

LOCAL

A. C. L. PASSENGER TRAIN SCHEDULES:

Southbound.
No. 82 (Flag)	6:16 A. M.
No. 93.	8:32 A. M.
No. 89.	3:48 P. M.
No. 93.	11:12 P. M.

Northbound.
No. 84.	6:33 A. M.
No. 80.	12:52 P. M.
No. 94.	7:41 P. M.
No. 82.	11:38 P. M.

DURHAM AND SOUTHERN Passenger Train Schedules:

Lv. Dunn
No. 38.	9:10 A. M.
No. 34.	1:30 P. M.
Ar. Dunn
No. 31.	11:10 A. M.
No. 41.	6:35 P. M.

Mrs. Carrie Lane has returned from a visit to friends at Wilson.

Mrs. Viola McNeill is visiting her sister, Mrs. Privett, at Spring Hope.

Mr. Ernest M. Jeffries spent Sunday with friends in Wilmington.

Dr. W. L. Hudson of Stedman, was here Sunday.

Miss Gladys Young returned Saturday from a week's visit to relatives at Wilson.

Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald has returned from a visit to relatives at Weldon.

Mrs. H. H. McKay left Monday for Richmond Va., where she will spend the week with relatives.

Mr. Henry Herring and sister, Mrs. Butler, spent Sunday with friends in Fayetteville.

Mr. Herbert Owens, of Clinton, has moved to Dunn and accepted a position as barber with Mr. June Guy.

Mr. Henry Cannady, of Salemburg was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Miss Fannie Stallings, of Suffolk Va. arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. Gus Goddard.

Mrs. W. H. Stallings and son, W. H. Jr., of Clayton, arrived Saturday and will spend several weeks here with relatives.

Mr. Mills Goldstein and daughter Rosalie, returned Monday morning from Goldsboro, where they spent Sunday with relatives.

Messrs. F. G. Richardson, George Moore and R. L. Flowers, who are in the revenue service, were here yesterday.

Mr. John Hodges left Wednesday morning for Greensboro, where he has accepted a position with the Brown Bell Company.

Judge James B. Manning will speak at the Opera House here next Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to come out and hear this able speaker.

It is worth while to see the Millinery at R. G. Taylor Co's store. They have ready for you girls these beautiful hats by the thousand and they are cheaper, too.

Mrs. O. L. Humphreys, of Guild Tenn., who is spending several months here with her parents, left Sunday for Fayetteville to spend a few days with relatives.

A teacher's training class has been organized at the First Baptist church with Dr. Cullom as teacher. Classes meet each Sunday night just after the evening services. Mrs. V. I. Stephens is assistant teacher.

To show and price you is the pleasure of R. G. Taylor Co. and the opportunity is rare when you can buy clothing of the best quality and latest models for men, boys and children so cheap.

Work will begin next week on the construction of the plant of the Dunn Ice and Fuel Company, which was recently destroyed by fire. The plant will be larger than the former one and will be built of brick.

Mr. Byron Butler, of Lenoir, has accepted a position with Wilson & Lee as drug clerk. About a year ago Mr. Butler held a position with Messrs. Hood and Grantham. His many friends are glad to welcome Mr. Butler back to Dunn.

Several of the people of Dunn and Harnett county are taking in the Wayne County Fair this week. The management has made preparations to take care of a large crowd of visitors and they are having the pleasure of doing so this week.

The colored school will open for the fall session No. 8th. Prof. J. G. Smith, who has been principal for the past several years, will serve in this capacity again and is already saying his plans to make it a banner year.

Mr. James Norton, formerly a citizen of Dunn, was here the first of the week. He is making Mullins, S. C. his home now, but has not lost his love for Dunn yet. He expressed delight at being here again, if only for a short time.

Work is progressing rapidly on the paving of the streets of Dunn. Main street for several blocks through the business section of the town will be opened to the public this week which is welcome news to the merchants. They have been practically cut off for the past several weeks and doubtless business has been affected to some extent.

Mr. Malcolm McKay, of Faison was here this week with his family.

Miss Dora Creel returned Sunday from a visit to friends in Kenly.

Mr. J. D. Barnes was a business visitor in Rocky Mount Monday.

Mr. Claude Gardner has accepted a position with J. W. Drayton.

Mr. W. B. Craft spent a few days in the city last week with friends.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald left Tuesday for Richmond to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. Civil Thornton left Tuesday for Goldsboro to visit relatives and to attend the Wayne County Fair.

