Patriot Cagers Open Basketball Season

Complete team effort enabled Madison High's junior varsity girl's team to defeat the Erwin Warriors 40-38 Nov. 30. Donna Flynn headed Madison's top scorers with 9 points while Penny Stanton followed close behind with 8 points. Erwin's Sheila Taylor led their top scoring with 11 points, with Tonya Hamilton having 10 points. Penny Stanton, Laurie Melvin and Susan Roberts hit crucial free of the Warriors, losing 79-64. Madison had several outstanding scorers, including Holly Hough and Cindy Shelton, tying with 14 points apiece, Janet Reed and Denise Thomason with 10 each, and Sandy Franklin who scored 8 while trying to avoid foul trouble. Erwin's Teresa Braswell had 20 points with Donna Young scoring 14. Erwin hit 80 percent during the game while on nit between 40 per throws in the final quarter to aid the two-point Patriot victory. The girls continued their winning ways Dec. 1, as they overcame North Buncombe with a 44-37 double overtime win. Coach Jack Radford noted that Madison shooting was off, but good rebounding by the front line kept them in the ballgame. Foul shooting also helped the win along. Maria Reese and Donna Flynn led Madison's top scoring with 10 points each, while North Buncombe's Tammy Gregg had a total of 18 points.

The Madison High Junior Varsity Boy's team lost to the Erwin Warriors 73-56 at Madison. Top scorers for Madison included freshmen Ricky Edwards and Keith Kramer and sophomore Tim Clark with 16, 12, and 11 points respectively, while Erwin's David Hyder had 18 points. Madison coach David Thomas commented that "Erwin was very impressive and had a strong defensive team and though Madison had several turnovers, we kept coming back." Coach Thomas stressed that Madison's main weakness was not being able to handle Erwin's press.

The varsity girl's team also suffered a defeat at the hands cent and 60 percent but came back to beat the Warriors by 10 in the second half scoring. Coach Ricky McDevitt stated that he was pleased with the girls and and "after we got over our first game jitters, we played great." He pointed out that Erwin had a definite advantage over the Patriots. Erwin was No. 2 last year in the state and every girl returned. He also noted that this was Erwin's second game of the season which gave them added experience.

The varsity boy's team lost to Erwin 81-66 in their opening game. Erwin led 20-8 in the first quarter and 46-27 at halftime. Madison managed to cut the score to 9 points with 3 minutes left in the game but couldn't seem to pull together for the win. Coach Joe Kruk said that Madison committed 38 turnovers.

Keith Flynn led the scoring for Madison with 21 points, with Dwayne Buckner and Tim Merrill hitting for 10 each. Erwin's David Nelson scored 28 points while Walter Clement followed with 11. The game left Erwin with a 2-0 record, while Madison is 0-1. In seventh and eighth grade basketball, the Madison girls team beat Avery 40-18, and the
