Thursday Afternoon Book Club

Mrs. P. S. Cooper was hostess to the Thursday afternoon Book Club on the 22nd. Officers for next year were chosen by ballot. Mrs. Cooper, who has made such an efficient president for the past year was re-elected by an unanimous vote. Vice-president, Mrs. C. J. Smith; Secretary, Mrs. R. L. Godwin; Treasurer, Mrs. J. L. Wade. The programme for this meeting was on music, a paper on "Italian Music" by Mrs. P. S. Cooper in which the descriptions were very true to life. Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, whose solos are always a delight, then sang "Spring is here." Mrs. J. C. Clifford's splendid reading of the "Lost Chord" was much enjoyed. After being served dainty refreshments in three courses, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. C. J. Smith in May.

REV. J. F. OWEN DEAD

Useful Life Ended.

One by one they are passing away—those middle-aged men who came to Dunn during the '80's to cast their lot. The latest one to meet death was Rev. J. F. Owen, whose earthly end came Saturday morning at four o'clock.

Mr. Owen, son of Thomas L. and Mary West Owen, was born in Honeycutt's township, Sampson county, on May 18th, 1857. There he grew to manhood under the tutelage of honest, hard-working parents. In 1887, a few years after his marriage he migrated to Dunn where he became identified with the town's interest and people.

As a farm boy the deceased acquired a force of character and religious conviction. Early in life he gave himself into the hands of the Lord, and after giving the matter thoughtful consideration, he began to preach. For many years he was an ordained Free Will Baptist minister. Later he allied himself with the Christian denomination and was a member of the church here at the time of his death.

His life and career was one of service to his fellow-men. Numbers of people in this section owe their conversion to his efforts and interest in their welfare. He was a zealous servant of the Lord and the fruits of his labor cannot be measured.

For the past five years Mr. Owen had been an invalid practically, in 1910 he suffered a stroke of paralysis and since that time four more came—the last causing his death.

The deceased leaves a wife, Mrs. Martha Owen, and a son, Mrs. Geo. F. Owen, local A. C. L. telegraph operator, to mourn their loss.

The funeral services were held from the Christian church last Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. B. F. Oden, the pastor, was assisted by Rev. J. H. Shore, of the Methodist church.

The following gentlemen were pallbearers: J. C. Barrington, McD. Holliday, J. W. Jordan, E. Lee, Wiley Hinson and P. H. Lynch. A mixed quartette, composed of Meadames P. H. Lynch and Herbert S. McKay Messrs. C. S. Hicks and Austin Holmes sang Lead Kindly Light. Other songs rendered were Lead Kindly Light, Only Remembered Safe in the Arms of Jesus. The church was crowded with sympathizing friends who came to pay a last tribute of respect to the departed one. After the funeral sermon, the interment at Greenwood cemetery followed.

NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Pyrroha, or Riggs' Disease Now Easily Curable.

Nearly everybody has Riggs' disease. Dentists tell us that at least 95 adults out of a 100 have it a more or less extent. This disease has baffled dentists for years. The loss of about half the permanent teeth is said to be due to this obstinate chronic disease. Now it is claimed to be curable. Thanks to the science!

CITY PRIMARY CREATES WARM INTEREST

Democrats Show Fight For Nominations.

Tuesday afternoon saw the culmination of one of the most interesting mayoralty fights ever engaged in in local politics. Messrs. J. W. Turnage and G. F. Pope were contenders for the nominations in the town Democratic primary.

Mr. Turnage won out by a small majority of five votes. He received ninety-five votes and his opponent, Mr. Pope, received ninety votes. Both of these men are popular among the town's citizenship. The friends of each rallied to the respective standards and during the afternoon it was known that the race was close and that the result would be extremely uncertain until the last ballot was cast.

Mr. Turnage announced his candidacy many weeks ago and worked consistently until the day of the primary. Mr. Pope did not decide to become a candidate until a few days ago, and during the interval between his announcement and the date of the primary he made great headway toward securing the prize. Had Mr. Pope announced his name earlier it is not to be doubted that the primary result would have been even more close than it was. The best of feeling was present throughout the campaign.

In the First Ward Mr. Sully Cooper was nominated without opposition and received 172 votes. In the Second and Third Wards the same was true. Messrs. Loftin Tart, of the Second Ward and J. P. Pittman, of the Third Ward, were nominated receiving 176 votes and 164 votes respectively.

In the Fourth Ward it was a three-cornered fight. Messrs. Ellis Goldstein, J. T. Guy and C. B. Aycock were seeking the nomination. Mr. Goldstein received 75 votes, Mr. Guy 69 votes, Mr. Aycock 58 votes.

