Laurel Squads Sweep Pre-Season Tourney

Laurel teams swept to championships in both divisions of the pre-season tournament sponsored by the Madison County Girls' Softball League over the weekend in Mars Hill.

In the 13-15 year old division, Laurel blasted the Mars Hill Thrillers sponsored by Skyland Freightline, 23-5. Mars Hill's Lisa English and Kristina Whaley each had two hits in the losing effort. Laurel's Dahn Cutshall had four hits for the champions. Laurel's Diane Cutshall was named the tournament's MVP.

In the 9-12 division, Laurel took a 29-0 win over Marshall to win the title. Laurel's Tammy King was named the tournament MVP in the younger division. King had 12 hits in 14 at-bats over the weekend. In Saturday's championship game, Laurel's Cindy Franklin was the winning pitcher and had five of her team's 35 hits.

In earlier games in the 9-12 division, Laurel posted a 25-4 win over the Phil-Co Cougars with Cindy Franklin pitching. Marshall took a 24-10 win from the Mars Hill Blue Jays. Amber Caulley, Jennifer Ball and Casey Waldroup each had three hits for Marshall.

Cindy Franklin also pitched Laurel to a 17-2 win over Hot Springs as Tammy King collected four hits.

In the 13-15 division, the Carolina Girls defeated the Blue Angels squad, 27-6, with Ila Rice pitching. Laurel took an easy 18-0 win over Steen's Wildcats with Leslie Shelton collecting four hits.

Skyland Thrillers advanced to the championship with a 31-12 win over Hot Springs as Thrillers' Deana Griffin, Christy Grigg and Jenny Rice each collected three hits.

In one of the tournament's only close games, Laurel downed the Carolina Girls, 8-5 to advance to the championship as Leslie Shelton had three hits for the winners.

Regular league play begins on May 30. Games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday nights through July.

A-B Tech Offers Calligraphy

A beginning Calligraphy course will be offered by the Madison County Center of Asheville-Buncombe Technical College beginning May 17, 1985. The class will meet each Friday from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. for 11 weeks at the Senior Citizen Center on Long Branch Road in Marshall. Ken Gregory will be the instructor. Students will learn to use a calligraphy pen and points, with several styles of lettering. The cost includes a $19.00 registration fee and approximately $17.00 for supplies. Persons 65 years of age and over are exempt from the registration fee. Pre-registration is required by calling the Madison County Center in Marshall at 649-2947. The Center will accept collect calls.

Burleson Is Trig Star

Victor Burleson is North Buncombe High School's TRIG-STAR for 1984-85.

Victor Burleson son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burleson, won the designation, North Buncombe High School's TRIG-STAR for 1984-85 in competition in Mrs. Maney's Trigonometry Class recently.

A TRIG-STAR is a trigonometry student who has demonstrated in competition that he or she is the most superiorly skilled among classmates, in the practical application of trigonometry. The competition for the honor is simply by a timed exercise which is the solving of a complex trigonometry problem that incorporates the use of the right triangle formulas, the law of sines, and the law of cosines.

The award is sponsored by the National Society of Professional Surveyors and co-sponsored locally by the Western Chapter N.C. Society of Surveyors, Inc.

Martin Proclaims "Year Of The Teacher"

North Carolina Gov. James G. Martin has proclaimed 1985 as the Year of the Teacher. Martin announced the proclamation during a public meeting in Jacksonville on May 16.

Martin said, "The teaching profession consists of more than three million teachers at all levels of education who play a major role in educating our nation's children and individuals of all ages. They are and will continue to be a major source of insight and direction for the development of our country."

MADISON HIGH VICA members Brad Sprinkle and Scott Weaver, right, were award winners during the state VICA conference held in Raleigh recently. Sprinkle, a sophomore, placed third in the International Affairs Scrapbook competition. Weaver, a junior, was a first place winner in the Industrial Electronics competition.
