all of the plants. When I weeded them, I left everything standing that I thought was a flower, and asked Pearl to pull anything else out for me that was a weed. By jove, by the time she finished I had about decided my blanket of a thousand seed had gone with the wind

We just about got rested from Florida when Shupe decided it was time for us to go see his folks in Virginia. So we took off on Sunday morning and had a nice visit up there with them. My mother-in-law knows me pretty well after almost 25 years as this will prove to you. She gave me a kind of squash to bring home to eat, and as she handed it to me, with a twinkle in her eye, she said, "Now, Dot, when Pearl cooks this for you . . ." These

JUST A WOMAN'S OBSERVATIONS By DOROTHY B. SHUPE

Gee, it's been so long since I wrote my last column that I may not remember how to observe. Anyhow, I'll try, and hope I can be as brilliant as Pop without trying very hard. Didn't he have a big mouth talking about me in a bikini! With his fallen chest, he sure has room to talk, doesn't he?

We really had fun on our trip to Florida and it would take me a month to tell you all the details. We went swimming in both the Gulf and the Atlantic Ocean, played some tennis, ping pong, went shopping, to the dog races, swam in motel pools, ate in all kinds of places, saw an Indian village in the Everglades, was pressured to buy land, (but being poor helped save us there), and had fun, run, fun, while doing it all with Shupe and Charlotte.

Wasn't it just terrible about those girls being killed by bears out west? Im glad Tom and Ethel got back from their long tour of the western states all safe and sound. Guess Ethel had a time keeping Tom on the right road — on second thought, she might have looked hopefully for a bear

Guess I'll have to take back my invitation for you to come by for a bouquet, you'd better just come by with your glasses so that you can see all of the plants. Presbyterian W. A. Met August 10

The Women's Association of the Marshall Presbyterian Church held its regular monthly meeting in the Fellowship Hall Thursday, August 10 at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. W. C. Rector, president, opened with Philippians, Chapter 4 and the poem "The Will of God," found among the papers of an African missionary, and prayer.

Two former members, Mrs. J. O. Corbett Sr., and Miss Elizabeth Goforth, were welcomed.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Rector led the group in a most interesting discussion of the last two chapters of the Bible Study Guide on Philippians, "Joy For An Anxious Age." The facts that it is not anxiety about Paul's troubles but joy in Christ that has been the theme of the letter and "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me," were emphasized.

The meeting closed with prayer.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Margaret Ward.

mothers-in-law!

We grown-ups have little faith sometimes and I heard this about a little cousin of mine lately which shows how beautifully the very young believe in God. He is about 5 years old and he was up in a tree near a barn when he realized he had gone too far to get down by himself. He started praying aloud for God to come help him down. One of the hired hands was in the barn and after hearing the little boy pray for a minute he yelled out asking if the child needed help? The little boy quickly replied, "Yes, LORD, please hurry with a ladder!"

OBSERVED — Congratulations to lots of people — To Bill Cox on taking Judy Ball for his bride — To Keith Robinson and Marty Robbins ditto — To the Lawrence Ponders on the birth of a son — The Deals on fifty years of married life — To Edward Crain for his trip to Purdue University — Nice to see Mary Virginia and Skid Hollifield here for a visit last week — and Bill and Shirley Gable here this week — Sofry Marvin McClure had another visit to the hospital, and that Mrs. Jack Payne had an ugly fall near her home — Enjoyed the annual Baptist Association meeting at Laurel Branch last Thursday night — Speaking of bad figures, J. C. Wallin has the knobbiest knees.
