

Galloway, Harrell Vows Exchange In Marshall

Susan Renee Galloway and Richard Earl (Ricky) Harrell were united in marriage on Friday, Dec. 4, at 7 p.m. at the Madison Seminary Baptist Church in Marshall. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. David Clark, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Martha Jo Galloway and the late George M. Galloway of Dula Springs Road in Weaverville.

The bridegroom is the son of Walter and Katie Harrell of Route 6, Marshall.

The maid of honor was Pam Hagan, sister of the bride, of Weaverville. Mr. Walter Harrell was his son's best man.

Ushers were Billy Dillingham, Steve Wilde, both of Marshall, friends of the bridegroom. David Carter of Mars Hill, cousin of the bride, also served as usher.

Stephanie Evans of Weaverville served as her cousin's flower girl, and Lane McMahan, nephew of the bridegroom, of Marshall, served as ringbearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Greg Galloway. She was attired in a gown of white slipper satin with a lace yoke. The front neckline was rounded with the collar raised in back. The gown had long lace sleeves. The back rounded into a train which matched the floor length veil. The bride carried a bridal bouquet of roses.

The maid of honor was attired in a long accordion pleated floral print of mulberry and mauve. Her headpiece was of baby's breath. She carried two long-stemmed pink roses.

The bridesmaids were attired in solid accordion pleated long dresses of wine, similar to the maid of honor. They carried a long-stemmed pink rose. The bridesmaids were Leesa McMahan, sister of the bridegroom, of Marshall, Peggy Fox, friend of the bride, of Weaverville, and Tammy Hollar, cousin of the bride, of Weaverville.

Mrs. Vickie Wilson played the piano and Melia Chandler sang. Donna Ward was the organist. Mrs. Willis presented a program of wedding music before the ceremony. Melia Chandler sang "What a Difference You've Made in My Life." Mrs. Wilson sang the "Wedding Song" just before the bride entered. Mrs. Ward played for the processional and recessional. She also played "Whither Thou Goest" and "Our Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony.

The church was decorated with white iron archway and candles on each side. The church had a kneeling bench in the center. Greenery of ivy and fern interlaced also added to the color of the church. Wedding bell made by the bridegroom's mother were mixed thru the archway. An arrangement of ice pink flowers were used, with candles surrounded by greenery decorated the windows.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Assisting were Mrs. Walda McDevitt, sister of the bridegroom, of Marshall, Mrs. Wanda Edmonds of Mars Hill and Mrs. Bula Fisher of Marshall, aunts of the bridegroom. Mrs. Stella Mae Evans, cousin of the bride also assisted.

The three-tiered cake was decorated with pink flowers and was setting on top of a waterfall. The top of the cake was attired with a replica of a bride and groom.

The bride's mother was attired in a long floral print of pink and wine. Her corsage was of white rose buds. The bridegroom's mother wore a long plaid skirt with matching solid blazer. Her corsage was of white rose buds.

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Katie Edmond, cousin of the bride, and Miss Rebecca Edmonds, cousin of the bridegroom. The wedding was directed by Mrs. W.C. Ward who was assisted by Mrs. Wayne McDevitt and Mrs. Frank Fisher.

The couple will reside in Marshall.

The bride is a graduate of North Buncombe High School and is employed by Conrad Industries of Weaverville. The bridegroom is a graduate of Madison High School and is now a Pfc. in the Marine Corps stationed at Camp LeJeune in Jackson, N.C.
