

Deaths And Funerals

MRS. E. H. BUCKNER

Mrs. E. H. Buckner, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, E. H. Buckner, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Smith and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

MRS. J. W. SMITH

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. W. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

MRS. J. W. SMITH

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. W. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

WYNN STUBBS

Wynn Stubbs, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, Wynn Stubbs, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

Mrs. J. W. SMITH

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. W. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

Mrs. J. W. SMITH

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. W. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

Mrs. J. W. SMITH

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. W. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

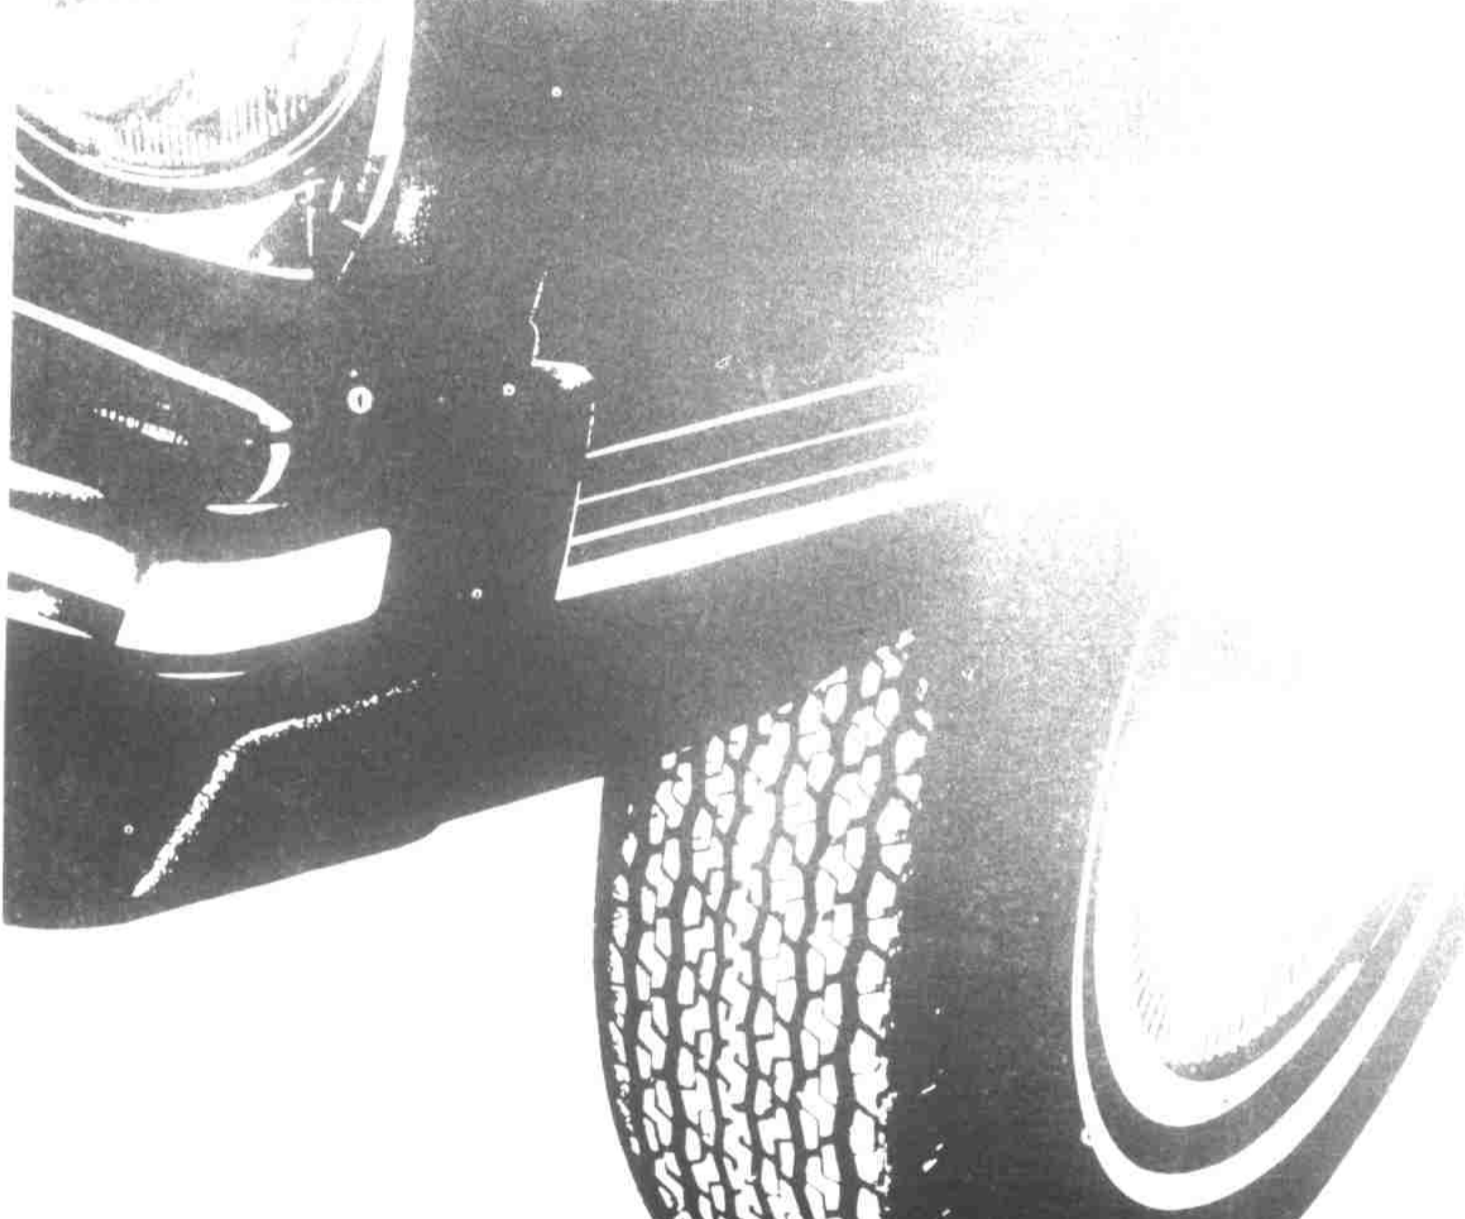

Mrs. J. W. SMITH

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. W. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

Mrs. J. W. SMITH

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. W. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

RIGHT NOW, CAR MAKING GREAT

SO IS WACHOVIA.

