SEVERAL MONTHS AGO the pet cat of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sprouse who live on Panhandle Road, Rt. 2, Marshall, had the misfortune of losing her newly-born kittens and almost succumbed from grief. Mr. Sprouse found some small squirrels and placed them near the mother cat. The cat immediately "adopted" the squirrels and let them nurse, as shown above. Needless to say, the squirrels were also pleased with their "adopted mother".

Mrs. Dora Rice was also present for the dinner and in the afternoon another aunt, Mrs. Laura Faulkner joined the group.

Beta Omega Chapter Met At Grill Here

The Beta Omega Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met Tuesday night September 7 at the Madison Grill. Pat Franklin, president, presided over the meeting. Rushee Vanda Cook signed a pledge card to become a member of the sorority. Members of Alpha Lambda, the mother sorority, present at the meeting were Geraldine Johnson and Brenda Hankins.

Several Beta Omega members attended the Upper East Tennessee District Council Meeting on September 11, in Kingsport, Tennessee. These members and their husbands attended a cookout following the meeting.

Christmas cards, notecards, and place mats commemorating North Carolina are now being sold by Beta Omega members as a means of adding to their treasury.

Each year Beta Omega awards the man who has contributed the most to the sorority and its work. This award, the Zeus award, will be presented to this outstanding individual in December.

Homecoming At Ponder's Chapel Sunday

Homecoming will be observed this Sunday at the Ponder's Chapel Baptist Church at Rollins beginning at 10:45 with devotions by the officers. The Rev. J. E. Pedew, pastor, will deliver the morning sermon at the 11:00 o'clock service.

Dinner will be served in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the morning service.

The afternoon service will start at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. C. J. Mize, pastor of Macedonia and Allen's Chapel Baptist Churches, of Newsport and Parrottsville, Tenn., preaching. Special music will be presented by the Allens Chapel Baptist Church choir.

Earl Barnette will be master of ceremonies. The public is cordially invited.

POSTPONED

The special program, "America Needs God", scheduled to be given Sept. 18 at Laurel Baptist Church, has been postponed due to the fact that the leader cannot be present.

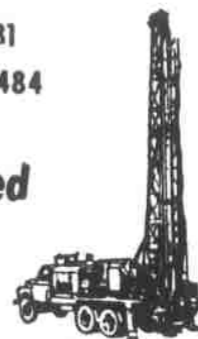

It will be re-scheduled at a later date.

REPUBLICANS!

★ ★ Precinct Meetings ★ ★

★ County Convention ★

Registered Republicans will hold their biennial precinct meetings at their polling places during this "off year" in accordance with the new plan of Organization of the Republican Party of North Carolina. The eight organized precincts will hold their meetings at 2 p.m. on Saturday, September 18, in their regular polling places. The two recently "carved out" precincts (Sandy Mush and East Fork-Grapevine) will be organized at the polling places (where votes were cast in the 1970 General Election) at 8 p.m. on Friday, September 17. Each precinct shall elect a five member committee consisting of a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary plus two other members, to serve for two years. Each precinct may nominate one of its members to the county executive committee. Each precinct is entitled to send one delegate and one alternate to the Madison County GOP convention plus one delegate and one alternate for every fifty (50) votes or major fraction thereof cast for Jim Gardner in the precinct in the 1968 general election.

The Madison County Republican convention will meet at the courthouse in Marshall on Saturday, September 25, at 2p.m. It shall elect officers, a finance committee, and appoint delegates (15) and alternates (15) to the 11th Congressional District convention (to be held between October 23 and November 6) and the North Carolina Republican convention to be held at the Charlotte Coliseum on November 19 and 20, 1971. Three candidates for State GOP Chairman are former State Senator Ted Dent, of Arden; Attorney Bill Graham, of Winston-Salem; and Businessman Frank A. Rouse, of Kinston.

The county convention shall appoint one person to each of these committees: Judicial, Solicitorial, Senatorial, and Legislative District Committees. The convention shall also make a recommendation to the 11th District convention relative to a member of the State Executive Committee.

Every Republican is urged to attend and take an active part in these functions. A special invitation is extended to the teenage and young voter.