Mr. D. H. Hood left Tuesday for Richmond to attend the State Fair, and to spend a few days on business.

Mr. Horace Freeman returned Tuesday morning from a business trip to New York City.

Mr. N. A. Townsend returned Monday night from Richmond, Va., where he went on legal business.

Mr. James Best, of Durham, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Best.

Mr. J. T. Sutton, of Farmville, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Sutton.

Mr. Koonce, of the Barnes and Holliday Company, spent Sunday in Rose Hill.

Mr. George Elliott, Jr. of Lillington was a business visitor in Dunn Monday.

After spending several days here with relatives Mrs. John Mills left Tuesday for her home in Goldsboro.

Mrs. J. R. Sauls, of Kenly, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Sulpee.

Mr. Joel G. Layton, who recently moved from Dunn to a country home near Blue's Creek, was here Saturday on business.

Read the ads in this issue of the Johnson Brothers Department store. You will be interested in what they have to say.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Gilmore and two sons, Walter and Gordon Ursell, arrived here the first of the week to spend several days with relatives.

Mrs. L. B. Pope and son, L. B. J., left Monday night to spend several days with relatives in Johnston county.

Mr. Roy Bailey who is now general manager of the telephone exchange at Smithfield, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bailey.

Hon. H. L. Godwin spent Sunday here with his family. He left Tuesday for Red Springs and will spend this week in Robeson county in joint debate with A. L. McCaskill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitehead and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Mattox were in Lumberton Sunday, visiting at the home of Mr. Whitehead's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hamilton.

Capt. Linsey Godwin, who has been in England for the past few months, spent Monday morning here with his mother, Mrs. Bettie Godwin. Mr. Godwin left Monday evening for Montreal, Canada, where he will spend several months.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Waters, Dr. Martin, of Wilson, occupied the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening, preaching two able sermons. Dr. Martin is one of the bible teachers at the Atlantic Christian College, Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas DeMal, after spending their honeymoon in Washington, and other Northern cities, have returned to Dunn and will spend several days with Mrs. DeMal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Lee, before going to Rocky Mount where they will make their home.

The registration books in Averasboro township will be open the following two Saturdays. Books will be in charge of Mr. Herbert McKay and Mr. Charlie Thornton, who will be found at the regular voting places. All who are not registered are requested to do so. Those who have not registered and fail to do so cannot vote in the election.

Attorneys E. F. Young, of Dunn and L. L. Lewinson, of Coats, spoke at Cape Fear school house near Lillington Saturday night. A large crowd of citizens were out to hear them and their speeches in behalf of Democracy were well received and greatly applauded. After the speaking a Wilson-Bickett club was organized. Much enthusiasm is manifested in that section of the county and the voters are determined to elect the Democratic candidates.

Friday October 27th, will be colored day at the Cape Fear Fair. Prof. J. G. Smith, secretary of the committee on arrangements for this day, was in town yesterday advertising and working up interest among the colored people. He said they were expecting 10,000 people on the 27th, and is anxious to make it a record day in attendance for the colored people.

Mr. R. M. Jackson, secretary of the Cape Fear Fair Association, passed through Dunn Tuesday en route to Goldsboro and Richmond to take in the fairs which are in progress in those cities this week. Mr. Jackson says the fair at Fayetteville this year will be bigger and better than ever. While in Richmond he will get other concessions and interest owners of horses which are racing at the Virginia tracks this week, and get them to bring them to Fayetteville next week, and participate in the races.

MONEY to LOAN!

BANK OF HARNETT,
Duke, N. C., has money to lend on approved security.
Come to see us, or write us.

E. P. DAVIS, Cashier,
Bank of Harnett
DUKE, -- NORTH CAROLINA

FIFTY-SIXTH N. C. STATE FAIR RALEIGH

Tickets will be sold for all trains by the Atlantic Coast Line Standard Railroad of the South

October 14 to 21 Inclusive

From Dunn at $2.50 for round trip, limited returning until midnight of October 23, 1916, including admission to the Fair.

Proportionate Fares from intermediate stations. Children Half Fare.

For schedules, tickets and any desired information apply to,

J. W. Whitehead,
Ticket Agent, Dunn, N. C.

NEWS FROM COATVILLE AND SUITDOM.

The Fall Bischof Line contains much that will interest you. It includes much that will fascinate you. Models of chic grace and piquant charm. Coats cut on newest lines, and constructed of novel cloth and pile fabric materials. Suits breathing the latest zephyrs of Fashion's desire in Poplin, Velour, Whipcord, Patrician Broadcloth, and all the textile what-nots of the season's vogue.

