What are the Christians doing? Everywhere we go we hear preaching on repentance, preaching against sin, preaching of all types, but not very much action. Where are the real followers of Christ? Jesus said, "if a man love me he will keep my words." John 15:9. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Matt 22:37-39.

Today churches are divided and split up over church doctrine and church programs. Jesus said, "Love one another even as I have loved you." John 15:17. It's easier to resent than love, but Jesus never said it would be easy.

Everyone knows the shape of our nation, sin runs rampant, the economy is collapsing, hundreds of thousands out of work. In the early church at a time of crisis the church would meet and pray all day and all night until they received the assurance from God Acts 12:5, 13:2. Today in the church if prayer time last over fifteen minutes people become restless. Jesus said that men ought always to pray Luke 18:1.

We hear preaching on sin and the sinner, but fail to pray for them and criticize instead. Luke 6:27, 32, 37. Paul summarized all this in Romans 12:10-21 NAS. "Be devoted to one another in brotherly love; give preference to one another in honor, not lagging behind in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, rejoicing in hope, persevering in tribulation, devoted to prayer, contributing to the needs of the saints, practicing hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and curse not. Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. Be of the same mind toward one another; do not be haughty in mind, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own estimation. Never pay back evil for evil to anyone. Respect what is right in the sight of all men. If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all men. Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay," says the Lord." "But if your enemy is hungry, feed him, and if he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in so doing you will heap burning coals upon his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.
