

Ruby Chandley, Thomas Hunter Speak Vows

The wedding of Ruby Jean Chandley and Thomas Linwood Hunter took place at 7 p.m. Aug. 10 in the home of the bride here, with the Rev. Ralph McDevitt conducting the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Chandley of Marshall. Her parents gave her in marriage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hayburn Hunter of Marshall.

The bride wore a formal length gown of salmon pink silk and carried a colonial bouquet of salmon tea roses, white shasta daisies and babies' breath.

Sue Peek of Marshall, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and Wendy Sams of Marshall was bridesmaid. They wore formal length gowns of russet silk and carried long stem white chrysanthemums.

Dean Ball of Mars Hill was best man, and Barry Chandley of Marshall, brother of the bride, was usher.

Nancy Allen, organist, and Debbie Ross, soloist, furnished the wedding music. The traditional wedding marches were played. "For Bobby" and "The Wedding Song" were sung.

The bride's mother wore a formal length navy blue gown. The bridegroom's mother wore a black and white print dress. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the wedding a reception was held. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of mixed flowers and candles. The bride's wedding cake was decorated with salmon-pink roses and topped with wedding bells. Walda McDevitt and Paula McDevitt served the wedding cake. Ernestine Evans and Brenda Plemmmons presided at the punch bowls. They were assisted by Latrelle Robinson who also directed the wedding. Shelly Wright kept the bride's book.

The bride graduated from the University of North Carolina at Asheville and is a kindergarten teacher at Marshall Elementary School.

The bridegroom graduated from Mars Hill High School and spent four years in the Army. He is employed at Deringer Manufacturing.

The couple will live on Tillery Branch in Marshall.
