Census Bureau Here Next Week

Local representative of the U.S. Census Bureau will canvass Madison County homes beginning on Nov. 1 to conduct a survey of income and program participation.

The survey is conducted to determine how selected government programs are working and to help make the programs more effective. Madison County households are among 18,000 taking part in the survey nation-wide.

Interviewers will gather information on jobs, earnings, participation in various government programs and population characteristics.

Information supplied by persons taking part in the survey is confidential. The information gathered is used to prepare statistical summaries from which no individual or household can be identified.

Warren Wilson Open House Set

Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa will host an open house for high school students and their parents on Friday, Nov. 3 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.
