

Miss Deborah Myra Mayhew Is Bride Of Gerald Rhodes Coman

Miss Deborah Myra Mayhew of Marshall became the bride of Gerald Rhodes Coman of Knoxville, Tenn., at 7 p.m. Saturday, October 25, 1975 in the Marshall Baptist Church. The Rev. T. Spencer

LeGrand conducted the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce H. Mayhew of Marshall. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Herbert Coman of Swannanoa.

The church was decorated with greenery and candles.

Charles Huey, organist, presented a program of wedding music. "Trumpet Voluntary", Purcell, was used for the processional and "A Festal Fanfare", Bach, for the recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Candlelight satin trimmed in Belgium lace and sequin pearls. Her veil was attached to a Juliet cap and she carried a bouquet of white and yellow roses.

Miss Gale Mayhew of Marshall, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a long pink gown of flowered polyester and carried a bouquet of mixed fall flowers. Mr. Coman served as his son's best man. Ushers were James H. Coman of Asheville, brother of the bridegroom; Boyce Mayhew of Marshall, brother of the bride; Frank Chambers and Roy Holbert of Knoxville, Tenn.

The bride is a graduate of Marshall High School and has been employed as a respiratory therapist at Park West Hospital of Knoxville.

The bridegroom attended Western Carolina University and is employed by Sterchi Furniture Company of Knoxville.

A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Wade Huey, Miss Ann McKinney and Mrs. Gary Sams.

The couple will reside in Knoxville.

The bride-elect was honored at a miscellaneous shower on Tuesday evening of last week at the French Broad EMT building in Marshall. Hostesses were Miss Ann McKinney, Miss Gale Mayhew and Mrs. Gary Sams.

MRS. GERALD RHODES COMAN
the former Miss Deborah Myra Mayhew

District Beta Clubs Met At Madison High

On October 14, 1975, the annual convention of the North Carolina Western District Beta Clubs met at Madison High. The main purpose of this meeting was to install new Western District Officers for the 1975-76 school year.

The convention began with the visiting schools registering for voting, and touring Madison's building. Everyone seemed quite impressed with our school.

The actual meeting began with the call to order by Harrell Wood, the presiding president of the Western District clubs. After various standard proceedings, a welcome to all the visiting schools was given by Mr. J.C. Wallin, principal of Madison High School. Following the welcome came the business session, which included the reading of minutes by Shay Pittman, the presentation of candidates by Harrell Wood, and finally the actual election of the new Western District Beta Club officers. The new Western District Officers are: Tommy Burr of I-win, President; Tammy Ode of Robinsville, Vice-President; and Sam Boll of North Buncombe, Secretary-Treasurer. After the new President, Tommy Burr, had adjourned the meeting, the Madison Beta students hosted a dinner for the other schools in the school cafeteria.

SINGING

The first Saturday Night Singing, will be held at the Hope Well Baptist Church this Saturday night at 7:30. The pastor, Rev. Everette Haynie invites everyone to attend.

SINGING

There will be a singing at the Carmen Church of God this Sunday beginning at 7 p.m. Guests from Charlotte are expected to be present. The public is invited.

MR. AND MRS. ERNEL SHELTON who were married Wednesday night, October 22, 1975, at 6 o'clock in the Carmen Church of God. The Rev. Winford Shelton, pastor, performed the ceremony. The bride's granddaughter, Renee Chandler, was ring bearer. The bride is the former Mrs. Wanda Jo King, of Route 3, Marshall. Mr. Shelton is also a native of Route 3, Marshall. They are now residing on Route 3, Marshall.

REEVES REUNION

The children of Mrs. A.S. Reeves of Walnut held a family reunion at her home on Monday of last week. Those attending were Anios K. Reeves, Aubrey Reeves and Mrs. Clellan Baker of Port Huron, Mich.; Mrs. John Ledford of Stuart, Fla.; Rev. Joseph M. Reeves of Charlotte, Dr. J.D. Reeves and family of Asheville; Mrs. Cloice Plemmons and family and Mrs. Plummer Cody and family of Walnut.

