

Keeps the Money at Home

Have you ever stopped to think what it would have meant to the South if the billions of insurance money which has been sent to the North and East could have been kept in the South?

The Southern Life and Trust Company of Greensboro, North Carolina, was one of the first companies to begin preaching the doctrine of keeping the South's money in the South.

Let us tell you something of what this policy on the part of this Home Life Insurance Company has meant to our own community.

J. L. WADE, Manager.

Proposals to save coal by closing schools in Northern and Central States during January and February have not been met with favor by the Fuel Administration.

The war has called back into service nearly 500 retired officers of the Navy and 125 former officers who resigned to enter civil life, including 22 rear admirals, 18 commodores, and 84 captains.

All official motion pictures on war activities in the United States bear the name of the Committee on Public Information, and are distributed only through the committee's divisional headquarters or by State councils of defense.

WE - Thank - YOU

Assuring you of our appreciation and hoping the new year will bring you happiness and prosperity.

We wish to thank our friends for the liberal support they have given us during 1917. Your co-operation has enabled us to more than treble our resources, which places us in a position to serve you better during the new year.

Yours very truly,

STATE BANK & TRUST CO

THE HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD.

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
In the place of their self-content
There are souls like stars, that dwell apart,
In a fellowless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where highways never ran,
But let one live by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of road
By the side of the highway of life.
The men who pass with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with the strife,
But I turn not away from their smiles
Nor their tears.

Both parts of an infinite plan—
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in my house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
The men who are good and the men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.

I would not sit in the scorners' seat
Or hurt the cynics' ban—
Let me live in my house by the side of the road.
And be a friend to man.

—Sam Walter Foss
