

Personal Mention

Mrs. John Roberson of Taylorsville spent the weekend in Marshall with her mother, Mrs. William Worley; her brother, Hubert Worley; and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Guy White.

Burlington Announces Schedule

Burlington Industries will observe the upcoming holiday season with plant vacations and traditional Christmas recognition of employees and their families.

According to Truman Melton, manager, the Hot Springs Plant will be closed Dec. 21, through Dec. 27, for the Christmas holidays. Children of local employees will receive Christmas treat bags.

Burlington employees in 14 states will receive bonuses to coincide with scheduled manufacturing plant closings for the holidays. Individual amounts are based on length of service.

More than 75,000 traditional Christmas treat bags will be given to children of Burlington employees this year.

EH Club Schedule

Monday, Dec. 14—Mars Hill Young Homemaker Club will meet with Mrs. Joan Johnson at 7:30 p.m. This will be the Annual Christmas Party.

Wednesday, Dec. 16—Madison County Advisory Board will meet in the Mars Hill Community Center at 7 p.m.

Morgan Attends Meeting Friday

Joe L. Morgan of Route 2 Marshall attended the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association meeting Friday at the Ambassador Club of Hilton Inn in Greensboro. The highlights of the meeting were CBS news correspondent Charles Kuralt's address on "Edward R. Murrow", a native of Guilford County; and Dr. George B. Tindall's "Southern Strategy: An Historical Perspective".

Mr. Morgan also attended a session of the North Carolina Folklore Society while in Greensboro.

Drought Loss Aid In County For Feed Grain

Rep. Roy A. Taylor said Friday that the U. S. Department of Agriculture will make government-owned feed grain available at reduced prices to farmers in Cherokee, Clay, Macon and Madison counties who suffered drought losses this year. The grain will be available through local Agriculture, Soil and Conservation Service (ASCS) offices. The office in each county will be responsible for determining the eligibility of individual producers for assistance, Taylor said.

Servicemen

Clyde R. Prince, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Prince, 3345 LaFayette, Trenton, was promoted to Army sergeant upon graduation from the Noncommissioned Officer Candidate School at Ft. Benning, Ga.

During his 12 weeks of training, the sergeant received instruction in leadership, light weapons, infantry tactics, map reading and communications.

He was selected for the course under a specialized Army program that grants rapid promotions to outstanding individuals.

He entered the Army in 1970 and completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Payne, of Marshall.

With The Sick

Mrs. A. W. Whitehurst, who has been a patient in Aston Park Hospital for several days, is now recuperating at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Corbett, in Marshall.

Hubert Payne is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Miss Effie Fore is undergoing treatment in Memorial Mission Hospital.

J. Clyde Brown of Mars Hill is a patient in Memorial Mission Hospital where he recently underwent surgery.

The month of May was named after Maia, Roman goddess of the growth of plants.
