Sitting on that warm rock with his dog and his trusty fishing pole, he's learning the ways of nature and the fun of living. There's hardly a minute, at home or at play, that he isn't learning something. And, of course, from Monday to Friday in the regular classroom, he studies man's accumulated knowledge and how to make use of it. How about Sunday? Well, there is a lot of learning to be done on Sundays too, and it's the kind that helps a child to develop truth, honesty and integrity. The Church sets high standards for its young people - and youngsters love to be challenged! Church School encourages Ronnie to reach high and to strive for the best that's in him - so that he may become the man God meant him to be.   <table style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse; font-size: 0.7em;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%;">Saturday 1 Peter 2:1-10</td> <td style="width: 50%;">Wednesday 1 John 3:19-24</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Sunday John 14:1-14</td> <td>Thursday Psalm 145:1-21</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Monday Acts 9:26-31</td> <td>Friday Revelation 21:1-8</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Tuesday Psalm 20:1-9</td> <td></td> </tr> </table>   Copyright © 1984 Easter Advertising Service and Christian Newspaper Features Syndicate • P.O.
