

Deborah Mantel, Skipper Curtis Wed In Weaverville

Miss Deborah Sue Mantel of Weaverville and Mr. Skipper Alexander Curtis of Asheville were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony on Saturday, Nov. 28 at 7 p.m. in the Weaverville Baptist Church. The Rev. Lee Roy Denton, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Mantel of South Main Street in Weaverville. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. James Plemons of Walnut. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis of Waynesville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin designed and created by her parents. The bodice was of applied lace with seed pearls, sequins, and bugle beads forming an original design extending the full length of the cathedral train. Her long veil was attached to a headpiece of pearls and was trimmed in lace matching the gown. She carried a specially designed bouquet of silk flowers.

Miss Heidi Mantel of Weaverville was her sister's Maid of Honor. She was attired in a gown of material designed and manufactured exclusively for the occasion by Mr. Henry Conrad, Sr. of Weaverville. It was a German dirndl skirt of green satin with a border featuring an embroidered design of pink dogwood. The long sleeved blouse was trimmed in lace and a green velvet vest trimmed in buttons from Germany completed the ensemble. She carried a cathedral style candle trimmed in poinsettias hand made by the Mantel family.

The bridesmaids were Miss Tara Gordon, Miss Brenda Netherton and Miss Alisa Spittle of Weaverville and Miss Pam Huntsinger of Asheville. They were attired like the honor attendant.

Mr. Thomas Curtis, brother of the groom from Newton, N.C., was best man. Ushers were Mr. Mike Humphries of Weaverville, Mr. Mike Robinson of Marion, N.C., Mr. Sonny Rogers of Kanapolis, and Mr. Tim McCurry of Asheville.

The junior attendants were Miss Cher Ornberg, cousin of the bride from Spruce Pine and Mr. Herbie Mantel, brother of the bride from Weaverville.

The flower girls were Jennifer Bullman and Jami Ornberg, cousins of the bride from Spruce Pine. The ringbearer was Master Eli Ornberg. He carried the rings on a pillow hand made with original cross stitched design by the Mantels.

Miss Sherri Riddle of Weaverville and a classmate of the bride, presided at the guest book.

The wedding music was provided by Mr. Dan Bullman, written by Mr. Ricky Bolick, a ministerial student who is a cousin of the bride.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The benediction prayer was
