Mr. Walter Howard spent Sunday with relatives at Sanford.

Miss Gene Herring, of Smithfield, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Miss Marion Hood returned Monday morning from a visit to Selma.

Prof. and Mrs. J. A. McLean, of Benson, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith were visitors in Fayetteville Monday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Johnson and Mrs. Eugene Wilson were visitors in Fayetteville Friday.

Mr. Harvey Stephenson, of Angier, was a business visitor in the city last Friday.

Mr. Harvey Tyner is spending several days this week with friends in Petersburg, Va.

Miss Emma Young, of Selma, spent Sunday here with her mother Mrs. T. L. H. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pope and children returned Monday from a visit to relatives at Selma.

Mr. Charlie Ford, of Kinston, after spending several days here with relatives, returned home Tuesday.

Miss Iva Kate Stubbs, of Charlotte, S. C., is spending several days here with Mr. and Mrs. Astor Barnes.

Mrs. B. G. Smith, of Mullins, S. C., is spending a few days in the city with her daughter, Mrs. P. S. Cooper.

Mrs. J. M. Hodges, of Lenoir, chairman of the County Board of education, was a business visitor in Dunn Saturday.

The store and stock of goods belonging to Mr. J. D. Coats, located near Duke, was destroyed by fire last Friday night.

Mr. John W. Draughon left Sunday night for Baltimore and other northern cities to purchase his spring stock of goods.

Dr. J. E. Butler and Dr. R. L. Warren went down to Fayetteville Thursday night where they took the seventh degree in masonry.

Cape Fear Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet in their castle hall tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. First degree work will be done.

Miss Kate Herring, of Raleigh, who holds a position with the State Board of Health, spent Sunday and Monday here with her sister, Miss Vera Herring.

Mr. Tyndall, of Durham, has accepted a position with Mr. J. W. Langley in his barber shop. He takes the place of Mr. Woods, who left last week.

His many friends will regret to learn that Mr. Tyrus Thornton continues quite sick at his home just west of Dunn. His condition shows no improvement and his friends feel anxious about him.

Mr. Chas. I. Stewart, a native of Harnett county, but recently of Oklahoma, has gone to Lexington, Ky., where he will be on the staff of the Lexington Herald. He is regarded as a bright and capable newspaper man and will make good in the Kentucky metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Cooper left Wednesday morning for a few weeks stay in Tampa, Florida. Mr. Cooper who has been in bad health for some time hopes to be benefited by the trip. Their family physician, Dr. C. H. Sexton, accompanied them part of the way.

Mr. Ralph Koons, of Chadburn, arrived Monday to take charge of the furniture department of the Barnes & Holliday Company's store. Mr. Koons is an experienced man and will be a valuable addition to the large force employed by this large concern. We welcome him to Dunn.

Phoebe Williams, an old colored woman, dropped dead in the city market here last Friday. She had just purchased some steak and had turned away from the counter to go home, when she suddenly fell upon the floor and expired before medical assistance arrived. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

Mr. A. A. McDonald, of Lillington one of the Harnett county boys who was granted license to practice law about three weeks ago, has moved to Dunn and will assist Mr. E. F. Young in his law office. He is a young man of pleasing personality and we are glad to welcome him to our town.

Mayor Turnage is anxious to have all the people of the town go down to the power house and take a look at the new municipal plant. Since the installation of the new machinery the town has enjoyed much better service and the day current is proving to be a great convenience. The equipment now is modern in every respect and would no doubt be a revelation to many of our people.

Mr. B. O. Townsend returned last night from a business trip to Greensboro.

Mr. T. V. Smith, cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, is in Lexington this week on a business trip.

Messrs. O. P. Shell, E. F. Young, N. A. Townsend and Clarence J. Smith, were in Raleigh Tuesday on legal business.

Your attention is called to an ad in this issue for Butler Brothers. If you are interested in baseball goods you should read it.

Those who are interested in the health, beauty and progress of Dunn should do their part next week and clean up their premises.

Mrs. E. F. Young and daughter, Miss Isabelle, who have been spending several weeks at Grifton, Ga., returned home last Thursday.

The contest which is being conducted by the Weekly Guide and has been running for several months, closes tonight. This has been a busy day for the candidates.

The residence belonging to Mr. J. G. Layton and occupied by Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald was sold last week. The consideration was $4,000.00 and was purchased by Mr. J. L. Thompson.

Mr. Robert Talton, of Statesville, Ga., was in Dunn Saturday. Mr. Talton was called to Harnett county to attend the burial of his mother, Mrs. J. W. Talton, of Coats, who died last week.

Messrs. M. T. and E. F. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lane, Miss Gladys Young and Mrs. Annie Young went up to Wilson Sunday to attend the burial of Mrs. Bettie R. Setzer who died there Saturday night.

Dr. Holt and Ruff, of Duke, McLean, of Godwin, and H. C. Turlington, of Cooper, were among the out of town physicians here today attending the monthly meeting of the Harnett county Medical society.

