Mars Hill Battles Wofford To 7-7 Tie

S.I.D.

Fifth-ranked Mars Hill and 16th-ranked Wofford played to a 7-7 standoff last Saturday afternoon before 6,670 thrilled mecoming fans at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

After the Lions tied the score with a brilliant drive to open the fourth quarter, the Wofford Terriers had two iden opportunities to break the tie but placekicker Ronnie Andrews failed on two field goal attempts from inside of 40 yards to preserve the deadlock.

The Terriers threatened to put Mars Hill on the ropes in the second period with a relentless wishbone attack. Wofford drove 72 yards in seven plays late in the opening stanza to score on a 12-yard. halfback option pass from Wade Lang to Jeff Sarvis to put the Terriers up 7-0. They then began another drive on their own 43 with 10 minutes remaining in the first half that pushed the ball to the Lion 29 after seven plays. But with 7:31 to play in the half, Jeff Sarvis coughed up a critical fumble and the Lion's J.C. Burkett pounced on it at the 16 to set up the wild finish later in

Down 7-0 with six minutes to play in the third period, the ions made a dramatic and determined drive to tie the contest. Beginning at their own 26, Mars Hill used 14 rushing plays to reach paydirt on a one-yard sweep by lfback Kenny Phillips on the first play of the fourth quarter. John Cobie's PAT tied the score at 7-7 with nearly 15 minutes left to decide the Wofford gained a big opportunity when Terrier defensive end Carl Richardson intercepted an errant Tim Gearrin pass on the Lion's 15 with 12 minutes to play. A costly holding penalty set Wofford back and forced Ronnie Andrews to attempt a 37-yard

COACH

RICKY

ford.

field goal with 10 minutes to their own 44 with 1:26 to play.

play but his kick sailed wide The Lions looked dead when

Mars Hill got the next opportunity for the tiebreaker when Lion's defensive back Terry Hartnett intercepted quarter-back Charlie Bradshaw's sideline pass at the Wofford 42 with 2:49 to play. The break was wasted when on second down flanker Sean Conlin lost 11 yards on a reverse and a clipping penalty was tacked on to set the Lions back to their own 31. From there, Melvin Dunn got off a poor a 32-yard penalty was called on Mars Hill for pass interference and a personal foul and put the Terriers on the Lion 24. This set up a dramatic 32-yard FG attempt by Ronnie Andrews with 30 seconds to play to win the game. But the Lions refused to fold and noseguard Steve Ferguson leaped high to block the kick harmlessly to the ground. Three desperation plays in the last half-minute produced excitement but no points. Lion 23-yard punt to put Wofford on quarterback Tim Gearrin was sion in the Patriots' gym.

McDevitt is assisted in coaching duties this season by Jack Radintercepted by cornerback Tony Painter at the Mars Hill 40, while Bradshaw fumbled after being sacked by Lion defensive tackle Ricky Williamson on the next play. The final play was an overthrown last-ditch pass by Tim

The tie in the crucial NAIA game left Mars Hill with a 7-1-1 record and Wofford with a 6-2-1 worksheet. The Lions will aftempt to secure a playoff berth when they travel to Newberry, South Carolina, to play Newberry College next Saturday night in the regularseason finale.

School Menus

NOVEMBER 17-21 BREAKFAST

Monday: sausage biscuits, juice and milk.

Tuesday: pancakes w/syrup, juice and milk. Wednesday: cereal, juice and milk

Thursday: manager's choice. Friday: apple turnover, juice and milk LUNCH Monday: roast beef on bun, lettuce-tomato-cheese, french fries, pear half and milk. Tuesday: western baked beans, cole slaw, cheese wedge, diced beets, mixed fruit, cornbread and milk. pie, tossed salad, apple crisp and milk

Thursday: manager's

Friday: tomato soup in cup, turkey and cheese sandwich, lettuce-tomato, peanut-butter delight and milk.

PD. POL. ADV.

HAROLD WALLIN

PRE-SEASON PRACTICE has begun for the Marshall Youth Basketball League. Third and fourth grade youngsters worked out in the Marshall Elementary School gym Monday night in preparation for their season

Gudger helped form the Weaverville Jaycees in 1976 and served as charter chapter president. In 1978-79 he was a state district director, responsible for management training and advice for several chapters in the Asheville area.

