

WOMAN SUFFRAGE AGAIN LOSES OUT

Lacked One Vote of The Necessary Two-Thirds in The U. S. Senate

COUNTING Pairs THE VOTE STOOD 63 TO 38

For 32 Years This Amendment Has Been Knocking at Door of Senate, Won't Stop Now

Washington, Feb. 10.—By a margin of one vote equal suffrage for women was defeated in the U. S. Senate today.

On the final roll call today, fifty-five Senators—two less than the required two-thirds—voted for adoption of the resolution and twenty-nine Senators cast their ballots against it.

Immediately after the vote was announced suffrage leaders issued statements, prepared in advance, criticizing the Senate action and announcing that the fight would be renewed in the next Congress.

Twenty-four Democrats and thirty-one Republicans voted for the resolution today, while eighteen Democrats and eleven Republicans opposed it.

The Senate first voted on the Susan B. Anthony amendment in 1887, sixteen Senators being recorded for it and 84 against it.

It was in 1914, Senators dividing 35 for and 54 against, that the measure was brought to a vote.

On Feb. 27, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 32 for and 67 against.

On Feb. 28, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 31 for and 68 against.

On Feb. 29, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 30 for and 69 against.

On Feb. 30, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 29 for and 70 against.

On March 1, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 28 for and 71 against.

On March 2, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 27 for and 72 against.

On March 3, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 26 for and 73 against.

On March 4, 1915, the measure was brought to a vote, 25 for and 74 against.

EMPLOYING MORE LABOR IN THE SOUTH.

Slight Shortage Still Reported in Carolina and Tennessee, but Supply is Growing Larger.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The South still stands first in the employment of labor. There has been a slowing down in the South but there is still demand for labor.

Louisville, Ky., reports a shortage of 500, with the supply of labor approximately equaling the demand throughout the State.

Richmond, Va., reports a shortage of about 750. Baltimore which last week reports a shortage of 700.

R. J. NOBLE IS THE NEW POTENTATE

Other Elections at Special Meeting of Shriners of Oases Temples

Charlotte, Feb. 2.—Dr. R. J. Noble of Selma, was elected illustrious potentate of North Carolina Shriners at a special meeting of Shriners of Oases temple here today.

Potentate Noble succeeds by J. O. Walker, of Charlotte, who was elected to that office about two months ago and who resigned recently.

Julian Price, of Greensboro, was elected chief rabban; J. W. Grimes, of Asheville, assistant rabban; Dr. C. H. Ambler, of Asheville, remains high priest and prophet; Thomas Griffith, Charlotte, recorder; W. D. McDowell, of Charlotte, treasurer.

After the election illustrious Potentate Noble announced the appointment of other officers of the temple to meet in Indianapolis in June of this year.

Charged with Disposing of Mortgaged Property.

Wilson, Feb. 7.—On a state warrant charging forgery and disposing of mortgaged property, Police Chief C. E. Frazier arrested W. H. Stevens of Smithfield.

Richmond, Va. 7.—In addition to the tremendous sums recently placed in circulation by war activities, official figures given out today by the War Loan organization here show that the aggregate value of agricultural products in the United States for 1918 was $14,090,769,000.

Crop values in the five states constituting the fifth federal reserve district were $1,889,918,000 in 1917.

Replying to arguments of Southern opponents of the resolution that it would increase the negro vote Senator Pollock said:

I say here today that I have confidence in the white people of America—blood is thicker than water.

By the way, I believe in the white womanhood of the North; I believe in the white civilization of the whole United States.

Early today mine officials said the strike called yesterday at a mass meeting held on the outskirts while the labor council was standing by its decision yesterday to keep the members of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers in their places under protest pending the arrival of Federal Mediator Hywell Davies, reported on his way from Washington.

No, Mabel, Hog Island is where ships are raised, and not hogs.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Letter from Almond P. Westbrook, who is with the American Army in France, to his mother, Mrs. C. R. Vinson, of Dunn.

Dear Mama: Your care came yesterday. I did not answer her but I am sure she has not a time she would like to hear from me.

I think of you very often and I hope you are well.

Will tell you more when I write again.

Love, Almond P. Westbrook.

Dear Mama: I received your letter of the 25th and I was glad to hear from you.

I am well and hope you are the same.

I will write you again soon.

NO EXTENSION FOR FILING RETURNS

Collector Bailey Announces New Ruling About Internal Revenue Business.

No general extension of the time for the filing of returns and for the payment of income and excess profits taxes beyond March 15 will be granted this year.

The quarterly payment method is intended for taxpayers whose financing of the tax at one time would tend to upset local financial conditions.

The bureau has arranged to send an advisory force of several thousands of deputies and agents to assist taxpayers.

The forms for the tax returns are being printed and all forms will be in the hands of collectors between February 15 and March 1.

ARMENIAN AND SYRIAN RELIEF CAMPAIGN.

North Carolina Will Be Called Upon to Raise $200,000 Worth of Food for the Armenians.

The appropriation; but the President has also issued a proclamation in which he urges the people to give $200,000 for relief of the Armenians.

North Carolina in the week of February 21 to 26, inclusive, will be asked for but $200,000 of the $30,000,000 which the nation will raise for these starving people.

25. ARTILLERYMEN TO ARRIVE AT CAMP BRAGG SOON.

Fayetteville, Feb. 11.—A force of artillerymen consisting of 205 officers and men of the firing center at Camp McClellan, Ala., will arrive at Camp Bragg some time in the near future.

The statement was officially confirmed by Col. Maxwell Murray, commander of Camp Bragg.

The detachment which will be sent here from the Alabama camp is now under orders to proceed to Camp Bragg.