Mrs. Reeves is recuperating at her home following a fall a few weeks ago in which she sustained two broken bones in her back.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heinz of Powell, Tenn. visited his aunt, Mrs. Annie Mae D. White, and his uncle, Bill Deaver, in Marshall on Monday. They were accompanied to Knoxville, Tenn. on Monday afternoon by Mr. Heinz's mother, Mrs. Victor Kinser, who had spent several days in Marshall as the guest of her sister and brother Mrs. Kinser will visit her daughter in Knoxville for a few days before returning to her home in Largo, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. J.L. McElroy spent last week in Chattanooga, Tenn. where Dr. McElroy attended the Tennessee Valley Medical Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy White and Mrs. White's brother, Hubert Worley, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Taylorsville with Mrs. White's sister, Mrs. John Roberson.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy White had as guests last week Mrs. White's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Chandler, of Longmont, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Niles returned to their home in Marshall on Tuesday of last week from Auburn, Ala. where they spent a few days with their younger daughter, Miss Cynthia Niles, who is a freshman at Auburn University.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Young and Mrs. Evelyn Cain, of Traveler's Rest, S.C., were in Marshall last Friday due to the death of Mr. Young's and Mrs. Cain's aunt, Mrs. Rachel Fowler. They are both natives of Barnard.

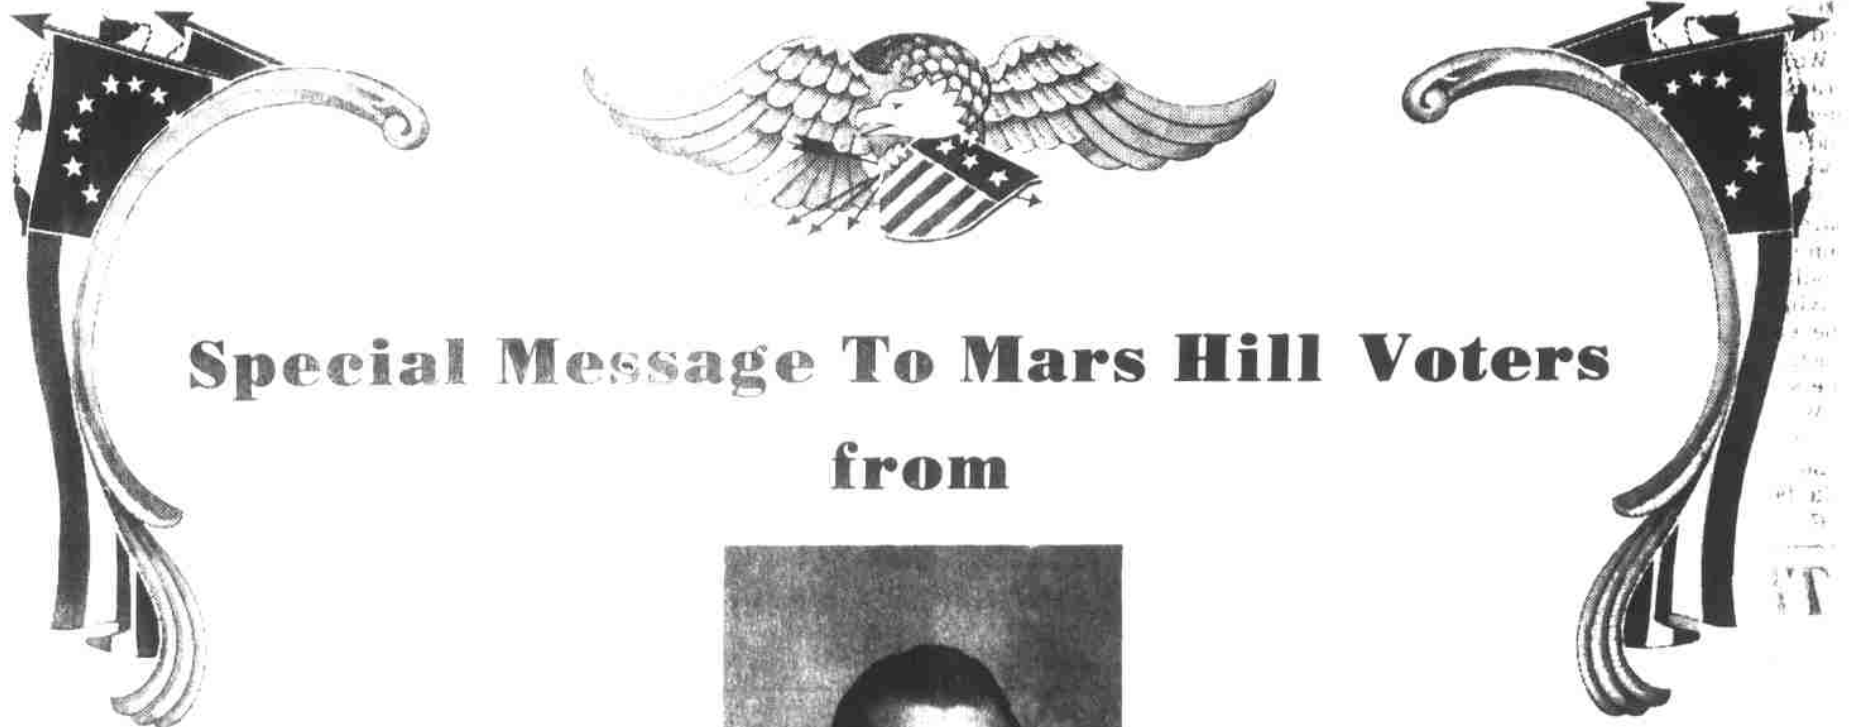

Mr. and Mrs. W. Page Bryan, of Houston, Texas, have been visiting Mr. Bryan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Polk Bryan of Route 1, Marshall. They, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Polk Bryan, also visited their grandson, son and daughter-in-law, the William Ross Bryans in Kingsport, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Reese, of Route 1, Marshall, attended the funeral services of James Dexter Burchfield at Bryson City, last Thursday.

