

Senior Salute

Patriot Pride

To The
Madison High School
Class Of '84

Prepared By The Staff Of Patriot Pride

175 To Graduate Friday Night

By GRETA GRIFFIN

The Madison High School Class of 1984 will graduate on Friday at 7 p.m. at O.E. Roberts Stadium. In the event of rain, ceremonies will be conducted in the school's gymnasium.

Before the ceremonies, there will be a reception for the graduates and their parents at 5:30 p.m. in the Media Center. Snacks and refreshments will be served.

As in past years, the boys will be wearing blue gowns and girls will be dressed in white robes.

The Madison High School band, with Harry Overby conducting, will provide music during the ceremonies.

Senior Cheryl Reeves will present the invocation, after which student body president Norman Groce will present the welcoming address.

Richard Lambert and Tina Rice of the senior class are also expected to deliver short speeches.

Madison County school superintendent Robert Edwards will be the principal speaker.

The Madison High School chorus will also present two musical selections before the diplomas are presented to the graduates.

Principal David Wyatt and Assistant Principal J. Bruce Phillips will present the diplomas.

The Graduation Day activities are the result of a great deal of hard work on the part of the senior homeroom representatives, the Student Council and the teachers who sponsor the seniors.

Julie Allison, Rhonda English, Sheila Griffin, Teresa Griffin, Rebecca Jarvis, Richard Lambert, Melissa Radford, Donna Robinson and Stephanie Thomas were the senior representatives.

Senior members of the Student Council were Norman Groce, Richard Lambert, Teresa Griffin and Rhonda English.

The sponsoring teachers include Enloe Boone, Jack Brown, Lucille Sprinkle, J.D. Wallin, Carol Evans, Janet Hall and Karen Sams.

Junior-Senior Prom: A Night To Remember

By CONDY DEITZ

The annual Junior-Senior Prom was held at Deerpark on the grounds of the Biltmore Estate on April 21. The prom, which went on from 7:30 p.m. until midnight, was sponsored by the junior class.

Although the night air was a bit chilly, prom night saw the first nice weather in weeks.

The dance featured several attractions that kept things moving all night.

A wide array of evening gowns were seen, ranging from strapless gowns to full sleeves, T-length to floor and straight to full. Those in attendance danced the night away to the sounds provided by the Hollywood Brats.

Prior to the dance, a banquet was served. No less than 18 faculty members served as chaperones and no one was allowed in to the prom after 9 p.m.

Prom Night was the culmination of much hard work on the part of the juniors. The Class of 1985 sold magazines, records and tapes to raise the money needed for the prom festivities. The juniors raised $10,000 to make Prom Night a night to remember.

Couples danced the night away at the annual Junior-Senior Prom at Deerpark.