

TWO YOUTHS, Patricia Ellison and Billy Joe Ellison of the Grassy Creek Community Group sold the most chances on a quilt that was drawn off at the regular monthly meeting, November 4. They sold $57 worth of chances. The winner was Diana Green of Newport, Tenn. The money will be used to help finish the building.

DR. R. BRUCE SAMS, chairman of the Madison County board of commissioners, former member board of education, member Madison County Welfare Board, former Mayor of Mars Hill and popular Mars Hill dentist, was honored Monday afternoon in the courthouse lobby for his outstanding service. Monday's meeting of the commissioners was his last since he is not seeking reelection. Top photo shows Zeno Ponder, chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, presenting Dr. Sams with a trophy. Looking on is Mrs. Sams. Center photo shows Ponder holding up large "appreciation cake" for Dr. Sams to cut. Mrs. Sams looks on. Bottom photo shows Ponder presenting Mrs. Sams with two silver cups in appreciation for her cooperation in past years. The occasion was attended by numerous county officials, agency and courthouse personnel and other friends.

Is this your last summer for a summer job?
Summer jobs between high school years are good-time jobs. But the summer job after graduation is your last summer job. And if you're not going on to college this fall, consider a job in today's Army. A job that teaches you a skill and pays you as you learn. You start at $268 a month. With free meals, medical and dental care, and 30 days paid vacation each year. And a chance to work and live in places like Europe, Hawaii, Panama, and Alaska, as well as the States. If you'd like to know more, talk it over with your local Army Representative. Call 252-4070. Today's Army wants to join you.
