

Never Too Late!

Something may have thrown your education timetable off schedule, but it's never too late if you take advantage of Mars Hill College's

Continuing Education Program

What It Is:

The Continuing Education Program of Mars Hill College offers courses leading to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Social Work in the fields:

ALLIED HEALTH: BUSINESS (concentrations in General Business and Office Administration); EDUCATION (concentrations in K-3, 4-9, Library Science, Reading and Gifted and Talented); RELIGION; and SOCIAL WORK.

The Associate of Arts, a two year degree, may also be obtained through the Continuing Education Program.

Where To Get It:

All course work leading to these degrees may be taken off campus. Classes are usually offered in the 4-10 PM period Monday through Thursday. Most classes meet three hours once each week.

Centers where classes are presently being offered include: Asheville (Three locations: First Baptist Church, St. Paul's Methodist Church, and the YWCA); Burnsville, Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute, Fletcher, Marshall, Mars Hill, Southwestern Technical Institute, Spruce Pine, Waynesville.

What It'll Cost

Tuition costs are approximately $200 per semester during the academic year for the North Carolina resident taking 12 hours. Costs per semester hour are $25 for the part-time (less than 12 hours) student and $16.67 for the full-time student.

When:

Meetings with advisors and registration for the Winter/Spring 1978 semester will be held Saturday, January 7, 1978 in the Wren Student Union of Mars Hill College from 8 AM through 12 Noon. Classes will begin January 9 and February 27.