THE CITY SLICKER

Flor. 4's
hooded Polyester Coated Cotton
Vibrant Green, Powder Blue

Robinson's
Four Season's Shop
Mars Hill, N.C.

Special Message To Mars Hill Voters

from

Freddy Holtkamp

Candidate for
ALDERMAN

Frederick Anderson

Candidate for MAYOR

Ralph M. Lee

Candidate for
ALDERMAN

Mars Hill is a developing community with new roads, new business, and an increasing population. To prevent the misuse of scarce land and the loss of traditional values, this development must be carefully directed.

What Can The Mars Hill Citizens Expect From The Leadership Of Frederick Anderson, Freddy Holtkamp and Ralph M. Lee?

- A responsible administration of land use ordinances.
- An active planning board to develop strategies for future growth and development.
- An active zoning board of adjustment to monitor land use ordinances.
- An open dialogue with Mars Hill citizens on important community issues.

- Special effort to secure an urgently needed sewage system.
- Active participation in regional planning agencies.
- Active support of the Mars Hill Volunteer Fire Department.
- An open administration involving public meetings on vital issues and community development plans.

VOTE NOVEMBER 4th

Vote for Responsible Leadership

VOTE FOR: FREDERICK ANDERSON, FREDDY HOLTkamp, RALPH M. LEE

PORTRAITS

8x10 COLOR

BIRTH TO 5 YEARS

FREE

Kodak
QUALITY PRINTS

TREASURED PORTRAITS BABY CONTEST!!

- 50¢ Handling on all Portraits
- One special per family
- Extra persons 3.95 each
- Groups 1.00 per person
- Satisfaction Guaranteed
- Portraits must be picked up by Parent

DATES — Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st
DAYS — Friday and Saturday
HOURS — 11 A.M. till 5 P.M.

BABY CONTEST!!

Do you have the cutliest child in this area?? Have PORTRAIT made and see!!
$25.00 cash prize for winner!!

— at —

Variety Shop

Main St.

Marshall, N.C.