Safe Energy Meeting Thursday At UNC-A

The January meeting of Carolinians For Safe Energy will take place Thursday, Jan. 23 at 7:30 p.m., at the Humanities Lecture Hall, UNC Asheville. The program - a film entitled "The Nuclear Dilemma." The public is cordially invited to attend, and anyone interested in learning more about the dangers of nuclear plants (with one such plant planned by CP&L for Sandy Mush) should attend. Information about various aspects of nuclear plants will also be available at the meeting. A showing of the film is also planned for later this month (date to be announced) at Mars Hill College. Also, for anyone wishing to become informed about the nuclear problem, an excellent book, Poisoned Power, is now available at the Madison County Library.

Echoes From Glory Ridge

Jesus told us about two roads; a broad road leading to destruction that many people are traveling, and a very narrow road leading to eternal life with just a few people traveling on it.

Churches are filled with people who claim to be following Christ, but you will find them traveling the broad-road that leads to destruction, with all the rest of the world; with the exception that you might see them in church they all look alike. They might be deacons, elders, or the people who don't calm to follow Christ they are phonies. Jesus said, 'you will know mine by their love and by their fruit.' They will be different.

People who hear the Word preached Sunday after Sunday and don't act upon it are deceived, for the Bible says that 'we are to be doers of the Word and not hearers only.' They say, 'but we believe in Jesus Christ and the Bible says that's all we have to do to be saved'. Do they really believe in Jesus Christ or do they just believe that He is, for the word believe in means to trust, to cling to, to trust that every word that Jesus said is essential.

Many don't know the scriptures, many have never told anyone about the love of God. Watch and see how many are in church on Sunday and then count the number at prayer-meeting. How many came to the church singing and then how many shined up for Bible-study? It's easy to be a Christian if the cost isn't too great.

The ones who are really following Christ know what the Bible says and obey it. You will find them at prayer-meetings, at Bible studies, and you will know they are Christians by their love.

Three Involved In Wreck Here Last Friday

A three-vehicle accident on the Marshall bypass opposite the shopping center last Friday morning resulted in minor injuries to the drivers and considerable damage to the vehicles. Involved in the accident were Clyde Rathbone, of Marshall, who was driving a red Oldsmobile; Byard Ray, of Route 3, Marshall, driver of a Ford pickup, and Clarence Pycha, of Greenville, Tenn. State Patrolman Cooper investigated.

SINGING

The Madison County Singing Convention will be held at Davis Chapel Baptist Church on Sunday, Jan. 28, beginning at 2 p.m.

Mount Bethel Youth Choir and many other groups are to be featured.

All singers and the public are invited to attend.

Housing Bill Introduced By Con. Taylor

WASHINGTON — In an effort to stimulate the depressed housing industry, Roy A. Taylor has introduced legislation aimed at attracting more money into savings and loan institutions for home mortgages.

Taylor's bill would exclude from federal income tax up to $500 in interest received by an individual depositor on funds placed in savings and loan institutions, banks, credit unions, or other institutions making home loans and $1000 for a couple filing jointly.

The legislation is similar to a bill considered by the House Ways and Means Committee during the closing days of the last Congress. The bill was approved by the committee but did not reach the House floor for a vote.

"Our economy is highly dependent on a healthy housing industry and my bill would give depositors a very real incentive to place their funds in those institutions which are in position to make home mortgages," said Taylor.

"Housing starts are down some 50 percent and unemployment among construction workers has risen beyond 12 percent. This recession in the housing industry has contributed to unemployment in the furniture and the textile industries both important to North Carolina," Rep. Taylor said.

The Congressman said he agreed with the report of the Ways and Means Committee that "the reason for this decline in the housing industry is the unavailability of residential mortgages at reasonable rates."

"...be people are clamoring for Congress to do something to get the economy going again and here is a bill which I feel will help accomplish that objective," Taylor said.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Metcalf and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Faulkner spent Sunday in Charlotte with Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf's son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Zane Metcalf. They attended the installation of Miss Annette Metcalf as Worthy Advisor, Order of Rainbow for Girls of Westgate Assembly No. 71. Annette is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf.

John D. English, of Sparrevohn, Alaska, was a visitor in Marshall on Monday.

Tom White of Edgewater, Md. spent Saturday and Sunday in Marshall with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy White, both of whom were celebrating their birthday.

Marshall Book Club Met Monday Night

The Marshall Book Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Wade Huey.

Mrs. Clyde M. Roberts reviewed "Wills - A Dead Giveaway" by Millie Conz and Ruth Poole. In 1641, Henry VIII enacted a statute that gave the absolute right to dispose of real estate by will. Since then some interesting, amusing, fey, charming, vengeful, and downright nutty wills have been discovered by the co-authors of the book. Included are the wills of Marilyn Monroe, Adolf Hitler, W. C. Fields, Robert Ruark, Shakespeare, the Woolworths and many others.