Since no candidate received a majority of votes cast, a new primary was ordered. It will be held Thursday, April 29th at the same hours and place as that of yesterday. According to the regulations Mr. Aycock's name will be eliminated from the contest. At this writing Messrs. Goldstein and Guy are waging a hotly contested battle among the Aycock supporters.

New Teacher at Clayton.

The school board has secured Mr. J. A. McLean to finish out the present term of the Clayton Graded School, taking the place of P. e. U. Bradley, who resigned last Thursday. Mr. McLean has spent about fifteen years of his life teaching, and is a man well prepared for his work. About two years ago he gave up teaching to engage in the newspaper business, and has since been editor of the Chronicle, a weekly paper published at Selma. Mr. McLean arrived in Clayton Wednesday afternoon to take charge of his work. Mr. L. B. Angel, of Franklin, Macon County, is also in Clayton to take charge of the classes taught by Mr. McRae, who resigned at the same time as did Mr. Bradley. Mr. Angel taught at Four Oaks this session, and his school having closed, he was free to accept the place here.—Clayton News

DEATH OF COL. JOHN R. GODWIN

There died in Memphis, Tenn., Tuesday morning, April 20, Col. Jno. R. Godwin, a distinguished citizen and a native and former resident of Averasboro, Harnett County, North Carolina. The Memphis Scimitar says:

"Leaving his share in the establishment of one of the leading park systems in the country as a perpetual memorial to himself, Col. John R. Godwin, retired capitalist, an organizer of the Memphis park commission, and a Confederate veteran, died at his home, 1204 Penbody avenue, Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. Death was due to heart failure."

Col. Godwin was 84 years old, and was one of the most prominent citizens of Memphis. He was born in Averasboro, N. C., on November 19, 1829. After completing his education at the Male Academy, of Raleigh, N. C., he managed a plantation and later became interested in mercantile enterprises, coming to Memphis in 1859.

Col. Godwin served in the Confederate army under Price in Capt. Jackson's company with marked distinction. He was a staunch Democrat, and was elected to the Tennessee legislature in 1893. For eight years he was a member of the first park board of Memphis, and served as chairman in 1905 and 1906, resigning in 1908.

"He is survived by a wife and two children. Mrs. Hancock English and Robert Godwin.—Fayetteville Observer.

that destroys this membrane which surrounds the root of the tooth and which lines the socket in which it rests. This particular germ is readily destroyed in from 2 to 6 days treatment.

To begin the treatment one should consult a dentist and have the teeth thoroughly cleaned. Deposits of tartar or yellow calcareous matter which accumulates, particularly along the inner edges of the teeth and between the teeth should be removed as these deposits irritate the gums and furnish lodging places for many kinds of germs. After the teeth are cleaned, or even before cleaning, one should begin the use of some form of the drug spore. This is conveniently taken in tablet form under the drug name of aleresta spore. Directions for taking the spore usually accompany the drug or any dentist can furnish the information. Emetine, a milar drug, is sometimes used equally good results.

To prevent reinfection, which is easy, particularly with the use of common drinking cups, it is recommended that in washing the mouth and teeth a drop of a solution of one part fluid extract of ipecac on ten parts of alcohol be used on the wet tooth brush. The use of one drop of this alcoholic solution as a mouth wash on a wet tooth brush should be continued regularly at least twice a day to prevent reinfection.—State Health Bulletin.

A WISE JAPANESE PROVERB

The Japanese have a proverb: "A thousand miles begin with one step." Its meaning is so obvious that it is unnecessary for us "to point the moral and adorn the tale," except to suggest that the sooner you begin your efforts in the financial world and the harder you work at it, that much sooner you will begin to reap the harvest. And it is a most magnificent harvest.

This bank is owned by home folks, who have your interest at heart as thoroughly as they have the matter of making money for themselves, and will be only too glad to have you "Take the first step" in that road which leads to financial success and future happiness, with us. Let us meet "with the smile that don't wear off" and assure you that small as well as large accounts are appreciated.

Under strict State supervision.

WE HEREBY CERTIFY that we have made an examination of the books and records of the Farmers Commercial Bank at Benson, N. C., and have proven the correctness of the above statement, and have also thoroughly tested the accounting of the funds of the Bank by its officers, and find that said officers have properly accounted for all funds passing through their hands, and that the general conduct of the business compares most favorably with many of the largest banks examined by us; the officers and directors being prudent, and they have thrown ample protection around the depositors, as is evidenced by the fact that a very large percentage of the funds loaned are fully secured by mortgages or collateral.

We find that in the seven years of the Bank's existence, it has paid in dividends the sum of $36,300.00.