Jaycees

Gudger

Troy "Butch" Gudger, 30, of Weaverville has accepted the full-time staff position as program manager for enrollment and growth for the

340,000-member United States

Gudger will work out of Jaycees headquarters in Tulsa, Okla., and will provide direct assistance to local and state Jaycee organizations in the recruitment of new members. He replaced Bill

Frisk, who was promoted to director of enrollment and

Jaycees.

growth.

Prior to his appointment in Tulsa, Gudger was general manager of the Daniel Boone Auto Rental and Leasing Co. He has received a number of honors from the Jaycees. Gudger and his wife, Cecile, and their two daughters live in Broken Arrow, Okla.

HEAD McDEVITT works with Madison High's varsity girls' basketball team Monday during practice ses-

YOUTH APPRECIATION WEEK

Community Calendar

The Madison Central Optimist Club will recognize Youth Appreciation Week Nov. 9-15.

EXERCISE CLASS

There will be an exercise class on Thursday evenings, 7 p.m., at the Marshall Presbyterian Church. All are invited and there will be no charge for the class. Bring a friend!

CHRISTMAS PARADE

The Mars Hill Merchants Association Christmas Parade is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 22. Any one interested in entering, working on, or participating in the parade should call Carolyn Ammons: 689-3881 (day) or 689-2641 (nights).

CHURCH PLAY

The Red Hill Freewill Baptist Church will present a play entitled, "Don't Wait Until It's Too Late" at the Sexton Freewill Baptist Church on Sunday, Nov. 16, beginning at 7 p.m.

Rev. Archie Rice, pastor, cordially invites everyone to attend.

Revival services will begin at Little Ivy Baptist Church Nov. 16 at 7 p.m. The Rev. James Keasling will be guest evangelist.

Health Watch

nience, for others it is potentially life-threatening. For everyone, it is the flu season.

This year's flu immunization campaign is geared mainly to those persons who have a high risk of flu complications. The high risk population is defined as all adults over the age of 65 and all persons, adults and children of any age,

who have chronic conditions that make them more susceptible to influenza and its com-

nature's signs are posted everywhere. Shorter days,

cooler nights, and forests

ablaze with brilliant flames of red and orange all attest to the beauty of the seasonal change.

But another season has arriv-

Nationwide offers

for Homeowners!

Nationwide proudly

presents new rates that save you money on homeowners insurance. Save on Nation-wide's All Risk policy, even more if your home is 7 years old or less, and still more when you protect your home with an approved smoke de-ector or burglar alarm

Get details from your Nationwide agent today.

Better Rates

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

FOR SALE

TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER

One 1974 Ford Truck, F7000 Series, 21/2 ton, two speed axle, diesel engine, 58,503 miles. May be seen at French

Broad EMC office on Hwy. 213, Marshall, N.C. Contact

All bids to be in the office of French Broad EMC in Marshall on or before November 21, 1980. Bids will be

French Broad EMC reserves the right to refuse any and Iverson Bradley at 649-2051.

all bids.

opened Monday, November 24, 1980.

We are seeking minority business sub-contractors and suppliers for North Carolina Division of Highways, Project No. 8.1906704 in Madison County, North Carolina.

Bids to be received by November 24, 1980.

> P.O. Box 10818 Lynchburg, VA 24506 Phone 804-239-0355

A.B. Burton Company, Inc.

A Proven Way To Sell! Phone 649-2741

opener on December 1. AMERICANS OUTDOORS

BOSTON (AP) - The Mueum of Fine Arts at Faneuil Hall is showing Grough mid-January 1981 more than 30 paintings by such artists as Winslow Homer, Childe Has-Wednesday: chicken pot sam and John Singer Sargent.

The main focus of the show, "American Outdoors: Painters of Light From Homer to Hassam," is on "the representation of artists who depicted outdoor leisure activities that were popular in America from the Civil War through the early part of this century."

Wishes to thank the voters of

Madison County for their support in his

Re-election

as Tax Collector.

Harald Walle

BEER & WINE MAKING Supply Center For W.N.C.

Free Instructions Given By Experienced Personnel

A Great

Christmas Idea!

502 Merrimon Ave. Asheville, N.C. 28804 253-7656 9:30-8:00 P.M. Mon.-Fri. 9:30-6:30 P.M. Sat.-Closed Sun.

You don't have to put your communications needs on hold any longer. Now you can purchase your business communications system from Continental Telephone. And when you do, you'll get the benefits of improved business communications, no more monthly lease charges on your business phone and the tax Westco Telephone Company ou can always call on us.