Members present were Mrs. W. T. McKinney, Mrs. O. A. Gregory, Mrs. J. L. Baker, Mrs. James Story, Mrs. John Corbett, Mrs. J. B. Tweed, Mrs. Walter Ramsey, Mrs. Clyde M. Roberts and the hostess, Mrs. Huey.

Garden Club Met Thursday

The Marshall Garden Club met on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 16, at the Fellowship Hall of the Marshall United Methodist Church. The program topic was "Conservation and Environmental Improvement," a subject to which each Garden Club must give some up-dated study in each year's work.

It is now evident that environmentalism is almost as American as apple pie - and short of a national disaster, laws to govern protection of the environment are here to stay. Many areas of life must be improved if man is to inhabit the earth, and care must be taken that the balance in nature is not destroyed. Practices such as land-use planning, conservation of all energies, clean-up of streams and care in observing water pollution laws, living as Christians with the clear-cut mission of being stewards of the earth, and population control were included in the discussions. Nearly 100 food crops with a farm value of $1 billion annually depend on honeybees for pollination, and pesticides for control of destructive insects are reducing the honeybee colonies. It is disturbing that our tolerance of sinister and

Mrs. Gregory Is Elected WNCDA Director

Mrs. O. A. Gregory, of Marshall, was elected as a member of the board of directors of the 18-County Western North Carolina Development Association

Monday when the association celebrated its 25th year at a luncheon meeting at Sheraton Motor Inn, Asheville.

The active organization includes 18 counties and is dedicated to the development of the entire area, not competition among the towns and counties, whether it be in education, industry, health or other services.

MRS. ANTHONY FOX
...the former Miss Sheila Mundy

Miss Sheila Diane Mundy Is Bride Of Horace Anthony Fox

Miss Sheila Diane Mundy became the bride of Horace Anthony Fox Sunday, Jan. 19 at 4 p.m. in the Paint Fork Free Will Baptist Church. The Rev. Larry Coates, uncle of the bride, conducted the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carrol D. Mundy of Barnardville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace C. Fox of Mars Hill.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length Empire gown of white Bridal satin, accented with Alencon lace and seeded pearl trim. Her chapel length veil was of illusion and matching lace, attached to a Camelot cap.

Mrs. Alma Coates, aunt of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a floor length deep green velvet dress with mint green accessories. She carried a nosegay of mint green carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jeanette Proffitt sister of the bridegroom of Mars Hill. Miss Paula Jarvis of Weaverville, Mrs. Kathy Wheeler of Barnardville, Miss Debbie Sprinkle, cousin of the bridegroom of Detroit, Mich. Their attire was like that of the honor attendant, in deep purple and lavender. They carried nosegays of lavender carnations.

Junior attendants were Sharon Mundy sister of the bride, Kimla Mundy, Ronnie Mundy and James Harrwood.

Preston C. Fox of Mars Hill was his brother's best man. Ushers were Gary Hyder, Billy Shook both of Weaverville, Donald Payne, Allen Roberts both of Mars Hill. A reception followed at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Fox attended North Buncombe High School. Mr. Fox is a graduate of Mars Hill High School and is presently serving in the U. S. Army, 82d. ABN. Division stationed in Fort Bragg, where the couple will live.

Heard And Seen

By Pop Story

Nearly everybody I talk to either has the flu, or is getting over the flu, or they feel like they're taking the flu... I wouldn't say we have an epidemic in Marshall but I can say that plenty of people are troubled with the flu bug... although I've escaped the flu thus far I am totally aware of its presence. Jean, my secretary, reported back to work Monday after being sick for almost a week... and even Spencer LeGrand was "grounded" with the flu

Sunday and couldn't preach... and Monday's miserable day of rain, sleet and snow didn't make matters any better... last week, Dot Shupe phoned and said she was sick with flu and couldn't write her column... hope she's better by now... the new fire alarm reporting system now in use in Marshall sounds like a great idea and should help firemen respond quicker which, in turn, means better and quicker fire fighting... writup elsewhere in this issue... it was unfortunate that the three fellows who were involved in the 3-vehicle accident on the bypass last Friday morning were seriously injured... operators of cars should enter and leave the shopping center driveways onto the bypass with the greatest of caution... the snow scene elsewhere in this issue which fell in March, 1936, brings back memories... now, that was a snow... thanks to Bill Zink for loaning me the pictures... a friend of mine supplied the following, entitled, "What Should I Be?" "I'd rather be a could-be, if I couldn't be an are-"

For a could-be is a may be, with a chance of touching par. And I'd rather be a has been than a might have been by far

For a might have been, has never been, but a has been once was are."
