Doc Gilman Raps Turkish Aggression

Albert F. "Doc" Gilman of Cullowhee, Republican candidate for Congress in the 11th District, told the Madison County Republican Women's Club Monday night that the U. S. should halt economic and military assistance and military sales to Turkey until all Turkish forces have withdrawn from Cyprus. "Only such a halt will clarify to the Turks that we cannot tolerate such a violation of NATO commitments," Gilman said. "The enormous human suffering on Cyprus, especially of our Christian brethren, has not gone unnoticed in Congress. Well over 100 Congressmen, from both parties, have expressed their concern in House resolutions condemning the slaughter and terror brought by the Turk invaders. I am sorry that my opponent, Mr. Taylor, avoided supporting these important humane resolutions," Gilman said. Mrs. Velma R. Hudgins, GOP candidate for N. C. Senate (26th District) also spoke at the meeting. The meeting was held at the Mars Hill Town Hall.

Morgan Aide Visits Here Last Thursday

Robert Morgan, Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate, had his Western North Carolina campaign coordinator, Tom Adams, in Marshall and Mars Hill on Thursday of last week. Adams was in the county to confer with Democratic officials relating to the November election. Adams is a son-in-law to Warren Ponder of Marshall and Weaverville. Adams stated that Morgan will visit Marshall at a later date for the dedication of the new high school.

Ebbs Chapel Bicentennial Comm. To Meet (Tuesday)
