Just A Woman's Observations

BY DOROTHY BRIGMAN SHUPE

Be sure to remember to change your clock back one hour this Saturday night and get that extra hour's sleep! Boy, am I looking forward to that night! But it won't be over two weeks until we'll feel that there isn't enough time for a good night's sleep and that ole alarm buzzer will go off!

Last Friday afternoon I had just about decided I was too tired to try to make it to the ball game and came home feeling sort of down and got a call from SHADY SIDE Florist that they were giving me a corsage for the evening! Well, that just pepped me up like one thing and I wouldn't have missed the trip for a million dollars! When I got the flowers, along with a lovely five rosebud corsage—there were seven long stemmed roses to go with it! Gee, thanks, Shirley and Richard, and I told everyone near me at the game—at least five times—that the flowers came from you! I almost froze my left side by not having my coat over the flowers!

I wasn't the only one to get flowers last week—Mr. Whitt was presented a pretty arrangement from the primary department—they think he's a pretty good boss and to celebrate National Boss Week, they honored him this way!

Shupe and I left around 4 o'clock to go to the game, stopping in Asheville for supper. When we got to Reynolds High, we drove up to the front of the school and saw no one else from Madison. I told him that we must not be at the right place because I saw not one Nix! He suggested that we go around to the back of the entrance—and there they were—along with many others. Valarie was teasing her sister, Georgia, all during the game that we would beat her—and was she ever right!

When you missed that game, you missed the best one yet! I'm ashamed to say that I sort of gave up when we were near the end of the fourth period and two TD's behind—but those boys came through and what a marvelous game they played! They just wouldn't give up! I particularly liked Jeff Treadway's passes; Jimmy Roberts, Carlton Freeman and Holden Webb's catching the three TD's; the defensive play of Boyce Maybew, Ricky Harrell, Mike Thomas, Tim Ramsey, Alan Rice, Kirk McWilliams, the ground gains of Tim Hodge and Jimmy Ramsey; and the corsage of the whole squad in sticking in there and fighting until the very end!

OBSERVED—Eloise Ward wanted me to know that Shady Side Florist furnished the lovely flowers for the assembly program her second graders gave which was a cute wedding of Uncle Sam and Peace—These florists are good people, I must say—I think I'll forego my corsage this week and ask them to honor our coaches wives, our cheerleader coach, and trainer's wife because these wives have loaned their husbands to us for three months work while they stayed home and missed them—Oh, I spelled Rembrandt wrong last week and it wasn't the people at Canton—I left out the "d"—Keith

Robinson was at the game last week and said he had seen only three people he knew on the streets of Marshall—I'm sure he saw many that he knew at the game, however—Saw Doug Neshitt who is the son of Mary and John who used to live here, he's a freshman at Reynolds—Coach Charles Tolley's brother-in-law was one of the coaches there so that made the game interesting to several—Jack Ramsey came by for a minute this week—He's living at Morganton now—No remarks—He was a fun guy when he was a student at Marshall, glad to see you, fellow—Lawrence Thomas was so nice to get us coffee at the game—I got locked in the ladies room just before game time—That's a long story—Oh, a friend told me last week that all grand children had more than one grand parent—Please forgive me, friends, I usually tease the ones I know best—don't really mean to leave anyone out—I know all grandparents are proud of the new baby, but usually pick on one to tease or make remarks about it to them—Saw several of our Board of Education members at the game—Mr. Bill Roberts, Mr. Bobby Ponder, also Supt. and Mrs. Bob Edwards, believe they have been to all of the games—Saw Mrs. Bobby Jean Peek Rice at one or two games, I think the season has been good for all concerned and I hope we'll back Coaches Bobby Dean Franklin, Gene Hall, and F. N. Willett just as well for our basketball games coming up soon—I'd better hush or there won't be any room for the ads this week—Have a good day!

You choose.

Under the present ABC store arrangement a fifth of liquor sells for around $5.00 and will pour twenty drinks. With the proposed liquor-by-the-drink plan, that same fifth will end up costing you around $30.00 (an average of $1.50 per drink).

Someone stands to make "one heck of a lot" of money if liquor-by-the-drink is passed. The question is WHO?

The answer becomes quite clear if you look at those who are pushing the hardest for passage—the hotel and motel owners, the restaurant owners, the big city

Chambers of Commerce, and the big-time distilleries. They stand to gain the most and for that reason are pushing the hardest for it.

The purchase of alcohol by the bottle is more economical for the consumer, and is far more profitable for the state. Records show that states collect less taxes on beverage alcohol when it is sold by the drink than when it is sold in the bottle.

Who's going to profit from it? Not the state or most of our residents, but a few profit-minded motel and restaurant owners and the distilleries. We are asking each of you, regardless if you drink or not, to examine the facts and cast your vote in the best interest of all the people of North Carolina. Keep this a great state. Vote NO on November 6.
