Miss Shirley Jean Fisher Diercks-Gould Is Bride Of James Thomas

Miss Shirley Jean Fisher Larry Thomas, Friday, June 25, at 7:30 p.m. in a candlelight service at the Madison Seminary Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John E. Bussard, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Clyde C. Fisher of Marshall and the late Mrs. Idus Capps Fisher. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thomas of Mars Hill.

The church was decorated using arched and tree-shaped candelabra with a white, pink, and blue daisies and pink snaps arrangement built around the white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Rex C. Fisher, wore an Empire gown, designed for her by Mrs. Virginia Metcalf of Swannanoa, fashioned of Mira-mist with a full A-line skirt and chapel train. The skirt was accented with peau d'ange lace and seed pearls. The bodice, appliqued in matching lace, led to full Bishop sleeves.

Her fingertip veil of tiered illusion was edged in pearls and peau d'ange lace and attached to a lace cluster. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid corsage. Miss Patricia Fisher, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a full-length pink crepe gown flocked with floral design. It was fashioned with a stand-up cape collar and short flared sleeves. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink, white, and blue daisies. Bridesmaids were Mrs.

Boyd Ellis, Mrs. Robert Moore, and Mrs. Charles Downs, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. David Allen of Marshall. They wore blue gowns fashioned like the honor attendant and carried matching bouquets. The Rev. Levonia Ray of Asheville served as best man. Ushers were David Thomas, brother of the bridegroom, Bob Ealmon of Mars Hill, and Philip Cole, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's mother ge a long mint green dress wore a carnation corsage. Miss Ila Ball, cousin of the edding music composed of both contemporary and traditional wedding songs. Mrs. Ronnie Haynie, soloist, sang "The Twelfth of Never," "A Time For Us," "The Wedding Prayer," and "Whither Thou Goest."

Mrs. Rex Fisher, sister-inlaw of the bride, kept the bride's book.
