Thanksgiving Crusade To Begin

The Red Hill Free Will Baptist Church will host a "Thanksgiving Crusade for Christ" beginning Sunday at 10:50 a.m. through Nov. 20.

The Sunday evening service will begin at 6:30 p.m. while each weeknight service will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The speakers for the week will be Mike McDaniels and the Rev. Randy Ray.

McDaniels was a former pastor of Meadowfork Baptist Church in Madison County and is currently a missionary-evangelist with the Rock of Ages prison ministry.

Ray is from Metropolitan Baptist Church in Madison, Tenn., near Nashville. Ray founded the church some 11 years ago and has led this thriving ministry to erect some 38,000 square feet of buildings in which are operated the normal church ministries, including a bus ministry, Christian school, deaf ministry, ministry to the mentally handicapped, a "soul-winning" ministry and others.

Ray has preached to huge crowds at Tennessee Temple University, Pensacola Christian College, Sword of the Lord conferences, Lavon Drive Baptist Church National Youth Conference and many others.

McDaniels will be preaching at both Sunday services and Ray at the nightly services.

Camp Completes Another Season

By EMMA LOU WAMBLES

Glory Ridge, the 30-acre campground located off Sandy Bottom Road in the Walnut area, recently ended another successful season.

This unique faith ministry provides facilities for picnics or for camping. Regina Reed, who served as kitchen manager, was responsible for providing more than 7,000 meals for both activities this season.

The campground not only serves local groups, but others as well. Groups from Carlton, Minn., Atlanta, Ga., Decatur, Ga., Lenoir and Greensboro attended this season.

Approximately 65 Grayson Scholarship students from Mars Hill College camped at Glory Ridge while volunteering their services to the N.C. Forest Service this summer.

A week-long senior high Bible camp and two youth Bible camps were conducted under the director of Betty Mawbey, a volunteer Lutheran pastor from Chicago.

This interdenominational facility has been growing for several years through volunteer efforts and contributions. This year, the dining pavilion was enlarged, another cabin was built and construction on a scenic overlook near the river got under way.

Anyone wishing to use the facility or to contribute in any way to its growth should contact the Rev. George Moore, pastor of the Marshall Presbyterian Chapel.

WE CUT DEATH DATES
Owned and Operated - Winston Lloyd

In Loving Memory of Jessie B. Worley

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, If so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, As any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you so much whatever the part.

BEAUTY'S BABY

One day, recently, the children and I stopped, on our way home, to pet Beauty and her baby. Beauty lives at Mr. Ryler's farm, not far from our home, and the coming of her colt had been a prime topic of conversation for several weeks.

This particular day Carla's question about Starlight's Daddy and his whereabouts sparked a discussion with my threesomes that ranged from God's plan for the birth and care of baby animals, on to people and their babies.

It was a rare and precious moment, such as parents and teachers treasure, when young minds reach out effortlessly for information and understanding.

As we drove home, I thanked God for the opportunity He had given me to share in this eager unfolding of my children's thoughts and ideas. I thanked Him, too, for His Church which had inspired my religious growth and thus helped me keep peace with the developing queries of my children.

Let your Church or Synagogue become your source of inspiration. Visit there this week.