The store belonging to Mr. E. J. Godwin, at Godwin, was broken into last Thursday night and robbed of about $100 worth of goods. The robbers bored through the floor and gained entrance in that way. They have not been apprehended yet.

Monday will be the first day of clean-up week and every citizen should do his duty. At little cost and with a little sacrifice Dunn can be put in a sanitary condition and take its stand with the clean towns of the State. Get busy early Monday morning and see that your neighbor does likewise.

Mr. D. H. Winslow, the wide-awake Good Roads Man, spent Tuesday night here and left Wednesday on his trip northward. He expects to spend Sunday in Washington with his family, it being the 15th anniversary of his marriage. While here Mr. Winslow stated that the banks in Harnett and Cumberland had joined the procession and will give a prize of one dollar to that pupil of the several schools of these counties who shall write the best essay on good roads. The counties of Cumberland, Harnett, Johnston, Wake, Durham, Granville and three counties in Virginia through which the National Highway passes are all alive to the good roads plan and the schools will all send all essays in the prize competition.—Smithfield Herald.

Thomas J. Hunter Tells Stories.

At the Metropolitan Opera House Monday night Thomas J. Hunter, the humorous lecturer and story teller of Fayetteville, exhibited his rare talent for the benefit of the Wesley-Philanthropic Class of the Methodist church.

The night was snowy and cold but a considerable number congregated to hear the man who is renowned throughout the country for the masterly manner in which he relates Uncle Remus, Folk Lore and in fact stories of every description.

The program was in charge of Mrs. W. E. Coltrane and began with a piano solo by Miss Pauline Blaylock. This was followed by an instrumental selection by Mrs. John Hodges and a vocal solo by Miss Mosley, and then Mr. Hunter took charge. His first story was that of "The Courtship of Brer Rabbit and Brer Wolf's Daughter." Folk Lore, humorous jokes, funny sayings and long stories from Fairy Tales were handed out to the audience which might have been more appreciative had the love for these things been cultivated previously.

The program was interspersed by a male quartet composed of Messrs. Gardner, Snipes, Strickland and Herring with "Annie Laurie" and by several vocal selections by little Miss Gladys Davenport, the latter of which formed a very enjoyable feature of the program.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Jack Lee was the charming hostess to the Sandwich Club. Tables for auction bridge were arranged in the living room which was redolent with carnations, hyacinths and potted plants. On each table was a cut glass vase of carnations. The tally cards were quite unique with quaint Dutch figures in depth blue.

After many rounds of the interesting game, it was found that Mrs. Clarence Smith had made highest score.

Delicious sandwiches, hot chocolate and bonbons were served.

Club members present were Mes-

DUNN COUPLE WED IN ROCKVILLE MARYLAND.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Archibald R. Hooks, of Dunn, who were married yesterday afternoon in Rockville, Md., are stopping at the Hotel Remmel. The bride was Miss Marjorie Deban, of Selma. The couple came to Alexandria, Va., yesterday to be married, but owing to the fact that the bride had not reached her majority it was found necessary to journey to Rockville. Under the Virginia law written consent of the parents is necessary when the prospective bride has not reached twenty-one.

Wesley Bible Class Elects Officers.

At the regular Sunday school hour last Sunday morning the annual election of officers of the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist church ensued.

While the class regretted to see the old officers retire from the positions in which they have been so efficient, the members remembered that it was a re-election would be necessary or new ones elected to fill the places. So the following men were singled from the fifty or sixty members:

Teacher—D. H. Hood.
Assistant Teacher—J. L. Thompson.

President—A. L. Newberry.
Vice-President—P. S. Cooper.
Secretary—W. T. Overman.
Treasurer—P. A. Lee.
Assistant to Secretary and Treasurer—J. E. Thornton.

Membership Committee—G. W. Gardner, chairman; C. L. Wilson, J. W. Langley, W. O. Johnson, B. W. Franklin, J. A. Yount, Norman Lewis.

Absentee Committee—B. A. Rowland, chairman; J. F. Wilson, Wm. J. Thompson, W. E. Baldwin, Paul C. Hood, B. Lewis, J. H. Russell.

Devotional Committee—W. H. Herring, chairman; W. R. Strickland, E. L. Parker, C. C. Moore, J. L. Smith.

Social Committee—W. H. Newberry, chairman; J. W. Whitehead, W. R. Howard, Ralph Parker, Wesley B. Thompson.

The development spiritually is the prime object of the organization and its members and officers hope that those who do not attend Sunday School at any place will go to the meetings in the Wesley Bible Class room at the Methodist church every Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock. All who can go will receive a cordial welcome. The teacher is a profound Bible student and expounds the lessons in a most masterly manner. Be present next Sunday morning.

Woman's Club Meets Friday.

There will be a business meeting of the civic department of the Woman's Club at the school auditorium Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The chief topic for discussion will be clean-up week. All the women of the town, especially those who are members of the club, are earnestly requested to be present. The Woman's Club is essential to the development of the civic life of the town and should be accorded undivided support. The meetings should be well attended and the men should co-operate with the women in making it go.
