The Sunday School Lesson

A WORSHIPING PEOPLE
International Sunday School Lesson for February 2, 1975
Scripture: Acts 2:42-47; 1 Corinthians 10:31 through 11:1; Colossians 3:12-17; James 2:1-4; 1 Peter 4:7-11.
By Mrs. Jesse Waller

Have you ever stopped to think about memory? We remember by the moment, not by the hour, or day, or year. A mental picture, or vision, causes us to remember a precious moment of the past. It remains in the chambers of our mind.

This small band of early Christians, upon whom the Holy Spirit had been freely bestowed, were not only an empowered people, they were a worshiping group. Theirs was not an hour's worship, or sitting in the sanctuary on Sunday morning. They worshiped from house to house, besides their daily visits to the temple, for they were Jews. Jesus, before them had worshiped in the temple, reading the Scriptures, and clearing out the money changers, declaring His house was a "house of prayer."

What strength they must have gathered, as they met for prayer, and singing of hymns—even breaking bread together. This last act of worship has a familiar ring, as the holy sacrament of the Lord's Supper is observed in Christian churches still.

What joy and fellowship we miss, when we fail to respond to this deepest urge within us, to come together to worship God. His name should daily be on our lips, in love and praise for His great and wonderful gifts to those who love Him.

These moments of fellowship and prayer, became flash backs, for strength, during times of persecution. How often we hear people say, who have been very ill in the hospital, "you just can't know how much your visits and prayers meant to me!" Our prayers for others bring into clear focus an atmosphere for worship—we forget self, and focus on the needs of others. It causes us to help answer our prayers, by doing something about the needs of others.

Is it possible to bring back a high moment of worship in your worship in your life? When I was in my early twenties, I had the joy of being cabin mother to six young teenage girls, from Hollywood, California. None of them had ever knelt at the altar for Holy Communion. They found Christ, during an outdoor campfire service, where Christians stood and gave witness of the presence of Christ in their lives, and the great strength it brought. At our prayer time in the cabin that night, each girl was seeking the greatest avenue of service for her life. They had become unselfish, completely, and were thinking of others. Is this not the desired end for worship in each of our lives?