Everyone is talking special offers in the automobile business right now. And here at Wachovia we make it easy for you to take advantage of them.

Because we're ready to make you a loan. One that will make it quick and convenient for you to get that new car on the road.

Just ask your dealer to arrange your financing through Wachovia... or talk to a Wachovia Personal Banker. Before you know it, you'll be on your way.

You have a Personal Banker at Wachovia.

Private Eye Has Public Concern

TV PRIVATE EYE MIKE CONNORS, MANNIX, is so concerned about fighting the nation's number one killer—heart disease—as he is about fighting crime on TV. Connors and his Gal Friday (Gail Fisher) urge Americans to give generously to their Heart Fund. Both are celebrity Heart Fund volunteers. Connors served as 1971 Honorary Heart Sunday Chairman for the Los Angeles area.

Food Service Attends Workshop

Mrs. W. J. Smith, 78, of Hendersonville, died at 11:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Hendersonville hospital. She was born in Hendersonville, N.C., and was a member of the Hendersonville church. She was preceded in death by her husband, W. J. Smith, who died in 1968. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Buckner and Mrs. J. W. Smith, both of Hendersonville. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. on Feb. 15 at the Hendersonville church. Burial will be in the Hendersonville cemetery.

In German mythology, the giants will come to battle the gods on a boat made from fingernails!