You must-just MUST-inspect these wonder models; somewhere among them is the one onliest suit or coat of which you have been dreaming.

JOHNSON BROS., Dept., Store,
Dunn, N. C.

Last Spring the Women's Club of this prize to be awarded and Mrs. Dunn offered a prize to the child J. J. Wade who requested us to town who would grow the prettiest that all who entered the contest. It is time now for contest to communicate with her at

GOLDSTEIN'S

Fall and Winter Goods

ARE ARRIVING DAILY

They Are Opening the Most Select Stock Ever Brought to Dunn.

When You Buy Furniture

you take a big risk unless you know the reputation of the house, with which you are dealing. High grade furniture looks good and lasts. Much of the "cheap" furniture looks just as good but does not possess the necessary durability. Know your house before you buy is guaranteed, and our name our reputation and our bank account stands behind that guarantee.

Our Furniture

We Sell It For the parlor, the bed room the dining room, the kitchen, the porch, the lawn, for every place.

IT PAYS TO BUY FURNITURE FROM US For it is good furniture and cheap.

PIANOS, ORGANS, NEW HOME SEWING MACHINES Hardware-Furniture-Undertakers

THE BARNES & HOLLIDAY COMP'Y

Day Phone 11

DUNN, N. C.

Night Phone 70

The time allotted has expired and the judges want to examine the bids and reach a decision as to the winner. All the ladies who planted chrysanthemums for the chrysanthemum show are also requested to report to Mrs. Wade this week.

LOST—ONE BLACK AND WHITE spotted pig; weight about forty pounds. Any information as to its whereabouts will be appreciated and a liberal reward given. R. M. PEARSALL, Dunn, N. C.

WANTED—ONE HUNDRED CORDS of wood cut at 75 cent a cord, six miles southeast of Dunn. Apply to ALLEN H. A. LEE, Dunn N. C. 2-w pd R. F. D. No. 1

NOTICE OF SALE OF LAND.

By virtue of the authority conferred upon me in a judgement rendered at the September Term, 1915 of Harnett Superior Court in a cause docketed pending entitled Bank of Harnett Against W. C. Davis and C. W. Clark, I will at the time and place hereinafter mentioned, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, a certain tract or parcel of land, located in Upper Little River Township, Harnett county, State of North Carolina, bounded and described as follows to-wit:

Beginning at a stake and pointers near a spring on the South side of the Lillington and Jonesboro Public Road in the head of a branch about one hundred yards from the said road, and runs thence N. 3 1-2 E 42.70 chains to J. W. McLennan corner near a small branch; thence N 58 E 15 chains to a line of McLennan's land; thence S 87 E 21.49 chains to a stake and pine pointers; thence N. 40 3-4 E 5.78 chains to a pine and pointers, J. R. Davis, J. W. McLennan and the Stephens land corner; thence with J. R. Davis' line S 2 3-4 E 33 chains to J. R. Davis' corner; and thence in the same direction about 31 1-2 chains to a line of the Heck land thence west that line about 41 1-2 chains to the beginning containing 195 acres, more or less; being the same land as was conveyed to W. C. Davis by C. W. Clark in a mortgage deed registered in book 111, Page 395 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Harnett County.

Terms of sale: 10 per cent cash at the time of sale, the balance cash on confirmation by the Court, the is again open for the sale of fresh meats.

Pearsall's Market

See him for prompt and efficient service,

You will always find at his market a full line of market supplies at reasonable prices.

When you need anything in my line I will be glad to serve you. Phone No. 4.

R. M. PEARSALL.

10 per cent cash to be returned for any cause sale is not confirmed. Date of sale: Saturday, the 11th day of November 1916, at 12 o'clock M.

Place of Sale: Court House, Lillington, Harnett county, N. Carolina.

This the 10th day of October, 1916.

N. A. TOWNSEND,
Commissioner,
Clifford & Townsend
Attorneys.

Mrs. Doug Smith, of Fayetteville, arrived Monday to spend a few days in the city with relatives.

Miss Sue Smith left Monday for Goldsboro, where she will spend the week with relatives and friends and take in the Wayne County Fair this week.

Littleton College opened at Littleton few days ago with the best attendance in years. Rev. J. M. Hildes, who is at the head of this institution, is much enthused over the prospect of such a prosperous year and believes it will prove to be the best term in the history of the college.